Developmental Relations among Mind, Brain and Education Michel Ferrari, Ljiljana Vuletic, 2010-06-09 Robert S. Siegler, Robbie Case, A Modern Classic About 15 years ago Robbie asked me what I thought of a talk we had just heard. I indicated that I hadn't much liked it and noted several serious problems. Robbie agreed with all of the criticisms but said that he nonetheless liked the talk because there was one good idea in it that he could use. I agreed with him that the idea was a good one but it took me a while to understand the wisdom of his position. If there's one useful idea in a talk then hearing it has been worthwhile even if the talk also has numerous deficiencies. On that day and on many others talking with Robbie changed my thinking for the better. Robbie Case was in many ways a classic developmental psychologist of the old school. The depth and breadth of his theory, the range of age groups, populations and topics that he studied and his efforts to connect theory and application are all reminiscent of the greats of the past: Baldwin, Dewey, Piaget, Vygotsky and Bruner.

La construction urbaine des formes de représentation dans le contexte des relations interethniques

Isabelle H. Caprani, Isabelle Caprani, 2008 Comment définir la spécificité d'un espace urbain situé en centre-ville travers sa dynamique sociale et interethnique. Telle est la question qui nourrit cet ouvrage. Sa particularité est de définir une démarche alliant deux disciplines : savoir la géographie et la sociologie. Cet ouvrage se penche sur la façon de relever les différentes formes et manifestations ethniques mais également de comprendre la manière dont est vécue cette socialité tout en tenant compte du contexte urbain dans lequel elles se situent. Pour aborder ces thématiques de recherche, l'auteur fonde sur le principe de la représentation et les images travers lesquelles elles se produisent et se manifestent à travers. Cette recherche porte ainsi sur une analyse dynamique du phénomène interethnique inscrit dans le courant constructiviste où il s'agit notamment de prendre en considération la fois l'analyse du chercheur et la réalité objective et subjective du vécu des différents acteurs urbains. C'est justement l'association de ces deux approches qui permettra de définir un quartier urbain.
