Structuralist Philosophy Of The Novel:

Philosophy of the Novel Barry Stocker, 2018-11-02 This book explores the aesthetics of the novel from the perspective of Continental European philosophy presenting a theory on the philosophical definition and importance of the novel as a literary genre It analyses a variety of individuals whose work is reflected in both theoretical literary criticism and Continental European aesthetics including Mikhail Bakhtin Georg Lukacs Theodor Adorno and Walter Benjamin Moving through material from eighteenth century and ancient Greek philosophy and aesthetics the book provides comprehensive coverage of the major positions on the philosophy of the novel Distinctive features include the importance of Vico's view of the epic to understanding the novel the importance of Kierkegaard's view of the novel and irony along with his other aesthetic views the different possibilities associated with seeing the novel as mimetic and the importance of Proust in understanding the genre in all its philosophical aspects relating the issue of the philosophical aesthetics of the novel with the issue of philosophy written as a novel and the interaction between these two alternative positions The Structuralist Philosophy of the Novel Sunil Sharma (Ph. D.), 1999-01-01 Post-Structuralism: A Note on the Philosophical School Pons Malleus, 2025-07-02 This book is an invitation into one of the most challenging provocative and enduring philosophical movements of the late 20th century post structuralism Emerging in the wake of structuralism's systematic approach to language culture and society post structuralism did not so much reject its predecessor as it questioned its foundational certainties It reoriented philosophical inquiry toward ambiguity contingency and the instability of meaning challenging our deepest assumptions about truth identity power and knowledge Post structuralism is not a unified doctrine or a clearly bounded school of thought Rather it is a constellation of thinkers Michel Foucault Jacques Derrida Gilles Deleuze Julia Kristeva Jean Baudrillard and others each charting a unique intellectual path What binds them however loosely is a shared skepticism toward totalizing narratives fixed categories and objective truths Where structuralism sought underlying systems whether linguistic anthropological or psychoanalytic post structuralism problematized those systems demonstrating how they are shaped by historical contingencies power dynamics and the play of language itself This book does not aim to simplify post structuralism into a set of clear rules or principles nor does it attempt to resolve its many internal tensions Instead it offers a guide through its core concepts difference deconstruction discourse power subjectivity and more while contextualizing them within the broader intellectual and historical landscape From Derrida's unsettling of the metaphysics of presence to Foucault's genealogies of knowledge and power from Deleuze's philosophy of becoming to Kristeva's theories of the abject post structuralism offers a relentless interrogation of the categories that structure thought and society Crucially this book seeks to clarify not codify The writing of many post structuralists is notoriously difficult sometimes maddeningly so This complexity is not a mere stylistic flourish it often reflects the very nature of the questions being asked questions that resist closure and demand a new kind of philosophical literacy Yet with patient reading and careful attention the rewards of engaging with post structuralist thought are profound It offers tools for examining the assumptions beneath our language institutions and identities revealing how what appears natural or self evident is often historically constructed and ideologically motivated This book is for students encountering post structuralism for the first time for scholars seeking a synthetic overview and for readers from other disciplines literature sociology political theory cultural studies who find themselves drawn to its critical promise It is written with the conviction that philosophy is not an abstract self contained enterprise but a living practice that helps us understand and perhaps reshape the world we inhabit In an age increasingly dominated by rigid ideologies identity essentialisms and algorithmic certainties the post structuralist impulse to question foundations to embrace complexity and to remain open to the other feels more urgent than ever Whether one ultimately agrees with its premises or not engaging seriously with post structuralism can sharpen critical awareness and deepen our understanding of the conditions that shape contemporary thought and life

The Novel Dorothy J. Hale, 2009-02-09 The Novel An Anthology of Criticism and Theory 1900 2000 is a collection of the most influential writings on the theory of the novel from the twentieth century Traces the rise of novel theory and the extension of its influence into other disciplines especially social cultural and political theory Broad in scope including sections on formalism the Chicago School structuralism and narratology deconstruction psychoanalysis Marxism social discourse gender post colonialism and more Includes whole essays or chapters wherever possible Headnotes introduce and link each piece enabling readers to draw connections between different schools of thought Encourages students to approach theoretical texts with confidence applying the same skills they bring to literary texts Includes a volume introduction a selected bibliography an index of topics and short author biographies to support study Philosophical Approaches to Literature

