Over the years North East India remained the hotbed of militant extremism largely attributable to identity politics seeking to institutionalise political aspirations of various ethnic communities. The emergence of educated middle class and a growing sense of alienation of the people from mainstream India has also had the effect of triggering growth of militant organizations adding substantially to political dynamics of the region. The proliferation of rebel groups coincided with the exclusion of economic issues and instruments in the ongoing peace process which has so far failed to address the core issues. In fact the security dimensions of extremism often overshadowed development concerns of this resource rich region. The book attempts to analyse the sustaining force of state specific extremism without which any possible political solution will only remain a far cry. The Naga Nation and Its Struggle Against Genocide International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs, 1986.

AFSPA & Human Rights Violation: Analytical findings of Ukhrul District, Manipur. Dr. Depend kazingmei, 2024-02-20. This book is centered on understanding public sentiment with a primary emphasis on formulating constructive solutions derived from input provided by various stakeholders and civil society organizations. Unfortunately Ukhrul district was considered a disturbed area even before AFSPA was imposed in the whole state of Manipur on 8th September 1980. The fact is even if there is peace and harmony in the state it is always considered disturbed due to hostility. Taking advantage of this gross human rights violations have been committed for decades. Several protests and rallies have been staged but have gone unnoticed by the Central and State governments leaving much agitation and protests in vain. The overarching goal of this book is to foster a deeper understanding between the Armed Forces and the residents of Ukhrul with a concurrent emphasis on making positive contributions to enhance the overall well being of the state of Manipur. Nagas' Rights to Self Determination Reisang Vashum, 2000. Predominantly on historical account of the Naga's movement for their right to self determination. Minority Nationalisms in South Asia Tanweer Fazal, 2013-10-18. South Asia is the theatre of myriad experimentations with nationalisms of various kinds: religious, linguistic, religious-linguistic, composite, plural and exclusivist. In all the region's major states, officially promulgated nationalism at various times has been fiercely contested by minority groups intent on preserving what they see as the pristine purity of their own cultural inheritance. This volume examines the perspective of minority identities as they negotiate their terms of co-existence, accommodation and adaptation with several other competing identities within the framework of the nation-state in South Asia. It examines three different kinds of minority articulations: cultural enclaves with real or fictitious attachments to an imaginary homeland; the identity problems of dispersed minorities with no territorial claims; and the aspirations of indigenous communities, tribes or ethnicities. The essays in this volume offer a rich menu: the evolution of Naga nationalism; the construction of the territory-less Sylheti
