secession magazine , 1884 Averroes' Middle Commentary on Aristotle's Rhetoric Lahcen El Yazghi Ezzaher, 2023-04-03

The first English language translation of a crucial medieval Arabic commentary on Aristotle s Rhetoric with context on its contribution to intellectual history Ab al Wal d Mu ammad ibn A mad ibn Rushd d 1198 AD known as Averroes in the West wrote one of the most significant medieval Arabic commentaries on Aristotle s famous treatise Rhetoric Averroes worked within a tradition that included the Muslim philosophers Al Farabi d 950 and Avicenna d 1037 who together built an early canon introducing Aristotle's writings to the academies of medieval Europe. Here for the first time Lahcen El Yazghi Ezzaher translates Averroes' Middle Commentary into English with analysis highlighting its shaping of philosophical thought. Ibn Rushd was born into a prominent family living in Cordoba and Seville during the reign of the Almoravid dynasty in the Maghreb and al-Andalus. At court he received support to write a body of rhetorical commentaries extending the work of his Arabic Muslim predecessors, a critical step in fostering Aristotle's influence on European scholasticism and Western education. Ezzaher's meticulous translation of Averroes' Middle Commentary reflects the depth and breadth of this engagement, incorporating a discussion of the Arabic Muslim commentary tradition and Averroes' contribution to it. His research illuminates the complexity of Averroes' position, articulating the challenges Muslim scholars faced in making non-Muslim texts available to their community. Through his work we see how people at different historical moments have adapted intellectual concepts to preserve rhetoric's vitality and relevance in new contexts. Averroes' Middle Commentary exemplifies the close connections between ancient Greece and medieval Muslim scholarship and the ways Muslim scholars navigated an appreciation for Aristotelian philosophy alongside a commitment to their cultural and religious systems.
