Struggle Of The Magicians:

The Struggle of the Magicians George Ivanovich Gurdjieff, THE ACTION takes place in a large commercial town of the East The market square where various streets and alleys meet around it shops and stalls with every variety of merchandise silks earthenware spices open fronted workshops of tailors and shoemakers To the right a row of fruit stalls flat roofed houses of two and three stories with many balconies some hung with carpets and others strewn with washing To the left on a roof a tea shop further on children are playing two monkeys are climbing on the cornices Behind the houses are seen winding streets leading to the mountain houses mosques minarets gardens palaces Christian churches Hindu temples and pagodas In the distance on the mountain is seen the tower of an old fortress Amongst the crowd moving about the alleys and the market square types of almost every Asiatic people are to be met with clad in their national costumes a Persian with dyed beard an Afghan all in white with proud and bold expression a Baluchistani in a white turban with a sharp peak to it and short white sleeveless coat with a broad belt out of which stick several knives a half naked Hindu Tamil the front of his head shaved and a white and red fork the sign of Vishnu painted on his forehead a native of Khiva wearing a huge black fur cap and a thickly wadded coat a yellow robed Buddhist monk his head shaved and a prayer wheel in his hand an Armenian in a black chooka with a silver belt and a black Russian forage cap a Tibetan in a costume resembling the Chinese bordered with valuable furs also Bokharis Arabs Caucasians and Turkomans The merchants cry their wares inviting customers beggars with whining voices beg for alms a sherbet vendor amuses the crowd with a witty song A street barber shaving the head of a venerable old hadji recounts the news and the gossip of the town to a tailor who dines in the adjoining eating house A funeral procession passes through one of the alleys in front is a mullah and behind him the corpse is borne on a bier covered with a pall followed by the women mourners In another alley a fight is in progress and all the boys run there to watch On the right a fakir with outstretched arms his eyes fixed on one point sits on an antelope skin A rich and important merchant passes along ignoring the crowd his servants follow him carrying baskets laden with purchases Then appear some exhausted beggars half naked and covered with dust evidently just arrived from some famine area At one shop Kashmir and other shawls and materials are brought out and shown to customers Opposite the tea shop a snake charmer seats himself and is at once surrounded by a curious crowd Donkeys pass by laden with baskets Women walk along some wearing the chuddar and others with unveiled faces A humpbacked old woman stops near the fakir and with a devout air puts money into the coconut almsbowl standing near him She touches the skin on which he is seated and goes away pressing her hands to her forehead and eyes A wedding procession moves by in front are gaily dressed children behind them buffoons musicians and drumbeaters The towncrier passes shouting at the top of his voice From an alley is heard the din of the copper smith s hammers Everywhere there is noise sound movement laughter scolding prayers bargaining life bubbling over Two men separate themselves from the crowd Both are richly dressed One of them Gafar is a handsome well built wealthy Parsi about thirty or thirty five years of age clean shaven except for a small black moustache and close cut hair He wears a light yellow silk coat belted with a pale rose coloured scarf and blue trousers over this a brocade robe the skirt cuffs and facings of which are embroidered in silver on his feet are high boots of yellow leather the legs embroidered in gold and precious stones his head is covered with a turban of a figured Indian material its predominating colour is turquoise blue on his fingers are rings with large emeralds and diamonds The other man is his confidant Rossoula dressed equally richly but carelessly He is short stout subtle and cunning the chief assistant of his master in all his love affairs and intrigues He is always in a sly and merry mood On his head he wears a red skull cap with a yellow turban wrapped round it in his Hand is a short red rosary Gafar looks at some of the wares and stops occasionally to speak with some of his acquaintances but evidently nothing interests him in all his movements one can see the pride of a man satiated with pleasures To his equals he is patronizingly civil but on everyone else he looks with contempt or aversion He has experienced everything seen everything and the things for which other people struggle and exert themselves no longer exist for him At this moment two women come out of a side street on the left into the square One of them Zeinab is young about twenty or twenty two years of age of an Indo Persian type more than average height and very beautiful She is dressed in a white tunic with a green scarf round her waist her smoothly dressed hair parted in the middle is bound with a gold fillet thrown over her head she wears a chuddar but her face is un covered The other is her confidant Haila She is a short plump middle aged good natured woman She is dressed in a blue velvet coat under a violet chuddar Her mouth is covered with a handkerchief Zeinab holds a roll of parchment wrapped in a silk handkerchief She passes along the square graciously giving alms to the beggars whom she meets Gafar notices her and follows her with his eyes Her face interests him because it seems at the first glance to remind him of someone or something He enquires of Rossoula and other acquaintances who she is but no one knows Just then Zeinab goes up to a beggar woman near whom stands a half clad boy about eight years old with an open sore on his naked arm As she gives him alms Zeinab notices the sore and bending over him she speaks sympathetically to the beggar woman about him Finally she says something to her pointing to one of the side streets and then to the boy It is evident from her gestures that she is advising the woman to take the boy where he can be cured All this time Gafar does not cease to observe Zeinab Zeinab wishes to bind up the boy s arm but she has nothing to wrap round it so she unfolds the silk handkerchief in which the rolls of parchment are wrapped and binds it round the sore Then accompanied by Haila she leaves the square by a side street Gafar quickly consults Rossoula It is evident that he is giving him instructions to follow Zeinab and to find out what he can about her When Zeinab has disappeared Rossoula follows by the same street Gafar stands looking after him then slowly goes up to the beggar woman and begins to talk to her Recognizing the handkerchief on the boy s arm as the gift of Zeinab he without knowing why desires to buy it He offers the woman some money but she refuses to sell it Gafar thereupon throws down a handful of money and takes the handkerchief almost by force from the boy then slowly walks towards the middle of the square The astonished woman excitedly picks up the money and raising her hands to heaven thanks Gafar Then taking the boy by the hand she goes down the alley pointed out by Zeinab Rossoula returns and with deprecating gestures tells Gafar that he has discovered that Zeinab is not a woman whom it is possible to approach casually Then still talking together Gafar and Rossoula go out by one of the streets on the left Evening draws on In one of the alleys there is much movement and out from it comes a dervish accompanied by a crowd amongst whom are many women and children This dervish has been much honoured in the country of late and he enjoys great respect amongst all the different nationalities He recites some sacred verses and to the rhythm of the verses he makes certain movements resembling gymnastics or a dance

Scenario of the Ballet the Struggle of the Magicians G. Gurdjieff,2008-04 My ballet is not a mystery The purpose of it is to present an interesting and beautiful spectacle Of course under the visible forms a certain sense is hidden but I did not aim at demonstrating or emphasizing it The chief position in this ballet is occupied by certain dances I will explain this to you briefly Imagine that in studying the laws of movement of the celestial bodies let us say the planets of the solar system you have constructed a special mechanism for the representation and recording of these laws In this mechanism every planet is represented by a sphere of appropriate size and is placed at a strictly determined distance from the central sphere which stands for the sun You set the mechanism in motion and all the spheres begin to turn and move in definite paths reproducing in a lifelike way the laws which govern their movements This mechanism reminds you of your knowledge In the same way in the rhythm of certain dances in the precise movements and combinations of the dancers certain laws are vividly recalled Such dances are called sacred During my journeys in the East I often saw dances of this kind executed during the performance of sacred rites in some of the ancient temples These ceremonies are inaccessible and unknown to Europeans Some of these dances are reproduced in The Struggle of the Magicians Further I may tell you that at the basis of The Struggle of the Magicians lie three thoughts but as I have no hope that they will be understood by the public if I present the ballet alone I call it simply a spectacle

In Search of the Miraculous P. D. Ouspensky,2021-11-06T15:19:00Z This book recounts P D Ouspensky s first meeting and subsequent association with George Gurdjieff It is widely regarded as perhaps the most comprehensive account of Gurdjieff s system of thought available Many followers regard it as a fundamental textbook of Gurdjieff s teachings and it is often used as a means of introducing new students to Gurdjieff s system of self development

