Dossena,Ingrid Tieken-Boon van Ostade,2008 The studies presented in this volume concentrate on aspects of Late Modern English correspondence in the usage of individuals belonging to different social classes writing for different purposes and finding themselves in different social contexts both in Britain and in its colonies As the growing body of research published in recent years has shown analysing the language of letters presents both a challenge and an opportunity to obtain access to as full a range of styles as would be possible for a period for which we only have access to the language in its written form It is an area of study in which all the contributors have considerable expertise which affords them to present data findings while discussing important methodological issues In addition in most cases data derive from specially designed second generation corpora reflecting state of the art approaches to historical sociolinguistics and pragmatics Theoretical issues concerning

letters as a text type their role in social network analysis and their value in the identification of register or variety specific traits are highlighted alongside issues concerning the often less than easy relationship between strictly codified norms and actual usage on the part of speakers whose level of education could vary considerably Western Illuminated Manuscripts in the Victoria and Albert Museum National Art Library (Great Britain), Rowan Watson, 2011-11 Endpapers pattern taken from pastedowns of decorated paper Italian 17th or 18th century in the binding of cat no 110 Title page verso Push Me, Pull You Sarah Blick, Laura Deborah Gelfand, 2011-05-01 Late Medieval and Renaissance art was surprisingly pushy its architecture demanded that people move through it in prescribed patterns its sculptures played elaborate games alternating between concealment and revelation while its paintings charged viewers with imaginatively moving through them Viewers wanted to interact with artwork in emotional and or performative ways This inventive and personal interface between viewers and artists sometimes conflicted with the Church's prescribed devotional models and in some cases it complemented them Artists and patrons responded to the desire for both spontaneous and sanctioned interactions by creating original ways to amplify devotional experiences The authors included here study the provocation and the reactions associated with medieval and Renaissance art and architecture These essays trace the impetus towards interactivity from the points of view of their creators and those who used them Contributors include Mickey Abel Alfred Acres Kathleen Ashley Viola Belghaus Sarah Blick Erika Boeckeler Robert L A Clark Lloyd DeWitt Michelle Erhardt Megan H Foster Campbell Juan Luis Gonz lez Garc a Laura D Gelfand Elina Gertsman Walter S Gibson Margaret Goehring Lex Hermans Fredrika Jacobs Annette LeZotte Jane C Long Henry Luttikhuisen Elizabeth Monroe Scott B Montgomery Amy M Morris Vibeke Olson Katherine Poole Alexa Sand Donna L Sadler Pamela Sheingorn Suzanne Karr Schmidt Anne Rudloff Stanton Janet Snyder Rita Tekippe Mark Trowbridge Mark S Tucker Kristen Van Ausdall Susan Ward Work in Hand Aileen Douglas, 2017 Work in Hand Script Print and Writing 1690 1840 is about the relationship between manual writing and print Handwriting and how it is seen and understood changes a lot during this period as can be seen in printed engravings of handwriting in the form of copy books and engraved autographs It is now that English round hand the ancestor of modern handwriting develops The idea that the labouring classes should not have access to writing also loses ground and a universal ability to write slowly becomes acceptable There is a new interest in the author's hand the handwriting of novelists and poets part of a more general cult of the autograph By the end of the period handwriting becomes associated with being human Calligraphic Type Design in the Digital Age John Prestianni, 2001 Over the past 50 years Hermann and Gudrun Zapf have designed some of the modern world's most unique and innovative typefaces In fact so ubiquitous is Hermann Zapf's Palatino that it has become a common default font on millions of laser printers around the globe In honor of the Zapfs an exhibition which traces the calligraphic evolution of several contemporary Zapf typefaces is being held in San Francisco in Fall 2001 This book is catalog to the exhibition which also features the work of 14 other calligrapher type designers who have been influenced by the Zapf's work
