The Pater John Lockwood Kipling His Life And Times 18371911:

The Pater Arthur R. Ankers,2016 The Cambridge Companion to Rudyard Kipling Howard J. Booth,2011-09-01

Rudyard Kipling 1865 1936 is among the most popular acclaimed and controversial of writers in English His books have sold in great numbers and he remains the youngest writer to have won the Nobel Prize in Literature Many associate Kipling with poems such as If his novel Kim his pioneering use of the short story form and such works for children as the Just So Stories For others though Kipling is the very symbol of the British Empire and a belligerent approach to other peoples and races This Companion explores Kipling s main themes and texts the different genres in which he worked and the various phases of his career It also examines the afterlives of his texts in postcolonial writing and through adaptations of his work With a chronology and guide to further reading this book serves as a useful introduction for students of literature and of Empire and its after effects

Man and Mason-Rudyard Kipling Richard Jaffa,2011-06-02 Rudyard Kipling remains one of the most intriguing and elusive personalities in English literature He was a Nobel laureate prolific writer political figure and one of the outstanding men of his era There are many dimensions to his work but no one has previously examined in depth his interest in Freemasonry and its impact on his literary output This book looks at the life of both the young Kipling and the old one and shows how at two major stages of his life he turned to Freemasonry not only for dramatic impact but also as a source of spiritual comfort after the horrors of the First World War

Kipling and Afghanistan Neil K. Moran,2005-10-11 Alive with adventure rich with exotic detail the voice of Rudyard Kipling carried readers to faraway locations and brought new exciting scenes to their doorsteps Born and raised in India Kipling became the voice of the eastern British Empire and his writing extensively covered Central Asia Early in his career Kipling drew inspiration not from travels of his own but from working with far flung correspondents at the Civil and Military Gazette in Lahore Pakistan where he served as assistant editor One of his chief correspondents was Dr Charles Owen a close friend of his father s who served a tour of duty with the Afghan Boundary Commission between 1884 and 1886 addressing the border dispute between Great Britain and Russia This historical biography provides a new perspective on Kipling s days as an employee of the Civil and Military Gazette Information garnered from newly uncovered letters and diaries of Dr Owen acquired by the National Army Museum in 1998 gives personal insight into Kipling s life as well as firsthand perceptions of the Boundary Commission s work In addition appendices provide a wealth of information regarding articles by Kipling articles attributed to Kipling or his supervisor Wheeler Kipling s translations of Russian dispatches and Boundary Commission reports

Lockwood de Forest Roberta A. Mayer,Lockwood De Forest,2008 This is the first scholarly book on de Forest It explores his career in the decorative arts by examining cultural context material culture biography and patronage Lockwood de Forest 1850 1932 is best known as an artistic decorator with a flair for designs based on the arts and crafts of the Middle East and India He began his career in partnership with Louis Comfort Tiffany By 1883 de Forest had his own business and successfully introduced the East Indian craft revival to the United States His interior designs and furnishings were embraced by some of the wealthiest families of the Gilded Age His family home at 7 East Tenth Street in New York City served as a designer showcase and was compared to Arab Hall a pinnacle of exotic design that was part of Frederic Lord Leighton s home and studio in Holland Park London Complemented by sixty color plates and 132 black and white illustrations Publisher description Meeting Without Knowing It Alexander Bubb,2016-02-11 Meeting Without Knowing It compares Rudyard Kipling and W B Yeats in the formative phase of their careers from their births in 1865 up to 1903 The argument consists of parallel readings wed to a biographic structure Reading the two poets in parallel often yields remarkable discursive echoes For example both men were similarly preoccupied with the visual arts with heroism with folklore balladry and the demotic voice Both struck vatic postures and made bids for public authority premised on an appeal to what they considered the mythopoeic impulse in fin de si cle culture My methodology consists in identifying these mutual echoes in their poetry and political rhetoric before charting them against intersections in their lives Kipling and Yeats were for much of their careers irreconcilable political enemies However a cross reading of the two poets bardic ambitions heroic tropes and interpretations of history reveals that to achieve their opposed political ends they frequently partook of a common discourse Supplementing this analysis with biographical context we can trace these shared concerns to their late 19th century artistic upbringing and to the closely linked social circles which they inhabited in fin de si cle London It is in fact their very mutuality during the 1890s which lent rancour to their ideological division after the Boer War In turn acrimony and denunciation only served to bind together all the more intimately in an argumentative spiral of revolving discourses two men who were often proximate but who actually met only in cartoons and satirical gossip The Colonial and National Formations of the National College of Arts, Lahore, circa 1870s to 1960s Nadeem Omar Tarar,2022-02-08 Utilizing archival sources this book examines the formation and evolution of the National College of Arts NCA in Lahore a pivotal institution shaping the art architecture and design landscape of contemporary Pakistan since the 19th century Theoretical analysis reveals how the NCA as a bureaucratic entity has influenced the development of design schools museums and artistic practices in both British India and Pakistan initially under the influence of British art education from South Kensington The study traces the institution s history from its metropolitan European roots during the British colonial period through the American restructuring of art education administration and pedagogy in the early years of independence It explores how frameworks of art history and anthropology have been used to construct and objectify Pakistani art and artists By deconstructing these disciplinary frameworks the book sheds light on how imperial and nationalist discourses have intersected to influence and redefine artistic and cultural identities within Pakistan The Kipling Journal ,2005 Includes lists of members of the Kipling society A Circle of Sisters Judith Flanders,2005 The MacDonald sisters started life in the lower middle classes denied the advantages of education and the expectation of social advancement Yet as wives and mothers they connected a famous painter a president of the Royal Academy a prime minister and the uncrowned poet laureate of the Empire Kim Rudyard Kipling, 2011-05-05

