of J. M. W. Turner: Text Martin Butlin, Joseph Mallord William Turner, Evelyn Joll, 1977-01-01 The Late Works of J.M.W. Turner Sam Smiles, 2020 An exploration of Turner's final vital years including new readings of some of his most significant paintings The paintings and drawings Joseph Mallord William Turner 1775-1851 produced from 1835 to his death in 1851 are seen by many as his most audacious and compelling work a typical example of late style In this study Sam Smiles goes beyond late style with its focus on formal qualities and assumptions about personal expression as an explanatory framework for Turner's late works Instead he argues that Turner in his final fifteen years was an artist entirely engaged with his own times Smiles examines the artist's critical reception in these years and scrutinizes accounts that presumed Turner's physical and mental health collapsed in his seventies to see what can be reliably said about his work as he aged Emerging from this study is an artist who used his final years to consolidate the principles that had motivated him throughout his career Paintings of Jmw Turner Joseph Mallord William Turner, 1984 The Paintings of J.M.W. Turner J. M. W.

Turner, 1984 Yale University press J.M.W. Turner and the Subject of History Leo Costello, 2017-07-05 J M W Turner and the Subject of History is an in depth consideration of the artist's complex response to the challenge of creating history paintings in the early nineteenth century Structured around the linked themes of making and unmaking of creation and destruction this book examines how Turner's history paintings reveal changing notions of individual and collective identity at a time when the British Empire was simultaneously developing and fragmenting Turner similarly emerges as a conflicted subject one whose artistic modernism emerged out of a desire to both continue and exceed his eighteenth century aesthetic background by responding to the altered political and historical circumstances of the nineteenth century The Paintings

Reese, William J. Reese, Yale Center for British Art, Royal Academy of Arts (Great Britain), 2007-01-01 Paul Mellon 1907 1999 was an unparalleled collector of British art His collection now at Yale in the museum and study center he founded to house it rivals those in Britain's national museums and is unquestionably the most comprehensive representation of British art held outside of the United Kingdom This book and the exhibition that it accompanies celebrate the centenary of his birth Five introductory essays examine Mellon's extraordinary collecting activity as well as his role in creating both the Yale Center for British Art and the Paul Mellon Centre for Studies in British Art in London as gifts to his alma mater Yale 1929 A lavishly illustrated catalogue section showcases 148 of the most exquisite and important paintings watercolors drawings prints sculpture rare books and manuscript material in the Yale Center's collection including major works by Thomas Gainsborough Joshua Reynolds George Stubbs John Constable and J M W Turner      Art's Emotions Damien Freeman, 2014-09-03 Despite the very obvious differences between looking at Manet's Woman with a Parrot and listening to Elgar's Cello Concerto both experiences provoke similar questions in the thoughtful aesthete why does the painting seem to express reverie and the music nostalgia How do we experience the reverie and nostalgia in such works of art Why do we find these experiences rewarding in similar ways As our awareness of emotion in art and our engagement with art s emotions can make such a special contribution to our life it is timely for a philosopher to seek to account for the nature and significance of the experience of art s emotions Damien Freeman develops a new theory of emotion that is suitable for resolving key questions in aesthetics He then reviews and evaluates three existing approaches to artistic expression and proposes a new approach to the emotional experience of art that draws on the strengths of the existing approaches Finally he seeks to establish the ethical significance of this emotional experience of art for human flourishing Freeman challenges the reader not only to consider how art engages with emotion but how we should connect up our answers to questions concerning the nature and value of the experiences offered by works of art

Turner and Constable Nicola Moorby, 2025-03-11 Born just fourteen months apart one in London and the other in rural Suffolk J M W Turner and John Constable went on to change the face of British art The two men have routinely been seen as polar opposites not least by their peers Differing in temperament background beliefs and vision they created images as dissimilar as their personalities Yet in many ways they were fellow travellers As children of the late 18 th century both faced the same challenges and opportunities Above all they shared common cause as champions of a distinctively British art Through their work they fought for the recognition and appreciation of landscape painting and in doing so ensured their reputations were forever intertwined and interlinked Nicola Moorby offers us a fresh perspective on two extraordinary artists uncovering the layers of fiction that have embellished and disguised their greatest achievements For Turner it is also the story of the triumph of landscape painting

Buron, 2025-10-07 In a significant traveling exhibition many of Claude Monet s radiant and evocative Venice paintings are to be reunited for the first time in over a century Monet s Venice paintings are high points in his lifelong engagement with the interplay of water and light Monet and Venice anchored by two masterworks from the collections of Brooklyn and San Francisco The Doge's Palace and The Grand Canal Venice will be the first exhibition and English language publication dedicated to this significant suite of paintings since their Parisian debut at the Bernheim Jeune gallery in 1912 Monet keenly felt the burden of influence in a city that had so often been depicted and had long been an icon of waning fragile beauty Venice was and is a place where culture and nature are profoundly and uniquely entangled Monet's images of Venice's buildings and canals dissolved in colorful mist and hazy light may be seen as meditations on human aesthetic interaction with a natural environment built upon for centuries These tonally unifying atmospheres which he referred to as the enveloppe reveal Monet's essentially ecological understanding of the world in which he immersed himself Air light water and stone emerge together from a matrix of bold brushwork buildings reflections and space are interconnected in luminous paintings that reinscribed and transformed the centuries old Venetian landscape tradition Including lush reproductions newly commissioned texts and maps of the artist's views this book is an essential addition to any Monet lover's library

Pictures-within-Pictures in Nineteenth-Century Britain Catherine Roach, 2017-07-05 Repainting the work of another into one's own canvas is a deliberate and often highly fraught act of reuse This book examines the creation display and reception of such images Artists working in nineteenth century London were in a peculiar position based in an imperial metropole yet undervalued by their competitors in continental Europe Many claimed that Britain had yet to produce a viable national school of art Using pictures within pictures British painters challenged these claims and asserted their role in an ongoing visual tradition By transforming pre existing works of art they also asserted their own painterly abilities Recognizing these statements provided viewers with pleasure in the form of a witty visual puzzle solved and with prestige in the form of cultural knowledge demonstrated At stake for both artist and audience in such exchanges was status the status of the painter relative to other artists and the status of the viewer relative to other audience members By considering these issues this book demonstrates a new approach to images of historic displays Through examinations of works by J M W Turner John Everett Millais John Scarlett Davis Emma
