Domestic Space in France and Belgium Claire Moran, 2022-01-13 Domestic Space in France and Belgium offers a new addition to the growing body of work in Interior Studies Focused on late 19th and early 20th century France and Belgium it addresses an overlooked area of modernity the domestic sphere and its conception and representation in art literature and material culture Scholars from the US UK France Italy Canada and Belgium offer fresh and exciting interpretations of artworks texts and modern homes Comparative and interdisciplinary it shows through a series of case studies in literature art and architecture how modernity was expressed through domestic life at the turn of the century in France and Belgium

Gustave Caillebotte as Worker, Collector, Painter Samuel Raybone, 2020-09-17 Gustave Caillebotte was more than a painter he collected and researched postage stamps designed and built yachts administered and participated in the sport of yachting collected paintings cultivated and collected rare orchids designed and tended his gardens and engaged in local politics Gustave Caillebotte as Worker Collector Painter presents the first comprehensive account of Caillebotte's manifold activities It presents a completely new critical interpretation of Caillebotte's broad career that highlights the singular salience of work and which intersects histories and theories of visual culture ideology and psychoanalysis Where the recent art historical rediscovery of Caillebotte offers multiple narratives of his identification with working men this book goes beyond them towards excavating what his work was in its own terms Born to an haut bourgeois milieu in which he was never completely comfortable and assailed by traumatic familial bereavements

Caillebotte adopted and adapted the ideologically normative category of work for his own purposes deconstructing its ostensibly class determinate parameters in order to bridge the chasm of his social alienation Painting with Monet Harmon Siegel, 2024-04-16 A major reassessment of the methods and meaning of impressionism At pivotal moments in his career Claude Monet would go out with a fellow artist plant his easel beside his friend s and paint the same scene Painting with Monet closely examines pairs of such works showing how attention to this practice raises tantalizing new questions about Monet s art and about impressionism as a movement Is impressionist painting an objective attempt to capture reality as it really is Or is it a subjective expression of the artist s unique way of perceiving things How can artists create a movement without conformity extinguishing individuality Harmon Siegel reveals how Monet explored problems like these in concrete practical ways while painting alongside his teachers Eug ne Boudin and Johan Barthold Jongkind his friends Fr d ric Bazille and Pierre Auguste Renoir and his hero douard Manet At a time of major cultural upheavals these artists asked how we can know reality beyond our personal perception Siegel provides new insights into the aesthetic philosophical and ethical stakes for these painters as they responded to a rapidly changing society Beautifully illustrated Painting with Monet sheds critical light on how Monet and his fellow impressionists painting side by side professed their capacity to know the world and affirmed their belief in what Siegel calls the reality of others Courbet's Landscapes Paul Galvez, 2022-01-01 A groundbreaking insight into Gustave Courbet and his bold experiments in landscape painting Between 1862 and 1866 Gustave Courbet embarked on a series of sensuous landscape paintings that would later inspire the likes of Monet Pissarro and C zanne This series has long been neglected in favor of Courbet s paintings of rural French life Courbet s Landscapes The Origins of Modern Painting explores these astonishing paintings staking a claim for their importance to Courbet s work and later developments in French modernism Ranging from the grottoes of Courbet s native Franche Comt to the beaches of Normandy Paul Galvez follows the artist on his travels as he uses a palette knife to transform the Romantic landscape of voyage into a direct visceral confrontation with the material world The Courbet he discovers is not the celebrated history painter of provincial life but a committed landscapist whose view of nature aligns him with contemporary developments in geology history linguistics and literature Conservation of Modern Oil Paintings Klaas Jan van den Berg, Ilaria Bonaduce, Aviva Burnstock, Bronwyn Ormsby, Mikkel Scharff, Leslie Carlyle, Gunnar Heydenreich, Katrien Keune, 2020-02-17 Artists oil paints have become increasingly complex and diverse in the 20th Century applied by artists in a variety of ways This has led to a number of issues that pose increasing difficulties to conservators and collection keepers A deeper knowledge of the artists intent as well as processes associated with material changes in paintings is important to conservation which is almost always a compromise between material preservation and aesthetics This volume represents 46 peer reviewed papers presented at the Conference of Modern Oil Paints held in Amsterdam in 2018 The book contains a compilation of articles on oil paints and paintings in the 20th Century partly presenting the outcome of the European JPI project Cleaning of Modern Oil Paints It is also a follow up on Issues in Contemporary Oil Paint Springer 2014 The chapters cover a range of themes and topics such as patents and paint manufacturing in the 20th Century characterization of modern contemporary oil paints and paint surfaces artists materials and techniques the artists voice and influence on perception of curators conservators and scientists model studies on paint degradation and long term stability approaches to conservation of oil paintings practical surface treatment and display The book will help conservators and curators recognise problems and interpret visual changes on paintings which in turn give a more solid basis for decisions on the treatment of these paintings

