The Patrimony:

Trusts and Patrimonies Remus Valsan, 2015-06-17 Focusing on the private law of England Scotland France Quebec and the Netherlands this volume explores how the private law concepts of trust and patrimony interact in various jurisdictions with a view to advancing the understanding of the trust as a fundamental legal concept It comprises new and previously published papers written by distinguished comparative law scholars The authors investigate whether the common law trust could be understood as a civil law patrimony by appropriation and whether civil law and mixed traditions could create local versions of the common law trust using patrimony as the main conceptual building block Towards a Chinese Civil Code

, 2012-11-13 Currently China is drafting its new Civil Code Against this background the Chinese legal community has shown a growing interest in various legal and legislative ideas from around the world Within this context the present book aims at providing the necessary historical and comparative legal perspectives It concentrates on substantive private law and civil procedure both in China and in other jurisdictions These perspectives are of considerable importance for the present codification work Additionally the book is dedicated to commemorating the centennial of the first Western influenced and civil law oriented Civil Code of China the Da Qing Min L Cao An of 1911 The following topics are addressed property law contract law tort law and civil procedure The book also contains contributions on codification experiences in Europe and on the concept of codification in general The topics are discussed by leading Chinese and international scholars Most of the Chinese contributors have taken part in preparing the Chinese Draft Civil Code The book is the outcome of a conference organized by the Centre for Chinese and Comparative Law RCCL School of Law City University of Hong Kong in October 2010 Endowments, Rulers and Community Miriam Hoexter, 2023-07-10 This study depicts the history of the waqf endowments in Algiers dedicated to the poor of Mecca and Medina over the last 170 years of Ottoman rule It is one of the first studies of a major public foundation based on its own registers Its main themes are the foundation s growth its benefactors the evolution of its patrimony its administration managerial policies and functions in the town The author discusses the history of the foundation within two contexts that of the Islamic endowment institution and that of the history of Algiers and offers new insights into the interaction between the law and socio economic circumstances the dialogue between the local community and its rulers and the role of the foundation as a major factor in the shaping of the Algerian public sphere The civil history of the kingdom of Naples P. Giannone, History of Ireland, ancient and modern. Translated ... by P. O'Kelly James MACGEOGHEGAN, 1844 Introduction to French Law E. Picard, G.

Bermann, 2008-03-18 Introduction to French Law is a very practical book that makes clear sense out of the complex results of the complex bodies of law that govern the most important fields of law and legal practice in France today Seventeen chapters each written by a distinguished French legal scholar cover the following field in substantive and procedural detail with lucid explanations of French law in the fields such as Constitutional Law European Union Law Administrative Law Criminal Law

Property Law Intellectual Property Law Contract Law Tort Liability Family Law Inheritance Law Civil Procedure Company Law Competition Law Labour Law Tax Law and Private International Law Historical Anthropology of the Family Martine Segalen, 1986-11-28 Over the past decade or so the social scientific sociological analysis of the family has been obliged to reconsider its traditional view that industrialisation triggered a shift within society from the large family which fulfilled all social functions from socialising the children to caring for the sick and the old to the modern nuclear family which was regarded solely as being the locus for emotional relationships Historians have shown that in the past there was a variety of family structures within a range of varying demographic economic and cultural frameworks distinctive for each society At the same time the interaction between sociology and social anthropology has led to a clearer conceptual analysis of that vague polysemic term family and notions of dwelling place descent marriage the relative roles of husband and wife and parent child relations as well as the more general relations between generations have in a variety of past and present social contexts been taken apart and analysed In this book the author synthesises European and North American historical and social anthropological material on the family that shows the reversal of the frequently held view of the family as an institution in decline showing it instead to be both dynamic and resistant Institutes of Natural Law Thomas Rutherford, 1832 Pope Celestine III (1191-1198) John Doran, Damian J. Smith, 2016-12-05 Hyacinth Bobone c 1105 1198 was one of the great figures of twelfth century Europe Active in the Roman Curia from the 1120s a student in Paris and associated with both Peter Abelard and Arnold of Brescia he was made cardinal deacon of Santa Maria in Cosmedin in 1144 and served there during forty seven years before being elected as pope in 1191 As curial cardinal and as papal legate in France Spain Portugal and the Empire he was deeply involved in many of the major political conflicts and ecclesiastical reforms of his time As pope he contended with formidable secular rulers and serious setbacks for the crusading movement His pontificate saw particularly notable developments in the fields of canon law and canonization policy while his Roman origins influenced his artistic patronage in Rome and his attitude to the city's Jews Yet this remarkable pope has been overshadowed by his celebrated successor Pope Innocent III 1198 1216 and there has been no full length study of his life since 1905 The fourteen studies presented here offer a fresh look at Hyacinth's early life in Rome Paris and as legate explain his relationship as cardinal and pope with the Christian kings examine his promotion of the crusade in the Holy Land on the Baltic Frontier and in the Iberian Peninsula and analyze his role as pastor and reformer These articles written by leading experts in their respective fields inform us not only on the life of an exceptional churchman but also of the vibrant and rapidly changing times in which he lived Hugonis Grotii De Jure Belli Et Pacis Libri Tres. Accompanied by an Abridged Translation by William Whewell ... With the Notes of the Author, Barbeyrac, and Others Hugo Grotius, 1854 Rural Society and the Search for Order in Early Modern Germany Thomas Robisheaux, 2002-07-25 For the rural societies of Germany the early sixteenth century was a time of massive upheavals In this probing study of village life based upon rich manuscript sources from the old County of

Hohenlohe Thomas Robisheaux seeks to understand how petty German princes Lutheran pastors and villagers struggled to create order out of their confusing world The Hohenlohe region experienced all of the turmoil associated with the sixteenth century including a peasant near rising in 1600 the brutal effects of the wage price scissors chronic shortages of land famines impoverishment and the destructive cycles of war By using concepts borrowed from anthropology Professor Robisheaux looks for the way social hierarchy and discipline countered the disruptive changes of the age The years between 1550 and 1620 saw new sources of stability and order created in the family through systematized customs of inheritance through market relationships and in the practice of state power within the village
