The People Makers:

Making We the People Chaihark Hahm, Sung Ho Kim, 2015-12-10 What does it mean to say that it is We the People who ordain and establish a constitution Who are those sovereign people and how can they do so Interweaving history and theory constitutional scholar Chaihark Hahm and political theorist Sung Ho Kim attempt to answer these perennial questions by revisiting the constitutional politics of postwar Japan and Korea Together these experiences demonstrate the infeasibility of the conventional assumption that there is a clearly bounded sovereign people prior to constitution making that stands apart from both outside influence and troubled historical legacies The authors argue that We the People only emerges through a deeply transformative politics of constitutional founding and as such a democratic constitution and its putative author are mutually constitutive Highly original and genuinely multidisciplinary this book will be of interest to democratic theorists and scholars of comparative constitutionalism as well as observers of ongoing constitutional debates in Japan and Korea The Market Makers Gary G. Hamilton, Benjamin Senauer, Misha Petrovic, 2012-08-02 The huge expansion of new marketplaces and new retailers over the last fifty years has created a retail revolution These large and globally sophisticated retailers have harnessed the new technologies in communications and logistics to build consumer markets around the world and to create suppliers new types of manufacturers that provide consumers with whatever goods they want to buy These global retailers are at the hub of the new global economy They are the new Market Makers and they have changed the way the global economy works Despite the fact that this retail revolution unfolded right before our eyes this book is the first to describe the market making capabilities of these retailers In eleven chapters by leading scholars The Market Makers provides a detailed and highly readable analysis of how retailers have become the leading drivers of the new global economy Law-Making in the People's Republic of China Jianfu Chen, Yuwen Li, Jan Michiel Otto, Maurice V. Polak, 2021-10-25 Who are the legislators and what are the products of the legislative process in China How does a law come into being What meaning should we ascribe to these legislative products from the perspective of legal certainty Can we recognise a Chinese approach to or style of law making What technical legislative problems have Chinese jurists identified and what sorts of solutions to them are being considered These are the questions which Law making in the PRC attempts to solve The volume opens with papers on the historical perspective of law making on ideology and law making and on a comparison between the PRC's legal framework and the frameworks of other legal systems Part II deals with various Institutions and Actors involved and offers analyses of the National People's Congress the State Council departmental rule making local law making law making in autonomous regions public participation and the proposed law on law making by academics Part III offers three case studies in which important areas of legal development are analysed from a law making point of view The selected areas are Performing Arts in the People's Republic of China, 1949-1979 Bonnie S. McDougall,2018-05-18 The essays in this volume constitute an exceptionally broad and inclusive account of Chinese literature and performing arts since 1949 Extending beyond fiction to poetry and drama and covering song opera and film as well these essays reveal a more lively and varied cultural life than that disclosed by studies confined to fiction and literary politics Rather than stopping at the assumption that art reflects Party or government policy the essays uncover the traditional roots of popular literature and performing art by employing literary and artistic methods of analysis While often lacking in appeal to Western audiences these popular arts nonetheless have their own artistic validity and convey complex meanings to broadly based Chinese audiences The materials and analyses presented here have social as well as cultural relevance Variety and change rather than monolithic uniformity have characterized post 1949 cultural bureaucracies writers performers and audiences This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 , implementation Many international agreements and action plans now call for countries to undertake national strategies These strategies seek to involve communities in united approaches to sustainable development Some are sectoral such as tropical forest strategies others are thematic covering topics such as biodiversity education or climate change Still others such as national conservation strategies and national environment action plans are evolving to become more comprehensive processes drawing together economic social and environmental development actions This handbook is for people involved in strategies It draws on experiences in different regions of the world to present options and examples of the role of strategies in sustainable development Originally published in 1995 Old-Time Music Makers of New York State Simon J.

Bronner,1988-01-01 Ask an old timer what life was like in rural upstate New York during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and you will hear about the dances and bees that brought villagers and farmers together You will hear of favorite fiddlers who held center stage with dance tunes taken from early British and American sources You will hear of old time music and its significance to a people making the transition from a rural agricultural life to an urban industrial one Old Time Music Makers of New York State is the first book published on this rich legacy of traditional Anglo American music and dance It traces the development of old time music beginning with its movement into New York State from New England in the early nineteenth century and to its combination with commercial country music in the twentieth century Exploring the regional character of the music and its meaning to the people who enjoy it Bronner introduces memorable figures from the major periods in the development of old time music and he places their stories their lives and their music in the context of the region's cultural and historical changes This is much more than a regional study however Bronner brings to the fore issues of national scope and interest He discusses the relationship of old time music to the commercial country music with which it has been closely aligned and he challenges the prevailing wisdom that the origins of country music are in the South Musician fan folklorist and historian alike will benefit from and enjoy this book The many musical transcriptions annotations photographs and appendixes provide a valuable reference to be used again and again Growing and Sustaining

Student-Centered Science Classrooms David Stroupe,2023-03-24 AACTE 2024 Gloria J Ladson Billings Outstanding Book Award A wealth of practical tools and guidance for rooting out injustice and creating science learning spaces in which students feel valued safe and eager to engage In Growing and Sustaining Student Centered Science Classrooms David Stroupe promotes powerful conversation and action around knowledge building practices in science education The book takes readers into inspiring classroom communities in which all students are invited and encouraged to engage in the work of science An illuminating series of real time classroom scenes demonstrate flexible teaching approaches and instructional pivots that Stroupe calls talk moves and shows how they foster inclusive collaboration and participation to create a more expansive and better version of science education Even as Stroupe champions student centered science education he acknowledges that common obstructions to knowledge sharing or epistemic injustices can often prevent this student led ideal from materializing He calls attention to four types of injustices that frequently stifle student voice and access in science learning communities testimonial injustice hermeneutical injustice intrapersonal injustice and hierarchical injustice Recounting real life examples of these individual and systemic injustices Stroupe gives educators the tools to both identify and eradicate them This thought provoking book sets forth ambitious tactics for educators to audit assumptions and biases in science promote student agency and conduct action research to document change Using Stroupe s accessible methods teachers teacher educators and administrators can design immediate and long term instructional practices to disrupt injustices in STEM classroom communities and support student learning

The People's Republic of China International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept,2016-08-12 This 2016 Article IV Consultation highlights China s continued transition to sustainable growth with progress on many fronts Growth slowed to 6.9 percent in 2015 and is projected to moderate to 6.6 percent in 2016 owing to slower private investment and weak external demand The economy is advancing on many dimensions of rebalancing particularly switching from industry to services and from investment to consumption But other aspects are lagging such as strengthening state owned enterprises and financial governance and containing rapid credit growth The current account surplus is projected to decline to 2.5 percent of GDP in 2016 as imports increase and the services deficit widens with continued outbound tourism