Kipling's epic rendition of the imperial experience in India is also his greatest long work Two men Kim a boy growing into early manhood and the lama an old ascetic priest are fired by a quest Kim is white although born in India While he wants to play the Great Game of imperialism he is also spiritually bound to the lama and he tries to reconcile these opposing strands A celebration of their friendship in an often hostile environment Kim captures the opulence of India's exotic landscape overlaid by the uneasy presence of the British Raj Contains an introduction by Harish Trivedi placing the novel in its literary and social context Also includes notes chronology further reading a General Preface by the series editor Jan Montefiore and Edward Said's famous introduction from the previous Penguin Classics edition as an appendix Arthur Balfour's Ghosts Trevor Hamilton, 2018-01-02 This book tells the incredible story of the cross correspondence automatic writings described by one leading scholar of the field Alan Gauld as undoubtedly the most extensive the most complex and the most puzzling of all ostensible attempts by deceased persons to manifest purpose and in so doing to fulfil their overriding purpose of proving their survival It is an intensely personal and passionate story on so many levels May Lyttelton trying to convince her lover Arthur Balfour of her continued existence Myers with indomitable persistence trying to produce evidence to prove survival generally Gurney and Francis Balfour striving from beyond the grave to influence the birth of children who would work for world peace Gerald Balfour and his lover Winifred Coombe Tennant believing that their child Henry would be the Messianic leader of this group of children Sussex Cavalcade Arthur R. Ankers, 1997 Trix Barbara Fisher, 2024-09-04 This volume represents the first biography of Alice MacDonald Kipling Fleming 1868-1948 known as Trix Rarely portrayed with sympathy or accuracy in biographies of her famous brother Rudyard Trix was a talented writer and a memorable character in her own right whose fascinating life was unknown until now In telling Trix's story Barbara Fisher rescues her from the misrepresentations trivializations and outright neglect of Rudyard's many biographers This book provides the first account of Trix's life beginning with the horrible childhood she shared with Rudyard as a Raj orphan in England The biography follows adolescent Trix as she returned to India where her brother encouraged her to write poems and stories which were regularly mistaken for his Her marriage to a stiff Scottish officer is chronicled from its hopeful beginnings through its childless cheerless middle to its calm and compromised end Trix's bouts of mental illness are described in sympathetic detail Turning her attention to Trix's oeuvre Barbara Fisher locates and attributes all of her short fiction poetry and journalism giving special attention to Trix's two ambitious but flawed novels She also puts into historical context Trix's long and productive participation as a medium for the Society for Psychical Research Most importantly Trix The Other Kipling gives a voice a mind and a heart to a misunderstood misrepresented but indomitable woman an accomplishment which will be of great interest to readers interested in Victorian women authors in the cultural interchanges between England and colonial India in serious psychical research in the early treatment of mental illness and more generally in the everyday life and struggles of intellectual women of the 19th and early 20th century Waterstone's Guide to Books ,1989 Waterstone's Guide to Books Waterstone & Co,1989 British Writers Classics Jay Parini,2003 The American Humanities Index Stephen H. Goode,1991 Cumulative Bibliography of Victorian Studies ,1970 Books in Print ,2002 Imperial Subjects, Imperial Space John McBratney,2002 Why was Rudyard Kipling so drawn in his fiction to the figure of the foreign born Briton what Kipling called the native born The answer lies in McBratney s Imperial Subjects Imperial Space the first full length study of a figure central to Kipling s major imperial fiction the native born In these narratives Kipling sees the native born fulfilling two important roles model imperial servant and ideal imperial citizen The special abilities that allow the native born to play these roles derive from his identity as neither exclusively British nor simply native This study also provides the most thorough analysis of that figure s hybrid casteless selfhood in relation to shifting attitudes toward racial identity during Britain s New Imperialism In its endeavor to place the liminal subject within a particular moment in British discourses about race and nation this book illuminates both the complexities of subject construction in the late Victorian and Edwardian periods and the struggles today over identity formation in the postcolonial world