William E. Cain, 1984 This volume presents eleven new essays that reveal how significant nineteenth and twentieth century writers have drawn from and in some cases opposed major trends in philosophy Essays in this collection deal with Tennyson Coleridge Woolf Faulkner De Quincey Beckett romance as a genre the state of contemporary literary theory as shaped by the writings of Wittgenstein Ricoeur and Derrida and other topics The Poverty of Structuralism Leonard Jackson, 2014-09-11

The Poverty of Structuralism is the first in a sequence of volumes which examine in turn the basic ideas of Saussure Marx and Freud and analyse the way in which they have been developed and applied to art culture and modern textual theory The text offers a critical introduction to the structuralist foundations of modern literary theory It gives an account of the way such foundations have been developed twisted and distorted to become part of the language that contemporary literary and cultural theoreticians use It also addresses some of the fundamental issues about language and society that are presupposed by the often difficult language of modern literary and cultural theory Comparative Criticism: Volume 7, Boundaries of Literature

E. S. Shaffer, 1986-04-17 Comparative Criticism is an annual journal of comparative literature and cultural studies that has gained an international reputation since its inception in 1979 It contains major articles on literary theory and criticism on a wide range of comparative topics and on interdisciplinary debates It includes translations of literary scholarly and critical works substantial reviews of important books in the field and bibliographies on specialist themes for the year on individual writers and on comparative literary studies in Britain and Ireland Postmodernity, Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson, 2002-01-04 In Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson sets out to demonstrate that postmodern theory has actually made possible an ethical discourse around fiction Each chapter elaborates and discusses a particular aspect of Levinas thought and raises questions for that thought and its bearing on the novel It also contains detailed analyses of particular texts Part of the book's originality is its concentration on a range of modernist and postmodern novels which have seldom if ever served as the basis for a larger ethical theory of fiction Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel discusses among others the writings of Joseph Conrad Henry James Jane Austen Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Salman Rushdie The Social, Cultural and Spiritual Dimensions of Modern Indian Poetry in English Vijay Kumar Roy, 2017-05-11 This volume brings together research papers on the poetry of modern Indian poets particularly those whose poetry is less explored It is well known that post Independence India has produced many brilliant writers whose writings have their own importance in the field of Indian English literature These writers have brought new themes and new styles of writing that have enriched Indian English literature to a greater extent The book explores the social cultural and spiritual dimensions of these emerging poets and will prove useful to students teachers and all those interested in Indian English poetry for studies and research purposes

Mikhail Bakhtin's Heritage in Literature, Arts, and Psychology Slav N. Gratchev, Howard Mancing, 2020-07-07 Art and Answerability the work that would become Mikhail Bakhtin's literary manifesto was first published in Den Iskusstva The Day of the Art on September 13 1919 Mikhail Bakhtin's Heritage in Literature Arts and Psychology Art and Answerability celebrates one hundred years of Bakhtin's heritage This unique book examines the heritage of Mikhail Bakhtin in a variety of disciplines To articulate the enduring relevance and heritage of the varied works of Bakhtin sixteen scholars from eight countries have come together and each has brought his/her unique perspective to the subject Bakhtin's work in aesthetics moral philosophy linguistics psychology carnival cognition contextualism and the history and theory of the novel are present here as understood by a wide variety of distinguished scholars Timothy Findley's Novels Between Ethics and Postmodernism Dagmar Krause, 2005 Timothy Findley 1930-2002 is one of the most important contemporary Canadian writers His novels have been classified as postmodern exhibiting characteristic features such as parody historiographic metafiction and hybrid genres This classification of Findley as a postmodern writer however largely neglects the fact that Findley is deeply committed to the exploration of certain ethical and political themes Recurring topics in his work are for instance fascism environmental concerns and the problem of responsibility Sparked off by the fascinating question of how postmodernism and ethics can be reconciled at all and inspired by the so called ethical turn in the literary theory of the 1990s this study supplies a closer look at Findley's ethics with regard to its postmodern potential A detailed analysis of five of his novels The Wars Famous Last Words Not Wanted on the Voyage The Telling of Lies and Headhunter explores the ethical dimension of Findleys work and its consequences for his categorization as a postmodern writer History of Structuralism: The sign sets, 1967-present François Dosse,1997 Content Description Includes bibliographical references and index

