the narratives Here Abdelkader Cheref charts the rise of postcolonial literature written by women from the Maghreb and provides the first comparative analysis of three of the region's most prominent contemporary authors Assia Djebar Algeria Leila Abouzeid Morocco and Souad Guellouz Tunisia These writers are united in their depictions of a post independence socio political malaise in the Maghreb their explorations of marginalised women's voices and their own quests for their voices to be heard beyond the rigid constraints of patriarchy This book is essential comparative reading for students and researchers wishing to understand the connections between literature history and culture in postcolonial North Africa Scheherazade's Night Out Craig Shaw Gardner, 2021-09-25 Attend beloved listeners to the tale of Scheherazade whose magical stories are her only defense against mad kings evil djinn and an unspeakable mother in law For truly it will take a silver tongue to save a pretty neck From New York Times bestselling author Craig Shaw Gardner the rollicking conclusion to his outrageous Sinbad series The other Sinbad Ali Baba Aladdin and friends are trapped in an enchanted cavern But the fearless heroes soon find their way into the Palace of Beautiful Women where they meet Queen Scheherazade whose husband has the nasty habit of cutting off his wives heads Directing the Story Francis Glebas, 2012-10-12 Francis Glebas a top Disney storyboard artist shows how to reach the ultimate goal of animation and moviemaking by showing how to provide audiences with an emotionally satisfying experience Directing the Story offers a structural approach to clearly and dramatically presenting visual stories With Francis help you'll discover the professional storytelling techniques which have swept away generations of moviegoers and kept them coming back for more You'll also learn to spot potential problems before they cost you time or money and offers creative solutions to solve them Best of all it practices what it preaches using a graphic novel format to demonstrate the professional visual storytelling techniques you need to know The Mind Electric Priya Anand, 2025-06-10 In this collection of medical tales reminiscent of Oliver Sacks the best of medical writing Abraham Verghese author of The Covenant of Water a neurologist reckons with the stories we tell about our brains and the stories our brains tell us A girl believes she has been struck blind for stealing a kiss A mother watches helplessly as each of her children is replaced by a changeling A woman is haunted each month by the same four chords of a single song In neurology illness is inextricably linked with narrative the clues to unraveling these mysteries hidden in both the details of a patient's story and the tells of their body Stories are etched into the very structure of our brains coded so deeply that the impulse for storytelling survives and even surges after the most devastating injuries But our brains are also porous the stories they concoct shaped by cultural narratives about bodies and illness that permeate the minds of doctors and patients alike In the history of medicine some stories are heard while others the narratives of women of Black and brown people of displaced people of disempowered people are too often dismissed In The Mind Electric neurologist Priya Anand reveals through case study history fable and memoir all that the medical establishment has overlooked the complexity and wonder of brains in health and in extremis and the vast gray area between sanity and insanity doctor and patient and illness and wellness each separated from the next by the thin veneer of a different story Moving from the Boston hospital where she treats her patients to her childhood years in India to Isla Providencia in the Caribbean and to the Republic of Guinea in West Africa she demonstrates again and again the compelling paradox at the heart of neurology that even the most peculiar symptoms can show us something universal about ourselves as humans
