Foreign Broadcast Information Service,1994 The Terror Presidency Jack Goldsmith,2007-09-17 A central player s account of the clash between the rule of law and the necessity of defending America Jack Goldsmith s duty as head of the Office of Legal Counsel was to advise President Bush what he could and could not do legally Goldsmith took the job in October 2003 and began to review the work of his predecessors Their opinions were the legal framework governing the conduct of the military and intelligence agencies in the war on terror and he found many especially those regulating the treatment and interrogation of prisoners that were deeply flawed Goldsmith is a conservative lawyer who understands the imperative of averting another 9 11 But his unflinching insistence that we abide by the law put him on a collision course with powerful figures in the administration Goldsmith s fascinating analysis of parallel legal crises in the Lincoln and Roosevelt administrations shows why Bush s apparent indifference to human rights has damaged his presidency and perhaps his standing in history Political Influence Operations Darren E. Tromblay,2018-03-05 Russian interference with the 2016 U S elections brought the problem of foreign influence on American politics into sharp relief However externally sponsored subversion of U S decision making has been a shadowy threat to American policy for the better part of a century Political Influence Operations provides an incisive examination of how external actors have infiltrated American society from lobbyists to academia to the media in order to further their own objectives Tromblay draws upon historical examples to demonstrate how U S adversaries and sometimes its ostensible allies have used the openness of American society against the country s best interests By identifying vulnerabilities and exposing the underlying dynamics of foreign influence the book provides a roadmap for U S governmental and private sector entities to navigate the currents of international engagement Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Hearings United States.
