Becoming a Cosmopolitan Jason D Hill, 2023-06-14 The philosopher and author of Beyond Blood Identities offers a new paradigm of persona freedom and moral self possession As a Jamaican immigrant arriving in the United States at the age of twenty Jason Hill noticed how often Americans identified themselves in terms of race and ethnicity He observed for example the reluctance of West Indians to join black causes for fear of losing their identity He began to ask himself what sort of world he wanted to live in a quest that in time led him to the idea of the cosmopolitan In Becoming a Cosmopolitan Jason D Hill argues that we need a new understanding of the self He revives the idea of the cosmopolitan the person who identifies the world as home Arguing for the right to forget where we came from Hill proposes a new moral cosmopolitanism for the new millennium

Developing Animal Theology Clair Linzey, 2021-10-27 This book offers an up to date examination of the nature and development of animal theology It considers what animal theology is and how it challenges and is challenged by liberation and ecological theology At the heart of the work is a critical engagement with the Brazilian ecotheologian Leonardo Boff Clair Linzey addresses ideas that originate from the papal encyclical Laudato Si and considers how Pope Francis is developing an animal friendly tradition within Catholicism Exploring new vistas in animal theology this volume makes a valuable contribution to debates on how religion should be concerned with animals and the environment This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to know the current state of debate with animal theology and its effects on the wider Christian community      Thoughts and Dreams of an Old Theologian Boff, Leonardo ,2022-03-23 Brazilian theologian Leonardo Boff a pioneer of liberation theology reviews the major themes of his work including God Christ Ecology Ethics and Spirituality      Fear as a Way of Life Linda Green,1999-07-05 Between the late 1970s and the mid 1980s the people of Guatemala were subjected to a state sponsored campaign of political violence and repression designed to not only defeat a left wing revolutionary insurgency but also destroy Mayan communities and culture The Mayan Indians in the western highlands were labeled by the government as revolutionary sympathizers and many Mayan women lost husbands sons and other family members who were brutally murdered or who simply disappeared Based on years of field research conducted in the rural highlands Fear as a Way of Life traces the intricate links between the recent political violence and repression and the long term systemic violence connected with class inequalities and gender and ethnic oppression the violence of everyday life      The Eucharist and World Hunger Izunna Okonkwo,2011-12-21 Hunger is a menace in different parts of the globe It has more unnatural than natural causes Though efforts have been made towards alleviating its causes and consequences more actions still need to be taken for its genuine alleviation and eventual eradication in the world For Joseph Grassi painful hunger is a daily occurrence that must be countered by ongoing effective programs that enter into the lives of every Christian Such position not only recognises the frequency and excruciating nature of hunger but also suggests that Christians and other religious groups have a very important role to play in order to eradicate hunger and its devastating effects This book explores the nuances of hunger its causes dimensions and approaches as well as its connection to the Eucharist It argues that hunger can be eradicated and that the Eucharist stands out as a veritable model      Gift and Economy Eric R. Severson,2011-09-22 Is it possible to really give a gift This may at first glance seem like a peripheral question for philosophy which normally directs its attention to seemingly bigger questions The dynamics of the gift move into philosophy from anthropology and sociology but Jacques Derrida insists that this question belongs at the heart of philosophy This volume takes up Derrida s challenge to invest in the question of a gift and the relationship between gift and economy The powerful and corruptive forces of economy can wreak havoc on every effort to give or receive a pure gift Each of the essays investigates some aspect of the gift and the way economics relate to the sheer hospitality and generosity implied in the idea of giving Is there a blessed economy Must economics always operate in a sinister and exploitive fashion What can be learned by the philosophical investigations related to this concept There is something about the event or idea of the gift that cannot be entirely explained by the machinations of economy In the giving of a gift something happens if only unpredictably and rarely that cannot be explained by the calculus that tracks the exchange of money property goods debt and power This excess that confounds the reduction of the gift to the dynamics of power and exchange is a source of creative fascination for a wide range of philosophers including the collection of scholars who have contributed to this book      Ideas in Action Stephen Eric Bronner,2000-01-01 Imagine a world in which means and ends theory and practice ideals values and interests are torturously disassociated and yet manifestly linked That is the world of the 20th century as Stephen Eric Bronner vividly portrays it in his important new work Now imagine a world in which new traditions mix with the old creativity blends with commitment and values from the past combine with bold visions of the future Creating this new fusion says Professor Bronner is the challenge for the 21st century and it inspires Ideas in Action Contemporary political theory has become alienated from politics It often neither discusses concrete political events nor touches the world of political action That is an intellectual luxury the academy of the 21st century can ill afford and Ideas in Action offers an accessible way out of the box into which the canon of political theory and philosophy has been stuffed With elegance and power Bronner surveys 20th century political traditions In the process he places theories and thinkers in their social historical and political contexts His sweeping presentation is organized into four imaginatively articulated phases that signal the direction of political thinking in the twentieth century Offering distinctive interpretations and criticisms presenting a new internationalist perspective Bronner imbues the text with original voices and primary sources from the very canon he is reconfiguring Careful notes of citation and explanation provide a pedagogical subtext that serves as a running bibliographic essay All this and more makes the perfect core or supplemental text for courses not only in political science but philosophy sociology history and cultural studies as well Ideas in Action is a book for thinking people seeking to understand the past and shape the next millennium in terms of a new planetary outlook and a cosmopolitan sensibility Students will enjoy reading the text flock to the primary sources and engage

What's So Blessed about Being Poor
L. Susan Slavin, Coral Gables, FL, 2013-09-01 An inspiring exploration of how happiness and holiness can exist in the midst of poverty and illness Two lay women who have chosen to live among the poor in East Africa one a Maryknoll lay mission and the other a New York attorney who left her law practice to become a lay mission with the Franciscans minister to the poor in Kenya Slavin first met Salvador when she was volunteering as a lawyer working in a justice and peace program in Kenya Slavin was intrigued by the well known phrase Blessed are the poor After approaching this seeming paradox through unrewarding library research she decided that she would join Salvador in her ministry to AIDS orphans to try to understand how the poor can be blessed This account tells of their experiences as they worked together with the poor primarily AIDS orphans in the slums of Kenya Photos will be included
