Legislature of the State of Texas Texas,1903 The Punitive City Markus-Michael Müller,2016-06-15 In the eyes of the global media modern Mexico has become synonymous with crime violence and insecurity But while media fascination and academic engagement has focussed on the drug war an equally dangerous phenomenon has taken root In The Punitive City Markus Michael M ller argues that what has emerged in Mexico is not just a punitive urban democracy in which those at the social and political margins face growing violence and exclusion More alarmingly it would seem that clientelism in the region is morphing into a private political protection racket Vital reading for anyone seeking to understand the implications of a phenomenon that is becoming increasingly widespread across Latin America American Bastille. Prison Capital Lydia Pelot-Hobbs,2023-10-16 Every year between 1998 to 2020, except one, Louisiana had the highest per capita rate of incarceration in the nation and thus the world. This is the first detailed account of Louisiana's unprecedented turn to mass incarceration from 1970 to 2020. Through extensive research, Lydia Pelot Hobbs illuminates how policy makers enlarged Louisiana's carceral infrastructures with new prisons and jail expansions alongside the bulking up of police and prosecutorial power. At the same time, these infrastructures were the products of multiscalar crises: the swings of global oil capitalism, liberal federal court and policy interventions, the rise of neoliberal governance and law and order, austerity and racist and patriarchal moral panics surrounding crime. However, these crises have also created fertile space for anticarceral social movements. From incarcerated people filing conditions of confinement lawsuits and Angola activists challenging life without parole to grassroots organizers struggling to shrink the New Orleans jail following Hurricane Katrina and LGBTQ youth of color organizing against police sexual violence, grassroots movements stretch us toward new geographies of freedom in the lineage of abolition democracy. Understanding Louisiana's carceral crisis extends our understanding of the interplay between the crises of mass criminalization and racial capitalism while highlighting the conditions of possibility for dismantling carceral power in all its forms. The Michigan Digest Annotated George Foster Longsdorf,1921
