Strong Mothers Weak Wives The Search For Gender Equality:

Strong Mothers, Weak Wives Miriam M. Johnson, 1988 For years I have been impressed by the originality and insight of Johnson's articles on gender sexuality and male dominance This book continues and expands the excellent quality of the earlier work It provides an original argument about the central structural locus of gender inequality and makes a major advance in its insightful and insistent focus on the role of the father in gender differentiation and sexual dominance It will surely be recognized as a major work of feminist theory Nancy Chodorow author of The Reproduction of Mothering This thoughtful and provocative book greatly deepens the debate over the effects of mothers and fathers on their children Arlie Hochschild author of The Second Shift Inside the Two Job Marriage Sex and Gender Hierarchies Barbara D. Miller, 1993-02-18 This edited collection attempts to revive a unified anthropological approach to the study of sex and gender hierarchies Seventeen distinguished contributors from cultural anthropology physical anthropology archaeology and anthropological linguistics have produced a wealth of fascinating data on human and primate ancient and contemporary and primitive and developed societies covering topics such as mothering and child care work health intrafamily relationships and public power The interdisciplinary approach successfully contributes to the development of better theory and methodology in anthropology

Southern Mothers Nagueyalti Warren, Sally Wolff, 1999-10-01 Southern Mothers a collection of critical essays by prominent southern literary scholars examines the significance of motherhood in southern fiction The belle the mammy religion and racism are several of the distinctive threads with which southern women writers have woven the fabric of their stories Bringing southern motherhood into focus with all its peculiarities of attitude and tradition the essays speak to both the established and the unconventional modes of motherhood that are typical in southern writing and probe the extent to which southern women writers have rejected or embraced supported or challenged the individual social and cultural understanding and institution of motherhood

Birth Fathers and Their Adoption Experiences Gary Clapton, 2003 Virtually all literature about birth parents of adopted children has focused on mothers In this pioneering study Gary Clapton gives us a fresh perspective he recounts the experiences of thirty birth fathers separated from their children at birth Discussing different notions of fatherhood such as biological paternity social fatherhood sperm donorship and the father figure this informative book the first on birth fathers in adoption brings new light to issues such as the decision to give up a child for adoption the child's desire to find his or her birth parents and the facilitation of contact in later life Written in an accessible style with insights into adoption and social work practice past and present Birth Fathers and their Adoption Experiences offers a vital new perspective on understanding the causes and consequences of adoption and makes positive suggestions for working with those whom it affects

Takamure Itsue, Japanese Antiquity, and Matricultural Paradigms that Address the Crisis of Modernity Yasuko Sato, 2023-06-30 This book explores Takamure Itsue's 1894-1964 intellectual odyssey as Japan's most notable pioneer in the study of women's history When she embarked on a series of scholarly projects that investigated marriage patterns and kinship systems in ancient Japan it was a response to crisis-ridden modernity Relentless in her quest to dismantle patriarchy this woman from the Land of Fire a nickname for her birthplace Kumamoto Prefecture locked herself away in 1931 and spent the rest of her life conducting research on female-friendly societies with matrilineal arrangements under kinship-based communal systems While dissecting the patriarchal norms undergirding the capitalist nation-state she embraced matricultural paradigms that embodied life-sustaining and life-enhancing values through communal childrearing and matrilineal inheritance Takamure a visionary thinker asked big picture questions and addressed multifarious issues of contemporary relevance including beauty standards human trafficking gross disparities in wealth war and imperialism science and religion and humanity's relationship with nature

The Sport Marriage Steven M. Ortiz, 2020-08-24 In The Sport Marriage Steven M. Ortiz draws on studies he conducted over nearly three decades that focus on the marital realities confronted by women married to male professional athletes These women who are usually portrayed in unflattering and/or unrealistic terms face enormous challenges in their attempts to establish and maintain functional marital and family lives while the husband routinely puts his career first Ortiz defines the traditional sport marriage as a career dominated marriage illustrating how it encourages women to contribute to their own subordination through adherence to an unwritten rulebook and a repertoire of self management strategies He explains how they make invaluable contributions to their husbands careers while adjusting to public life and trying to maintain family privacy managing power and control issues and coping with pervasive groupies overinvolved mothers a culture of infidelity and husbands who prioritize team loyalty He gives these historically silent women a voice offering readers perceptive and sensitive insight into what it means to be a woman in the male dominated world of professional sports

Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice

Handbook of the Sociology of Gender Janet Saltzman Chafetz, 2006-11-22 During the past three decades feminist scholars have successfully demonstrated the ubiquity and omnirelevance of gender as a sociocultural construction in virtually all human collectivities past and present Intrapsychic interactional and collective social processes are gendered as are micro meso and macro social structures Gender shapes and is shaped in all arenas of social life from the most mundane practices of everyday life to those of the most powerful corporate actors Contemporary understandings of gender emanate from a large community of primarily feminist scholars that spans the gamut of learned disciplines and also includes non academic activist thinkers However while incorporating some cross disciplinary material this volume focuses specifically on socio logical theories and research concerning gender which are discussed across the full array of social processes structures and institutions As editor I have explicitly tried to shape the contributions to this volume along several lines that reflect my long standing views about sociology in general and gender sociology in particular First I asked authors to include cross national and historical material as much as possible This request reflects my belief that understanding and evaluating the here and now and working realistically for a better future can only be accomplished from a comparative perspective Too often American sociology has been both tempero and ethnocentric Second I have asked authors to be sensitive to within gender differences along class racial ethnic sexual preference and age cohort lines

Encyclopedia of Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2010-04-06 In the last decade the topic of motherhood has emerged as a distinct and established field of scholarly inquiry A cursory review of motherhood research reveals that hundreds of scholarly articles have been published on almost every motherhood theme imaginable The Encyclopedia of Motherhood is a collection of approximately 700 articles in a three volume A to Z set exploring major topics related to motherhood from geographical historical and cultural entries to anthropological and psychological contributions In human society few institutions are as important as motherhood and this unique encyclopedia captures the interdisciplinary foundation of the subject in one convenient reference The Encyclopedia is a comprehensive resource designed to provide an understanding of the complexities of motherhood for academic and public libraries and is written by academics and institutional experts in the social and behavioural sciences

Feminist Foremothers in Women's Studies, Psychology, and Mental Health Ellen Cole, Esther D Rothblum, Phyllis Chesler, 2014-05-12 Feminist Foremothers in Women s Studies Psychology and Mental Health is by and about the more recent wave of feminist foremothers those who were awakened in the 1960s and 70s to the realization that something was terribly wrong These are the women who created the fields of feminist therapy feminist psychology and women s mental health as they exist today The 48 women share their life stories in the hope that they will inspire and encourage readers to take their own risks and their own journeys to the outer edges of human possibility Authors write about what led up to their achievements what their accomplishments were and how their lives were consequently changed They describe their personal stages of development in becoming feminists from unawareness to activism to action Some women focus on the painful barriers to success fame and social change others focus on the surprise they experience at how well they and the women s movement have done Some well known feminist foremothers featured include Phyllis Chesler Gloria Steinem Kate Millett Starhawk Judy Chicago Zsuzsanna Emese Budapest Andrea Dworkin Jean Baker Miller Carol Gilligan In Feminist Foremothers in Women s Studies Psychology and Mental Health many of the women see in hindsight how prior projects and ideas and even dreams were the forerunners to their most important work They note the importance of sisterhood and the presence of other women and the loneliness and isolation experienced when they don t exist They note the validation they have received from grassroots feminists in contrast to disbelief from professionals Although these women have been and continue to be looked up to as foremothers they realize how little recognition they ve been given from society at large and how much better off their male counterparts are Some foremothers write about the feeling of being different not meshing with the culture of the time and about challenging the system as an outsider not an insider These are women who had few mentors who had to forge their own way hit the ground running Their stories will challenge readers to press on to continue the work these foremothers so courageously started Throughout the pages of Feminist Foremothers in Women s Studies Psychology and Mental Health runs a sense of excitement and vibrancy of lives lived well of being there during the early years of the women s movement of making sacrifices of taking risks and living to see enormous changes result Throughout these pages too sounds a call not to take these changes for granted but to recognize that feminists rather than arguing over picayune issues or splitting politically correct hairs are battling for the very soul of the world From Motherhood to