Gurdjieff John Shirley,2004-03-30 A dramatic and literate introduction to one of the twentieth century s most influential and intriguing spiritual teachers Born in the shifting border between Turkey and Russia in 1866 G I Gurdjieff is a man who would continually straddle borders between East and West between man and something higher than man between the ancient teachings of esoteric schools and the modern application of those ideas in contemporary life In many respects from the concept of group meetings to the mysterious workings of the enneagram to his critique of humanity as existing in a state of sleep Gurdjieff pioneered the culture of spiritual search that has taken root in the West today While many of Gurdjieff s students including Frank Lloyd Wright Katharine Mansfield and P D Ouspensky are well known few understand this figure possessed of complex writings and sometimes confounding methods In Gurdjieff An Introduction to His Life and Ideas the acclaimed novelist John Shirley one of the founders of the cyberpunk genre presents a lively reliable explanation of how to approach the sage and his ideas In accessible dramatic prose Shirley retells that which we know of Gurdjieff s life he surveys the teacher s methods and the lives of his key students and he helps readers to enter the unparalleled originality of this remarkable teacher

Classical Spirituality in Contemporary America Michael S. Pittman, 2012-03-08 G I Gurdjieff d 1949 remains an important if controversial figure in early 20th century Western Esoteric thought Born in the culturally diverse region of the Caucasus Gurdjieff traveled in Asia Africa and elsewhere in search of practical spiritual knowledge Though oftentimes allusive references to Sufi teachings and characters take a prominent position in Gurdjieff s work and writings Since his death a discourse on Gurdjieff and Sufism has developed through the contributions as well as critiques of his students and interlocutors J G Bennett began an experimental Fourth Way school in England in the 1970s which included the introduction of Sufi practices and teachings In America this discourse has further expanded through the collaboration and engagement of contemporary Sufi teachers This work does not simply demonstrate the influence of Gurdjieff and his ideas but approaches the specific discourse on and about Gurdjieff and Sufism in the context of contemporary religious and spiritual teachings particularly in the United States and highlights some of the adaptive boundary crossing and hybrid features that have led to the continuing influence of Sufism

Gurdjieff: The Key Concepts Sophia Wellbeloved, 2013-04-15 This unique book offers clear definitions of Gurdjieff s teaching terms placing him within the political geographic and cultural context of his time Entries look at diverse aspects of his Work including possible sources in religious Theosophical occult esoteric and literary traditions the integral relationships between different aspects of the teaching its internal contradictions and subversive aspects the derivation of Gurdjieff s cosmological laws and Enneagram the passive form of New Work teaching introduced by Jeanne de Salzmann

The Enneagram: Living and Dead Plavan N. Go, After 100 years from the first presentation of the enneagram by Gurdjieff this book offers a definitive understanding of the enneagram as a moving symbol Deriving understanding from vast resources this book for the first time gives a fully illustrated and empirically verifiable explanations about the construction and significance of the enneagram in terms of the following The Law of Three as a representation of three fold worldview that goes against one sided and top down worldviews automatically accepted by many This most basic but most neglected subject in Gurdjieff s teaching is discussed in relation to Gurdjieff s ballet the Struggle of the Magicians gnostic worldview as expressed in the Gospels of Judas for example and revolutionary worldview from complex system sciences The logic of three into four This is formulated by Gurdjieff as O C N H While the meanings given to O and C are reverse between Gurdjieff s Moscow lecture notes and the Ouspensky's records this book follows the former. This is discussed in relation to the process of formation of understanding and also in relation to dynamisms between opposite sexes illustrated by the Struggle of the Magicians. Then the formula is applied to the enneagram which can be seen as the doubling of three into four with outer inner alternation, a curious twist that happens in the process of transition from the first half of the enneagram to the second half. The Law of Seven, the asymmetrical structure of the octave and the natures of the two intervals are fully explained in relation to the above view of seeing the enneagram as the doubling of three into four with outer inner alternation. This also explains the peculiarities of the note SOL in the octave discussed by Gurdjieff in his writing. Based on the above understanding, the author goes further to construct an enneagram representing the Gurdjieff's vision of the harmonious development of man. The enneagram puts together the three centers model and the five centers model in illustrating the development of man up to the formation of individuality. Furthermore, the author compares the above enneagram with the enneagram of personality which originates in the insights of Oscar Ichazo and verifies its significance. As a result, this book for the first time clarifies the reasons behind the definitions of the nine personality types and their mapping on the enneagram. With a new look on the enneagram of personality, the author reveals the dynamics behind the formation of each personality type, illustrating dramas in traveling the path around the enneagram in terms of oppositions between the logic of survival and the logic of growth. The author is the Japanese translator and publisher of Gurdjieff's complete writings and lectures, In Search of the Miraculous by P. D.

The Gurdjieff Movements Wim van Dullemen, 2018-05-17. Scores of books exist about the life and teachings of the Russian spiritual visionary G. I. Gurdjieff (1866-1949), yet few devote significant coverage to the Gurdjieff Movements. These several hundred precise and mostly asymmetrical gestures arranged into detailed choreographies for groups of practitioners were designed by Gurdjieff himself. This new book reconsiders the eminent role of the Movements, revealing them as a vital yet often neglected component in the transmission of Gurdjieff's legacy. Van Dullemen, whose first Movements teacher received her instruction from Gurdjieff himself, is in a unique position to offer background theory and first-hand experience about this subject. He is a professional musician and a long-time practitioner of the Gurdjieff work who trained in these Movements and served as a master accompanist for the practice for over thirty years. No book can teach the Movements; the author clearly asserts. And he makes no such attempt here. Far from an instruction manual, The Gurdjieff Movements: A Communication of Ancient Wisdom offers invaluable insight into and greater understanding of the whys and wherefores of this fourth arm of the vast teaching that comprises Gurdjieff's complete communication: his books, his oral teachings, his music, and finally his Movements. Along with fascinating stories of his own journey of discovery, van Dullemen has skillfully integrated autobiographical descriptions of the master Gurdjieff, interviews with direct pupils of Gurdjieff, diligent research within a wide range of firsthand sources, descriptions of the scientific, cultural, and social climate during Gurdjieff's time and the relationship between these and his teaching The book is also a rare accomplishment While highly authoritative it is nonetheless written in a direct style with clear language making it accessible to the public at large who may have interest but little background in this esoteric science and practice G.I. Gurdjieff Colin Wilson, 2019-02-21

Presents the life and work of one of the most influential psychological theorists of modern times George Ivanovitch Gurdjieff This examination of a psychologist and teacher of genius also provides an introduction to the philosophy of Gurdjieff This work presents the life and work of one of the most influential psychological theorists of modern times George Ivanovitch Gurdjieff is one of the most enigmatic figures of our time He attracted legends as easily as disciples But behind the Gurdjieff myth lies a solid corpus of thought the importance of which is only now being generally recognized At its heart was the idea of the war against sleep the fact that man in Colin Wilson's words is like a grandfather clock driven by a watch spring This brilliant and much praised examination of a psychologist and teacher of genius has established itself as the most important and accessible account for the general reader of Gurdjieff's life and work This edition has been revised and expanded providing the definitive introduction to the philosophy of Gurdjieff The Sixth Sense of the Avant-Garde Irina Sirotkina, Roger Smith, 2017-04-20

The touch and movement senses have a large place in the modern arts This is widely discussed and celebrated often enough as if it represents a breakthrough in a primarily visual age This book turns to history to show just how significant movement and the sense of movement were to pioneers of modernism at the turn of the 20th century It makes this history vivid through a picture of movement in the lives of an extraordinary generation of Russian artists writers theatre people and dancers bridging the last years of the tsars and the Revolution Readers will gain a new perspective on the relation between art and life in the period 1890 1920 in great innovators like the poets Mayakovsky and Andrei Bely the theatre director Meyerhold the dancer Isadora Duncan and the young men and women in Russia inspired by her lead and esoteric figures like Gurdjieff Movement and the turn to the body as a source of natural knowledge was at the centre of idealistic creativity and hopes for a new age for a new man and this was true both for those who looked forward to the technology of the future and those who looked back to the harmony of Ancient Greece The book weaves history and analysis into a colourful thoughtful affirmation of movement in the expressive life The academy, 1882 Secrets of the Fourth Way Alan Francis, 2022-04-05

A collage of memoirs and reflections commentaries personal insights and exercises all of which are invaluable to students of G I Gurdjieff's teachings