"Art, Sex and Eugenics " Anthea Callen, 2017-07-05 This book reveals how art and sex promoted the desire for the genetically perfect body Its eight chapters demonstrate that before eugenics was stigmatized by the Holocaust and Western histories were sanitized of its prevalence a vast array of Western politicians physicians eugenic societies family leagues health associations laboratories and museums advocated through verbal and visual cultures the breeding of the master race Each chapter illustrates the uncanny resemblances between models of sexual management and the perfect eugenic body in America Britain France Communist Russia and Nazi Germany both before and after the Second World War Traced back to the eighteenth century anatomy lesson the perfect eugenic body is revealed as athletic hygienic pure blooded and sexually potent This paradigm is shown to have persisted as much during the Bolshevik sexual revolution as in democratic nations and fascist regimes Consistently posed naked these images were unashamedly exhibitionist and voyeuristic Despite stringent legislation against obscenity not only were these images commended for soliciting the spectator s gaze but also for motivating the spectator to act out their desire An examination of the counter archives of Maori and African Americans also exposes how biologically racist eugenics could be equally challenged by art Ultimately this book establishes that art inculcated procreative sex with the Corpus Delecti the delectable body healthy wholesome and sanctioned by eugenicists for improving the Western race

Contemporary Art and Classical Myth Jennie Hirsh, 2017-07-05 Contemporary art is deeply engaged with the subject of classical myth Yet within the literature on contemporary art little has been said about this provocative relationship Composed of fourteen original essays Contemporary Art and Classical Myth addresses this scholarly gap exploring and in large part establishing the multifaceted intersection of contemporary art and classical myth Moving beyond the notion of art as illustration the essays assembled here adopt a range of methodological frameworks from iconography to deconstruction and do so across an impressive range of artists and objects Francis Al s Ghada Amer Wim Delvoye Luciano Fabro Joanna Frueh Felix Gonzales Torres Duane Hanson Yayoi Kusama Roy Lichtenstein Kara Walker and an iconic photograph by Richard Drew subsequently entitled The Falling Man Arranged so as to highlight both thematic and structural affinities these essays manifest various aspects of the link between contemporary art and classical myth while offering novel insights into the artists and myths under consideration Some essays concentrate on single works as they relate to specific myths while others take a broader approach calling on myth as a means of grappling with dominant trends in contemporary art Henry James and the Art of Impressions John Scholar, 2020-05-21 Henry James criticized the impressionism that was revolutionizing French painting and fiction. He satirized the British aesthetic movement whose keystone was impressionist criticism. So why time and again in important parts of his literary work did James use the word impression? Henry James and the Art of Impressions argues that James tried to wrest the impression from the impressionists and to recast it in his own art of the novel. Interdisciplinary in its range, philosophical and literary in its focus, the book shows the place of James's work within the wider cultural history of impressionism. It draws on painting, philosophy, psychology, literature, and critical theory to examine James's art criticism, early literary criticism, travel writing, reflections on his own fiction, and the three great novels of his major phase: The Ambassadors, The Wings of the Dove, and The Golden Bowl. It shows how the language of impressions enables James to represent the most intense moments of consciousness of his characters. It argues that the Jamesian impression is best understood as a family of related ideas bound together by James's attempt to reconcile the novel's value as a mimetic form with its value as a transformative creative activity.

