Ask Now the Beasts Ruth Rudner, 2006-06-01 We connect with animals on many levels whether walking a dog riding a horse observing gorillas at the zoo playing with a teddy bear as a child or even simply watching them on TV and in movies We call our sports teams Wolverines Bobcats Grizzlies and Panthers We can be gentle as a dove fierce as a grizzly or as agile as a cat Some of us may even dream of being reborn as a different species We typically accept these connections for what they are taking for granted what is really a remarkable and necessary part of our existence In Ask Now the Beasts acclaimed nature writer Ruth Rudner explores the eternal and complicated connections between humans and animals In a series of true stories about her own interactions and observations of some of the many animals that have crossed her path she writes about the powerful ways that animals interact with us spiritually activate our imaginations and tie us to the ancient past Moving between domestic and wild Rudner finds meaning and appreciation for the way in which each animal exists fully in its own world and how that world relates to ours
