Thornton McAboy, 1884      They Tried to Kill Me Ellareather Kennedy, 2022-01-31 This autobiography includes a story of a woman who went through many trials and tribulations in her life By holding on to her faith and never giving up that got her through some life and death situations This book is about a woman whose life you might describe as a roller coaster with many bumps and bruises She faced death numerous times in her life due to sickness and events that happened in her life She still found the strength to go on with her life and raise her three beautiful kids Another devastating trail she went through was losing her precious son at the tender age of thirteen years old and not to mention the sickness that struck her as I mentioned before She was diagnosed with stage 4 cancer at the age of forty five and beat it This book was written to inspire other women and men all across the world who might be going through similar situations This book was written to inspire people all across the world to take back their lives Take back your power knowing that you can be or do anything in life if you work hard at it It s not about if you can do it It s about when you do it Take charge of your life Become the best version of yourself And one last thing the sky s the limit The message is to never give up and always hold on to your faith If you dream it you can achieve it      The Poems of Algernon