Botanical Revolutions Giovanni Aloï, 2025-03-18 This groundbreaking volume unearths the representation of plants and their vital impact on art, thereby advocating for the botanical world's legitimate place in art history. Desired for their aesthetic beauty, sought after for their medicinal properties, harvested for their scents and flavors, or grown as essential material resources, plants are indissolubly entwined with our existence. In art, it is no different: plants have played a critical role. Yet despite their significant material and conceptual contributions, plants have been sidelined in the commentary of art historians and critics. Botanical Revolutions presents a global history of plants in art, focusing on the crucial moments that signaled the formation of new movements and styles, as well as the creation of media that could not have occurred without the involvement of and interaction with the vegetal world. In this fascinating and beautifully illustrated book, author Giovanni Aloï delves deeply into the history and representation of plants in art, advocates for a change in our relationship with the botanical world, and presents an alternative history of art that foregrounds the truly indispensable contributions of plants.

The Work of Art Anthea Callen, 2015-02-15 In The Work of Art, Anthea Callen analyzes the self-portraits, portraits of fellow artists, photographs, prints, and studio images of prominent nineteenth-century French Impressionist painters, exploring the emergence of modern artistic identity and its relation to the idea of creative work. Landscape painting, in general, she argues, and the plein air oil sketch, in particular, were the key drivers of change in artistic practice in the nineteenth century, leading to the Impressionist revolution. Putting the work of artists from Courbet and Cézanne to Pissarro under a microscope, Callen examines modes of self-representation and painting methods, paying particular attention to the painters' touch and mark-making. Using innovative methods of analysis, she provides new and intriguing ways of understanding material practice within its historical moment and the cultural meanings it generates. Richly illustrated with 180 color and black and white images, The Work of Art offers fresh insights into the development of avant-garde French painting and the concept of the modern artist.

Merchants of

Style Natasha Degen, 2023-05-17 Looking at Andy Warhol's legacy as maker and muse this book offers a critical examination of the coalescence of commerce and style Merchants of Style explores the accelerating convergence of art and fashion looking at the interplay of artists and designers and the role of institutions both public and commercial that have brought about this marriage of aesthetic industries The book argues that one figure more than any other anticipated this moment Andy Warhol Beginning with an overview of art and fashion's deeply entwined histories and then picking up where Warhol left off Merchants of Style tells the story of art's emboldened forays into commerce and fashion's growing embrace of art As the two industries draw closer together than ever before this book addresses urgent questions about what this union means and what the future holds

Art in Literature, Literature in Art in 19th Century France Emilie Sitzia, 2011-12-08 The traditional relationship between painting and literature underwent a profound change in nineteenth century France Painting progressively asserted its independence from literature as it liberated itself from narrative obligations whilst interrogating the concept of subject matter itself Simultaneously the influence of art on the writing styles of authors increased and the character of the artist established itself as a recurring motif in French literature This book offers a panoramic review of the relationship between art and literature in nineteenth century France By means of a series of case studies chosen from key moments throughout the nineteenth century the aim of this study is to provide a focused analysis of specific examples of this relationship revealing both its multifaceted nature as well as offering a panorama of the development of this on going and increasingly complex cultural relationship From Jacques Louis David's irreverence for classical texts to Victor Hugo's graphic works from Edouard Manet's illustrations to Vincent Van Gogh's paintings of books from Honor de Balzac's Unknown Masterpiece to Joris Karl Huysmans's A Rebours this interdisciplinary investigation of the links between literature and art in France throws new light on both fields of creative endeavour during a critical phase of France's cultural history

Madame Cézanne Dita Amory, 2014 A new account of Cézanne's complex relationship with his wife who served as the subject of some of his most iconic portraits Paul Cézanne's 1839-1906 portraits of Hortense Fiquet 1850-1922 his wife and the subject of some of his iconic portraits rank among the most powerful of their kind in French modernism Yet posterity has not been kind to Madame Cézanne She was called a distraction blamed for her husband's lackluster landscapes and disdained for her impenetrable expression in the paintings The reality is more complex for while Fiquet may not have been the passion of Cézanne's lifetime she was a willing accomplice as model mother of his only son and unwavering partner against all odds Madame Cézanne examines this unique relationship as it looks at Cézanne the painter draftsman and portraitist Featuring 24 of Cézanne's oil portraits of Fiquet and most of the known drawings Madame Cézanne both reevaluates with insight and compassion the long held misconceptions about the Cézannes unconventional marriage and shows how Cézanne's portraits of his wife provide a lens through which to better understand his overall technique Published by The Metropolitan Museum of Art Distributed by Yale University Press Exhibition Schedule The Metropolitan Museum of Art 11 18 14 03 15 15 Towards

