STRUGGLETOWN JANET. MCCALMAN,2022 Struggletown Janet McCalman,2021-02-02 The old Struggletowners if they could see it now would not believe their eyes In Struggletown Janet McCalman takes us into the inner city industrial working class suburb of Richmond in Melbourne before the gentrification of the 1970s This is a narrative richly informed by the voices and memories of those who lived there during this time the Struggletowners themselves as well as by McCalman s familiarity with the objects buildings and topography of their physical environment and her impressive awareness of larger social forces structures and patterns As urban life continues to develop in new directions and complex human and political relations suggest new futures the difficulty and necessity of remembering now also lends this classic work a palpable new relevance

The Women of Little Lon Barbara Minchinton,2021-08-16 A vivid account of a remarkable but little known chapter in Melbourne s history Sex workers in nineteenth century Melbourne were judged morally corrupt by the respectable world around them But theirs was a thriving trade with links to the police and political leaders of the day and the leading brothels were usually managed by women While today a city lane is famously named after Madame Brussels the identities of the other flash madams the dressed girls who worked for them and the hundreds of women who solicited on the streets of the Little Lon district of Melbourne are not remembered Who were they What did their daily lives look like What became of them Drawing on the findings of recent archaeological excavations rare archival material and family records historian Barbara Minchinton brings the fascinating world of Little Lon to life Barbara Minchinton is a historian and independent researcher For several years she collaborated with a team of archaeologists on the interpretation of artefacts from Melbourne s Little Lon district She is the co editor of The Commonwealth Block Melbourne a historical archaeology of the city s working class and immigrant communities and the author of The Women of Little Lon

Becoming a mother Carla Pascoe Leahy,2023-04-04 Becoming a mother charts the diverse and complex history of Australian mothering for the first time exposing the ways it has been both connected to and distinct from parallel developments in other industrialised societies In many respects the historical context in which Australian women come to motherhood has changed dramatically since 1945 And yet examination of the memories of multiple maternal generations reveals surprising continuities in the emotions and experiences of first time motherhood Drawing upon interdisciplinary insights from anthropology history psychology and sociology Carla Pascoe Leahy unpacks this multifaceted rite of passage through more than 60 oral history interviews demonstrating how maternal memories continue to influence motherhood today Despite radical shifts in understandings of gender care and subjectivity becoming a mother remains one of the most personally and culturally significant moments in a woman s life

Sex Crimes in the Fifties Lisa Featherstone,Amanda Kaladelfos,2016-07-18 The Australian Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse 2013 2017 has given national consciousness to the problematic treatment of sexual offences in Australia s past Yet there has been little historical research into the policing prosecution and punishment of those crimes This book examines Australia's treatment of sexual crimes in the 1950s a decade well known for its political and social conservatism its prudish views on morality and its prescriptive gender roles for men and women Fewer would know that this same decade saw soaring arrests mounting criminal prosecutions and intensifying public debates about how to deal with sexual offenders Or that sexual offences on children attracted the most concentrated state attention and public concern Sex Crimes in the Fifties uncovers this new history by drawing on transcripts of hundreds of criminal proceedings and extensive research in criminal justice archives We examine the criminal trial itself exploring how prosecutors defence counsel witnesses juries and judges understood sexual crimes We consider the experience of women testifying in rape trials the prosecution of sexual crimes against children the court's treatment of recent immigrants the prosecution and punishment of homosexual men the influence of psychiatric evidence and the increasing public debates over the sex offender We show that the 1950s was indeed foundational to many of our contemporary beliefs about sexual crimes This book makes a major contribution to our historical and socio legal knowledge about sexual offences and criminal prosecution It will be of interest to historians criminologists sociologists and legal scholars as well as general readers interested in the treatment of these crimes in our past

Sex and Suffering Janet McCalman, 2012-11-27 Sex and Suffering is a ground breaking work It tells the often shocking story of women's desperation to gain control over their lives and their health and of medicine's struggle to comprehend and manage the mysteries of nature It offers a graphic and revealing history of childbirth in Australia of the medical care of women of nursing and gender roles and of the impact of immigration on Australian society Remarkably thousands of detailed case notes from the 1850s to the 1930s survived intact at the Royal Women's Hospital Melbourne For the first time in the English speaking world a historian was allowed to work directly from these confidential patient records Janet McCalman vividly recreates the lives of patients and the daily work of a hospital She enables readers to follow the institution through times of growth and economic depression through the grim history of criminal abortion and through the inspiring story of medical science and surgery since the coming of anaesthesia Sex and Suffering is a vivid and absorbing social history of women's health seen through the work of Australia's oldest women's hospital

Old Age in Australia Pat Jalland, 2015-01-05 The Australian population is rapidly getting older demanding important policy and service decisions This groundbreaking book is the first to explore a 100 year history of older people in Australia from 1880 to 1980 Over that period the aged suffered as forgotten people until 1945 when there was the promise of a new deal for the elderly Major themes examined include family histories of aged care poverty social and medical policy gender the impact of wars and economic depression housing nursing homes and the retirement debates Old Age in Australia provides essential historical context for current discussions about the implications of ageing in Australia