Language, Logic, and Concepts Ray Jackendoff,Paul Bloom,Karen Wynn,2002 A wide ranging collection of essays inspired by the memory of the cognitive psychologist John Macnamara Gilles Deleuze: Affirmation in Philosophy J. Conway,2010-10-27 Why does knowledge of philosophy presuppose knowledge of reality What are the characters in Deleuze s theatre and philosophy How are his famous metaphysical distinctions secondary to the concept of philosophy as practice and politics These questions are answered through careful analysis and application of Deleuzian principles Literature, Culture, and Society Andrew Milner,1996-07 Amidst continuing debates about the literary canon Literature Culture and Society poses a revealing question if academics find it valuable and stimulating to discuss texts ranging from Genesis to Bladerunner in their leisure time why do they act as if this is sacrosanct in their formal work In this well argued and refreshing discussion of the history and importance of literary criticism Milner embraces a reality that many in the academy still fear that cultural studies is alive and it s here to stay Andrew Milner begins with an introduction to the field of cultural studies and its parent disciplines of English literature and sociology He reviews the defining terms and the theoretical traditions in a manner that is sophisticated but accessible He discusses just how and why cultural studies evolved and what it has to offer our appraisal of all texts be they old or new print or film Milner eschews both cultural populism and literary elitism in favor of a criticism that is more concerned with value than with exclusion The author concludes this significant and insightful book with a demonstration of his theories tying together a group of narratives ranging from Paradise Lost to the latest Frankenstein films Literature Culture and Society cogently examines the question of scholarship and forcefully demonstrates that rigorous academic inquiry need not be reserved for dust covered texts alone Rethinking Practice as Research and the Cognitive Turn S. May,2015-10-22 The last 15 years has seen an explosion of studies that use cognitive science to understand theatre whilst at the same time theatre makers are using their artistic practice to address research question This book looks at the current discourse around these emerging fields Secrets of Becoming Roland Faber,Andrea M. Stephenson,2011 The essays from the conference have been substantially rev and new material has been added French Philosophy in the Twentieth Century Gary Gutting,2001-05-10 A clear and comprehensive account of the history of French philosophy in the twentieth century Iris Murdoch Hilda D. Spear,2006-10-23 Iris Murdoch produced twenty six novels in forty years The last of these Jackson s Dilemma was published in 1995 four years before her death Murdoch s interest in moral problems inclined her towards what could be seen as an unusual view of human character and human life leading her to create bizarre situations and offer unsettling solutions which frequently challenge and intrigue the reader This essential introduction to one of Britain s best known writers guides the reader through the full range of Murdoch s fictional output tracing basic patterns which run throughout Murdoch s work and showing how the novels help to elucidate one another The revised updated and expanded new edition takes into account certain details which have emerged following Murdoch s death in 1999 incorporates the latest scholarship and offers fuller treatment of a number of novels The second edition also gives more weight to the development of the moral discourse which is predominant in Murdoch s work From the mid sixties onwards Murdoch was intensely concerned with the problems of Good and Evil in a godless world In the later novels particularly those of the eighties and nineties she posited the possibility of mystic personalities who influence others from a position beyond the normal parameters of our world Hilda D Spear examines these mystic and mysterious fictions in the later chapters of her study and argues that Jackson s Dilemma should be viewed as Murdoch s unfinished novel The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor,2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization
