The Struggle for World Power 1500–1980 W. Woodruff, 1981-12-17 Western Representations of the Muslim Woman Mohja Kahf, 1999 Veiled secluded submissive oppressed the odalisque image has held sway over Western representations of Muslim women since the Enlightenment of the eighteenth century Yet during medieval and Renaissance times European writers portrayed Muslim women in exactly the opposite way as forceful queens of wanton and intimidating sexuality In this illuminating study Mohja Kahf traces the process through which the termagant became an odalisque in Western representations of Muslim women Drawing examples from medieval chanson de geste and romance Renaissance drama Enlightenment prose and Romantic poetry she links the changing images of Muslim women to changes in European relations with the Islamic world as well as to changing gender dynamics within Western societies Global Power and Local Struggles in Developing Countries , 2022-12-12 The volume challenges dominant narratives of progress with a rich range of investigations of local struggles from the Global south which are based on original ethnographic research The chapters take a point of departure in ideas and concepts developed by the pioneering anthropologist Eric R Wolf in Europe and the People Without History and emphasize the relevance and usefulness of applying Wolf to contemporary contexts As such the collection contributes to knowledge of dynamic relationships between local agency in the Global south and broader political and economic processes that make people without history This shows global power as both excluding local groups at the same time as conditioning local struggles and the forms that social organization takes Contributors are Paul Stacey Joshua Steckley Nixon Boumba Marylynn Steckley Ismael Garcia Col n Inge Merete Hougaard Gustavo S Azenha Ioannis Kyriakakis Raquel Rodrigues Machaqueiro Tirza van Bruggen and Masami Tsujita War in the World Jeremy Black, 2017-09-16 War was a central theme in the world history of the late fifteenth and sixteenth centuries with military capability and activity central to its states societies economies and cultures War in the World 1450 1600 provides an account of warfare in the period placing it in global context It offers a corrective to a narrative that has emphasised European developments and obscured the history of non European military systems and cultures of war Highlighting conflict between non Western powers which constituted most of the conflict around the world as well as giving due attention to warfare between Western and non Western powers Black emphasises the breadth and variety of military trajectories and connections This comparative context also provides a framework for considering the idea of a European based Military Revolution A wide ranging account of world military history in a period of substantial development the book will be essential reading for those interested in global history and conflict War in the World 1450 1600 is designed as a companion volume to Jeremy Black s Beyond the Military Revolution Warfare in the Seventeenth Century World Balkan Military History John E. Taliaferro,2019-06-30 Great powers often initiate risky military and diplomatic inventions in far off peripheral regions that pose no direct threat to them risking direct confrontation with rivals in strategically inconsequential places Why do powerful countries behave in a way that leads to entrapment in prolonged expensive and self defeating conflicts Jeffrey W Taliaferro suggests that such interventions are driven by the refusal of senior officials to accept losses in their state s relative power international status or prestige Instead of cutting their losses leaders often continue to invest blood and money in failed excursions into the periphery Their policies may seem to be driven by rational concerns about power and security but Taliaferro deems them to be at odds with the master explanation of political realism Taliaferro constructs a balance of risk theory of foreign policy that draws on defensive realism in international relations and prospect theory in psychology He illustrates the power of this new theory in several case narratives Germany s initiation and escalation of the 1905 and 1911 Moroccan crises the United States involvement in the Korean War in 1950 52 and Japan s entanglement in the second Sino Japanese war in 1937 40 and its decisions for war with the U S in 1940 41 Library of World History ,1914
