Community in the Balance James Hagen, 2015-12-03 Community in the Balance presents a fresh perspective on some classic social science issues It examines the conflicts and tensions that permeate day to day interactions of a people in a remote region of the eastern Indonesian province of Maluku The Maneo openly tout the pleasures of living alone in the forests of Seram away from the demands of kith and kin and the scrutiny that comes from life in villages in close proximity The option is real Yet while the incessant social demands and low level enmities they attribute to village life are also felt most acutely in the peril of sorcery the accounts of strife are exaggerated to help establish the mutuality of the terms on which people do associate as a collective sacrifice and virtue Drawing on Aristotelian ideas of morality and exploring the modalities of recognition desire and displacement the book focuses on the strategies of negotiation and obfuscation Maneo employ to foster community life As volition is central to moral practice the book's analysis of the subsequent religious conflagration that swept the province between 1999 and 2002 illuminates how fears and rumors of attack narrowed options that might otherwise have enabled enough people to opt out condemn the violence and perhaps contain it

The Metamorphoses of Kinship Maurice Godelier, 2012-03-03 With marriage in decline divorce on the rise the demise of the nuclear family and the increase in marriages and adoptions among same sex partners it is clear that the structures of kinship in the modern West are in a state of flux In The Metamorphoses of Kinship the world renowned anthropologist Maurice Godelier contextualizes these developments surveying the accumulated experience of humanity with regard to such phenomena as the organization of lines of descent sexuality and sexual prohibitions In parallel Godelier studies the evolution of Western conjugal and familial traditions from their roots in the nineteenth century to the present The conclusion he draws is that it is never the case that a man and a woman are sufficient on their own to raise a child and nowhere are relations of kinship or the family the keystone of society Godelier argues that the changes of the last thirty years do not herald the disappearance or death agony of kinship but rather its remarkable metamorphosis one that ironically is bringing us closer to the traditional societies studied by ethnologists
