Skateboarding and Religion Paul O'Connor, 2019-10-02 This book explores the ways in which religion is observed performed and organised in skateboard culture Drawing on scholarship from the sociology of religion and the cultural politics of lifestyle sports this work combines ethnographic research with media analysis to argue that the rituals of skateboarding provide participants with a rich cultural canvas for emotional and spiritual engagement Paul O Connor contends that religious identification in skateboarding is set to increase as participants pursue ways to both control and engage meaningfully with an activity that has become an increasingly mainstream and institutionalised sport Religion is explored through the themes of myth celebrity iconography pilgrimage evangelism cults and self help Amendment 3 to the Fishery Management Plan (FMP) for the Northeast Skate Complex, with an Initial Regulatory Flexibility Act Analysis ,2009

Skateboarding and the City Iain Borden, 2019-02-21 Skateboarding is both a sport and a way of life Creative physical graphic urban and controversial it is full of contradictions a billion dollar global industry which still retains its vibrant counter cultural heart Skateboarding and the City presents the only complete history of the sport exploring the story of skate culture from the surf beaches of 60s California to the latest developments in street skating today Written by a life long skater who also happens to be an architectural historian and packed through with full colour images of skaters boards moves graphics and film stills this passionate readable and rigorously researched book explores the history of skateboarding and reveals a vivid understanding of how skateboarders through their actions experience the city and its architecture in a unique way The Skateboarder's Journal - Lives on Board ,2009 A piece of wood two trucks four wheels a skateboard You start by rolling down a sidewalk and end up rolling through life For some the ride stops at the end of the street for others the ride never ends This book was written by those for whom the ride is never ending by the 15 year old grom who falls asleep dreaming of skateboarding by the 40 something dad you see at the local skatepark by the women whose stories have never been told and by the 73 year old architect who didn't begin skateboarding until the age of 65 Over 170 stories and 200 photographs The everyman everywoman are accompanied by contributions from some notable skateboarders and other personalities from the skateboard world Some of the great skateboarding photographers have graciously contributed to the book Description from www amazon com Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2004
