Texts of the Passion Thomas H. Bestul,2015-08-05 In this book Thomas H Bestul constructs the literary history of the Latin Passion narratives placing them within their social cultural and historical contexts He examines the ways in which the Passion is narrated and renarrated in devotional treatises paying particular attention to the modifications and enlargements of the narrative of the Passion as it is presented in the canonical gospels Of particular interest to Bestul are the representations of Jews women and the body of the crucified Christ Bestul argues that the greatly enlarged role of the Jews in the Passion narratives of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries is connected to the rising anti Judaism of the period He explores how the representations of women particularly the Virgin Mary express cultural values about the place of women in late medieval society and reveal an increased interest in female subjectivity