Creative Imagination in Victorian Literature Aleksandra Piasecka, 2014-06-19 This book explores the concept of the creative imagination in Mid and Late Victorian England In these times of transition as the age of the Industrial Revolution was regarded aesthetic considerations became involved in the broader debate on the shape of the modern world Thus the approach to the artistic imagination was closely connected with the shifting beliefs concerning the essence of beauty and the role of religion not to mention attitudes towards nature and society These aspects defined the aims furthered by painters and poets alike and set the direction for their artistic endeavours Five people have been chosen as representatives of their time in the discussion about artistic imagination John Ruskin William Morris Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and Arthur Symonds Accordingly the material analysed to recreate the Victorian understanding of the artistic faculties is of different kinds and embraces not only critical essays Ruskin Pater Symonds but also belles lettres short stories Morris and poems Rossetti Symonds In this manner two positions complement each other namely the views of the theoreticians and those of practitioners The former attempted to discern and extract the quintessence of the artistic powers on the basis of their observations and reflections whereas the latter relied on their personal experiences in this respect

Ecocriticism and the Anthropocene in Nineteenth-Century Art and Visual Culture Maura Coughlin, Emily Gephart, 2019-09-06

In this volume emerging and established scholars bring ethical and political concerns for the environment nonhuman animals and social justice to the study of nineteenth century visual culture They draw their theoretical inspiration from the vitality of emerging critical discourses such as new materialism ecofeminism critical animal studies food studies object oriented ontology and affect theory This timely volume looks back at the early decades of the Anthropocene to query the agency of visual culture to critique create and maintain more resilient and biologically diverse local and global ecologies

The European Experience Jan Hansen, Jochen Hung, Jaroslav Ira, Judit Klement, Sylvain Lesage, Juan Luis Simal, Andrew Tompkins, 2023-02-21

The European Experience brings together the expertise of nearly a hundred historians from eight European universities to internationalise and diversify the study of modern European history exploring a grand sweep of time from 1500 to 2000 Offering a valuable corrective to the Anglocentric narratives of previous English language textbooks scholars from all over Europe have pooled their knowledge on comparative themes such as identities cultural encounters power and citizenship and economic development to reflect the complexity and heterogeneous nature of the European experience Rather than another grand narrative the international author teams offer a multifaceted and rich perspective on the history of the continent of the past 500 years Each major theme is dissected through three chronological sub chapters revealing how major social political and historical trends manifested themselves in different European settings during the early modern 1500 1800 modern 1800 1900 and contemporary period 1900 2000 This resource is of utmost relevance to today's history students in the light of ongoing internationalisation strategies for higher education curricula as it delivers one of the first multi perspective and truly European analyses of the continent's past Beyond the provision of historical content this textbook equips students with the intellectual tools to interrogate prevailing accounts of European history and enables them to seek out additional perspectives in a bid to further enrich the discipline

The Substance + the Shadow Marius Roux, Dick Collins, Paul Smith, 2007 This translation titled The Substance and the Shadow also brings to the foreground the effects of a burgeoning capitalist economy on the artistic practices of the period With changes in the Salon and the dealer system art in France was no longer reserved for the privileged few and artists increasingly found themselves attempting to appeal to the merchant classes Art had become a commercial endeavor in ways never before imagined and the story details Rambert's and by extension Cezanne's attempts to cope with the shift In an introductory essay Paul Smith discusses the nature of the roman à clef and its use as a historical document and provides an examination of the relationship between Roux's characters and their real life counterparts

BOOK JACKET

Mapping Degas Roberta Crisci-Richardson, 2015-06-18 The New Art History and the Impressionist canon seem to have successfully claimed Edgar Degas as a misogynist rabid nationalist and misanthrope whose art was both masterly and experimental By analysing Degas's approach to space and his self-fashioning attitude towards identity within the ambiguities of the political and artistic culture of nineteenth century France this book questions the characterisation of Degas as a right wing Frenchman and artist and will change the way in which Degas is thought about today
