The Civilizing Process and the Past We Now Abhor Bruce Fleming, 2022-04-19 Drawing on the thought of Norbert Elias and using as a thread a purposely apolitical example of cruelty to animals to focus on changes in attitudes this book explores the ways in which we deal with a past that we now abhor As we struggle to deal with the fact that our past shapes us indeed is us but is not us and cannot be changed the modern tendency is to demand merely cosmetic rather than real changes to the world and to judge harshly the individuals with whom the past is populated pulling down statues or re naming institutions An examination of our modern colonialism of time rather than place which refuses to consider or accept the fact that without our past we wouldn't be here at all let alone in a position to judge The Civilizing Process and the Past We Now Abhor will appeal to scholars and students of sociology cultural studies and literature with interests in contemporary questions of race morality and efforts to correct the wrongs of our past The Paranormal Phenomena Michael Hur, 2016-02-20 As Bible believing Christians a question should be asked Does the Bible confirm the existence of paranormal realities as they pertain to UFOs ghosts ancient outer space travel teleportation time travel shadow governments and more The answer to that question is yes it does However what are the Bible's teachings regarding these subjects Are they the same as what mainstream media and new age teachers are telling us or could it be that the Bible gives a different and largely untold explanation to what they are In this book called The Paranormal Phenomena you will read and discover various Bible passages from the King James Authorized English Bible itself as it reveals many realities of the supernatural and the paranormal events of this world Historical Geology in Maps Peter Roberts, 2017-06-03 This book which is the only one of its kind available worldwide tells the tectonic plate history of the world and the geological history of the British Isles and Ireland by means of a series of 24 sequential maps 12 of the tectonic plates and 12 of each major geological period for the British Isles Each map is accompanied by descriptive text The descriptions of the geological periods include an imaginative description of what it would be like to visit that time and a factual description of the geology rocks fossils climate tectonics and coastal distribution The Revelation of the Mystery Witness Lee, 2002-06 The End of Everything Katie Mack, 2020-08-04 A NEW YORK TIMES NOTABLE BOOK AN NPR SCIENCE FRIDAY BOOK CLUB SELECTION NAMED A BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR BY THE WASHINGTON POST THE ECONOMIST NEW SCIENTIST PUBLISHERS WEEKLY and THE GUARDIAN From the cohost of the podcast The Universe with John Green and one of the most dynamic stars in astrophysics an engrossing elegant The New York Times look at five ways the universe could end and the mind blowing lessons each scenario reveals about the most important concepts in cosmology We know the universe had a beginning With the Big Bang it expanded from a state of unimaginable density to an all encompassing cosmic fireball to a simmering fluid of matter and energy laying down the seeds for everything from black holes to one rocky planet orbiting a star near the edge of a spiral galaxy that happened to develop life as we know it But what happens to the universe at the end of the story And what does it mean for us now Dr Katie Mack has been contemplating these questions since she was a young student when her astronomy professor informed her the universe could end at any moment in an instant This revelation set her on the path toward theoretical astrophysics Now with lively wit and humor she takes us on a mind bending tour through five of the cosmos s possible finales the Big Crunch Heat Death the Big Rip Vacuum Decay the one that could happen at any moment and the Bounce Guiding us through cutting edge science and major concepts in quantum mechanics cosmology string theory and much more The End of Everything is a wildly fun surprisingly upbeat ride to the farthest reaches of all that we know

Out of This World Priscilla Dionne Layne,2024-11-15 Examining Afro German artists use of Afrofuturist tropes to critique German racial history The term Afrofuturism was first coined in the 1990s to describe African diasporic artists use of science fiction speculative fiction and fantasy to reimagine the diaspora s pasts and to counter not only Eurocentric prejudices but also pessimistic narratives Out of This World Afro German Afrofuturism focuses on contemporary Black German Afrofuturist literature and performance that critiques Eurocentrism and specifically German racism and colonial history This young generation has Priscilla Layne argues engaged with Afrofuturism to disrupt linear time and imagine alternative worlds to introduce non Western technologies into the German cultural milieu and to consider the possibilities of posthumanism Their experiments in futurist and speculative narratives offer new tools for breaking with the binary thinking about race culture and gender identity that have been enforced by repressive ideological and state apparatuses such as educational cultural and police institutions Rather than providing escapism or purely imaginary alternatives however they have created a space outer and artistic in which their lives matter

The Representation of the Past Kevin Walsh,2002-09-11 The 1980s and early 1990s have seen a marked increase in public interest in our historic environment The museum and heritage industry has expanded as the past is exploited for commercial profit In The Representation of the Past Kevin Walsh examines this international trend and questions the packaging of history which serves only to distance people from their own heritage A superficial unquestioning portrayal of the past he feels separates us from an understanding of our cultural and political present Here Walsh suggests a number of ways in which the museum can fulfill its potential by facilitating our comprehension of cultural identity Deep Time, Dark Times David Wood,2018-12-04 The new geological epoch we call the Anthropocene is not just a scientific classification It marks a radical transformation in the background conditions of life on Earth one taken for granted by much of who we are and what we hope for Never before has a species possessed both a geological scale grasp of the history of the Earth and a sober understanding of its own likely fate Our situation forces us to confront questions both philosophical and of real practical urgency We need to rethink who we are what agency means today how to deal with the passions stirred by our circumstances whether our manner of dwelling on Earth is open to change and ultimately What is to be done Our future that of our species and of all the fellow travelers on the planet depend on it The real world consequences of climate change bring new significance to some very traditional philosophical questions about reason agency responsibility community and man s place in nature The focus is shifting from imagining and promoting the good life to the survival of the species Deep Time Dark Times challenges us to reimagine ourselves as a species taking on a geological consciousness Drawing promiscuously on the work of Nietzsche Heidegger Foucault Derrida Deleuze and other contemporary French thinkers as well as the science of climate change David Wood reflects on the historical series of displacements and de centerings of both the privilege of the Earth and of the human from Copernicus through Darwin and Freud to the declaration of the age of the Anthropocene He argues for the need to develop a new temporal phronesis and to radically rethink who we are in respect to solidarity with other humans and responsibility for the nonhuman stakeholders with which we share the planet In these brief lively chapters Wood poses a range of questions centered on our individual and collective political agency Might not human exceptionalism be reborn as a sort of hyperbolic responsibility rather than privilege Just For Now Satyadeva
