The Palace of Bones Allison Eir Jenks, 2002 The Palace of Bones by Allison Eir Jenks is an often stark and startling vision of the way we live the places we inhabit and the relics we make to comfort ourselves Haunted by a quiet unquenchable longing Jenks expertly and calmly guides the reader through a vivid dreamscape in this first full length collection of poems The Palace of Bones was selected by final judge and Pulitzer Prize winner Carolyn Kizer At once dark in its vision and light in its tone this remarkable book is its author's self confident invitation for us to join her in a world she knows intimately and has made almost familiar if not entirely safe The Palace of Bones is a stunning debut The Long island farmer's poems. Lines written on the 'Quaker city', Excursion to Palestine, and other poems Bloodgood Haviland Cutter, 1886 Alfred; an epic poem Joseph Cottle, 1850 The Complete Poetry and Prose of William Blake William Blake, 2008-07-07 Poetry The

Columbia Anthology of Traditional Korean Poetry Peter H. Lee, 2002 This anthology offers a representative selection from the four major genres of native Korean poetry the Silla songs known as hyangga Koryo songs sijo and kasa The volume also includes Songs of Flying Dragons the great eulogy cycle compiled from 1445 1447 Articulated Ladies Paul Rouzer, 2020-10-26 This volume analyzes the representation of gender and desire in elite male authored literary texts in China dating from roughly 200 B C until 1000 A D Above all it discusses the intimate relationship between the representation of gender and the political and social self representations of elite men and shows where gender and social hierarchies cross paths Paul Rouzer argues that when male authors articulated themselves as women the resulting articulation was inevitably influenced by this act of identification Articulated women are always located within a non existent liminal space between ostensible object and ostensible subject a focus of textual desire both through possession and through identification Nor in male authored texts is this articulation ever fully resolved the potential of multiple interpretations is continually present

Cyclopaedia of Poetry, 1872 The Art of English Poetry Edward Bysshe, 1718 The Poetry of Li He Robert Ashmore, 2023-06-19 Li He 790 816 holds a place in China's poetic history somewhat outside the mainstream but in every generation of readers there have been those who have found his intense and often cryptic lyrical visions irresistibly fascinating and utterly without parallel He is renowned particularly for his lyrical reimaginings of song traditions from the ancient past and his premature death along with the otherworldly quality of many of his works led later readers to view him as the emblematic cursed poet whose fascination with ancient history with ghosts and with celestial and demonic beings seemed to presage the brevity of his own existence Li He's style and diction are often idiosyncratic and even hermetic and his work presents daunting challenges to readers wishing to follow the flights of his imagination or simply to construe the basic sense of his language This volume presents close translations of all of Li He's poetry in facing page format with the original texts with explanatory notes on literary and historical references and difficult points of interpretation along with endnotes briefly discussing textual variants and other technical matters Taken together these features will be a welcome aid to readers wishing to explore Li He's poetic worlds first hand Victorian Poetry and the Culture of the Heart Kirstie Blair, 2006-04-27 This study considers why and how the heart became a vital image in Victorian poetry It argues that the intense focus on heart imagery in the period highlights anxieties about the ability of poetry to act upon its readers It covers key poems by authors such as Tennyson and the Brownings and contextualizes them with reference to lesser known works