Mothering Andrea O'Reilly,2004-10-14 Explores how Rich s work has influenced feminist scholarship on motherhood

Transformative Power in Motherwork Marie Porter,2021-02-03 This book explores the experiences of a group of Australian women who became first time mothers between 1950 and 1965 A grounded theory of transformative power in motherwork is presented that has emerged from the analysis of interviews The mothers talked about what they did in their active mothering years The author argues that despite being constrained by the gender bias in the patriarchal context these mothers were agents who developed skills that enabled them to resist or creatively deal with most of the constraints they faced Their emphasis was on their agency and the power to nurture their children into responsible adults Their awareness of the importance of their motherwork acted as a motivator in this development The author further argues that the relationship between each mother and each of her children is a transformative power relationship in which both mother and child are transformed the child into an independent adult and the mother into a skilled self motivated agent through her motherwork Any threat to this process resulted in the mother doing all she could to resist or counteract the constraints she was encountering Transformative power expressed in motherwork can be recognised analytically by several characteristics It empowers both parties in the mother child duality Complexity diversity fluidity and responsiveness to the physical intellectual and emotional aspects of the relationship are all evident in transformative power relationships Toward a

New Psychology of Gender Mary M. Gergen,Sara N. Davis,2013-11-12 Drawn from a brilliant array of voices primarily from psychology but also from other social sciences and humanities this unique reader of creative and intellectually provocative essays investigates the social construction of gender For the past several decades those involved with the study of the psychology of women and gender have been struggling for recognition within the framework of psychology This volume brings together the writings from psychology philosophy psychoanalysis history women s studies education and sociology that critique mainstream thinking and exemplify new ways of creating inquiry Textual Mothers/Maternal Texts Elizabeth Podnieks,Andrea O'Reilly,2011-04-07 Textual Mothers Maternal Texts focuses on mothers as subjects and as writers who produce auto biography fiction and poetry about maternity International contributors examine the mother without child with child and in her multiple identities as grandmother mother and daughter The collection examines how authors use textual spaces to accept negotiate resist or challenge traditional conceptions of mothering and maternal roles and how these texts offer alternative practices and visions for mothers Further it illuminates how textual representations both reflect and help to define or re shape the realities of women and families by examining how mothering and being a mother are political personal and creative narratives unfolding within both the pages of a book and the spaces of a life The range of chapters maps a shift from the daughter centric stories that have dominated the maternal tradition to the matrilineal and matrifocal perspectives that have emerged over the last few decades as the mother s voice moved from silence to speech Contributors make aesthetic cultural and political claims and critiques about mothering and motherhood illuminating in new and diverse ways how authors and the protagonists of the texts read their own maternal identities as well as the maternal scripts of their families cultures and nations in their quest for self knowledge agency and artistic expression

When Couples Become Parents Bonnie Fox,2009-01-01 When Couples Become Parents examines the ways in which divisions based on gender both evolve and are challenged by heterosexual couples from late pregnancy through early parenthood

Theory on Gender Paula England,1993-01-01 How do various social theories explain gender inequality Are these theories infused with masculinist biases that need to be redressed with insights from feminist theory To address these questions this collection of original essays features prominent sociologists discussing the strengths and the limitations of the theoretical traditions within which they have worked Among the theoretical perspectives included are those of Marxism world system theory macrostructural theories rational choice theory neofunctionalism psychoanalysis ethno methodology expectation states theory poststructuralist symbolic interactionism and network theory Each of the chapter length essays of the first two sections provides an overview of the theory explains its implications for gender inequality reviews empirical research and comments upon sexist biases or other limitations of the perspective The final section contains chapters on feminist debates over methodology critical commentaries on the preceding papers by four feminist scholars and replies by the original authors
