Stone, David Brough, 2013-11-13 Hadrian's Wall was inscribed as a World Heritage Site WHS in 1987 and with the German Limes became one of the first two parts of the transnational Frontiers of the Roman Empire FRE WHS in 2005 The World Heritage Site of Hadrian's Wall is unusual although not unique among World Heritage sites in its scale and linear nature stretching from Ravenglass on the west coast of England to Newcastle upon Tyne on the east coast over 150 miles Along its length it passes through two major urban centres and a variety of rural landscapes and its remains vary from substantial upstanding architectural features to invisible below ground archaeology Traditionally many of the constituent parts of Hadrian's Wall forts etc have been managed as separate entities by different State and private organisations These and other issues make it an extremely complex WHS to manage This book not only chronicles the past management of the Wall but also looks towards the future as more countries aspire to have their Roman frontiers added to the FRE The experience gained over the last two decades illustrates developments in the management of large scale complex heritage sites that will be of value as a detailed case study to those involved in and affected by heritage management as well as academics and students Many of the issues raised will find resonance in those faced by many other large World heritage sites

The Wall Douglas Jackson,2022-06-09 AD 400 Rome and its Empire are failing Veteran cavalry commander Marcus Flavius Victor sets out with his regiment to make what may be his final tour of the forts along Hadrian s Wall Through a combination of military prowess brutality and bribery Marcus has spent twenty years keeping the savage Picts at bay Feared by his enemies and hated by his superiors his strength of will is the only thing that has held the disgruntled poorly paid garrisons of the Wall in place as the failing Roman Empire s grip on Britannia weakened Yet as this tour of the wall progresses it becomes increasingly clear that this is more than a routine inspection Why is Marcus stripping the defences of cavalry to strengthen his own force Is he negotiating with the Picts or conspiring with them And who is the mysterious figure who follows Marcus every move and yet hides in the shadows Segeduno Cilurno Brocolitia Vindolanda each fort holds memories and friendships hides rivals or conceals enemies But what exactly is Marcus Flavius Victor s ultimate objective It would appear he is willing to risk bloody civil war in a bid to seize Britannia for himself Or is he raising an army to save the province from the darkness that waits on the other side of the Wall Hailed as one of our very best historical novelists Douglas Jackson returns to the world of ancient Rome with this epic novel of a failing empire and a world on the brink

The Built Environment Transformed Geoffrey Timmins,2021-12-02 This book is concerned with the remarkable changes made to the built environment in Lancashire s main textile district essentially the eastern and central parts of the county during the Industrial Revolution c1780 c1850 A case study approach is taken with findings from investigations at six different types of site being presented The sites included are water powered mill remains in the Cheesden Valley near Rochdale Barrow Bridge factory village near Bolton the former handloom weavers colony at Club Houses Horwich Preston s Winckley Square Eanam Wharf at Blackburn and to the north of Bolton the road between Bromley Cross and Edgworth The case studies show how in rural and urban areas alike developments in industry housing and transport greatly extended the built environment and brought striking new features to it. Emphasis is placed on interpreting the physical evidence the sites provide linking it with that taken from various types of documentary source especially historical maps.