Big White Lie John Fitzgerald, 2007 This book pays attention to Chinese migration patterns debates social organisations and their business and religious lives and shows that they had every right to be counted as Australians even in White Australia

The book's focus provides a refreshing new perspective on the important role the Chinese have played in Australia's past

'The Right Thing to Read' Bronwyn Lowe, 2018-03-09 The Right Thing to Read A History of Australian Girl Readers 1910-1960 explores the reading habits, identity and construction of femininity of Australian girls aged between ten and fourteen from 1910 to 1960. It investigates changing notions of Australian girlhood across the period and explores the ways that parents, teachers, educators, journalists and politicians attempted to mitigate concerns about girls' development through the promotion of healthy literature. The book also addresses the influence of British publishers on Australian girl readers and the growing importance of Australian publishers throughout the period. It considers the rise of Australian literary nationalism in the global context and the increasing prominence of Australian literature in the period after the Second World War. It also shows how access to reading material improved for girls over the first half of the last century. The A to Z of Australia

James C. Docherty, 2010-04-01 The last continent to be claimed by Europeans, Australia began to be settled by the British in 1788 in the form of a jail for its convicts. While British culture has had the largest influence on the country and its presence can be seen everywhere, the British were not Australia's original populace. The first inhabitants of Australia, the Aborigines, are believed to have migrated from Southeast Asia into northern Australia as early as 60,000 years ago. This distinctive blend of vastly different cultures contributed to the ease with which Australia has become one of the world's most successful immigrant nations. The A to Z of Australia relates the history of this unique and beautiful land, which is home to an amazing range of flora and fauna, a climate that ranges from tropical forests to arid deserts, and the largest single collection of coral reefs and islands in the world. Through a detailed chronology, an introduction, appendixes, a bibliography, and cross-referenced dictionary entries on some of the more significant persons, places, and events, institutions and organizations, and political, economic, social, cultural, and religious facets, author James Docherty provides a much-needed single-volume reference on Australia from its most unpromising of beginnings as a British jail to the liberal, tolerant democracy it is today.

Communism in Australia Beverley Symons, 1994 This bibliography covers the 70 years of existence of the Communist Party in Australia. The material listed relates not only to the CPA but to its allied and breakaway movements from 1920 to 1991. Contains over 3400 references and includes a name index. Writing Women's History Karen M. Offen, Ruth Roach Pierson, Jane Rendall, 1991-08-23 Five essays address such themes as the relationship between feminist history and women's history, the use of the concept of experience, the development of the history of gender, demographic history and women's history, and the importance of post-structuralism to women's history. Merger William Westerman, 2021-06-01 In 1996 the 113-year-old Fitzroy Football Club played its final game in the AFL. Financial pressures brought about by the steady professionalisation of the AFL respected neither the worth of the club's history nor the passion of its fans. Out of time and money on 4 July 1996 Fitzroy was forced into a merger with the Brisbane Bears, creating the League's first and thus far only merged club. MERGER tells the story of that fateful year from boardroom drama and intrigue to the wind and mud of the

Whitten Oval capturing the profound tragedy of Fitzroy's doomed plight The demise of Fitzroy is a deep wound rather than a scar A tear in the fabric of the game that will never truly repair from the Foreword by Gerard Whateley New Learning Mary Kalantzis, Bill Cope, 2012-06-29 Fully updated and revised the second edition of New Learning explores the contemporary debates and challenges in education and considers how schools can prepare their students for the future New Learning Second Edition is an inspiring and comprehensive resource for pre service and in service teachers alike The New Urban Frontier Lionel Frost, 1991 Explores changes in city density by comparing Melbourne Los Angeles Vancouver Auckland and other new frontier cities Includes a new interpretation of the effect of development on problems faced by frontier cities and a detailed bibliography The author lectures on economics and economic history at La Trobe University

Images of the Street Nicholas Fyfe, 2006-05-11 Images of the Street captures the vitality excitements and tensions of the street Using examples from the U K India Australia and North America the contributors draw on research in cultural geography sociology cultural studies and planning to explore the making and meaning of urban space Among the themes examined are 1 the way streetscapes are shaped by interplay between politics planning and local political economy 2 social differences of individuals experiences of the street 3 how social identities are shaped and represented in fiction and film 4 the meaning and significance of streets as settings to play out social practices 5 how social life is regulated on the street formerly by police and indirectly through architecture and urban design Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Insanity, identity and empire Catharine Coleborne, 2015-10-01 This book examines the formation of colonial social identities inside the institutions for the insane in Australia and New Zealand Taking a large sample of patient records it pays particular attention to gender ethnicity and class as categories of analysis reminding us of the varied journeys of immigrants to the colonies and of how and where they stopped for different reasons inside the social institutions of the period It is about their stories of mobility how these were told and produced inside institutions for the insane and how in the telling colonial identities were asserted and formed Having engaged with the structural imperatives of empire and with the varied imperial meanings of gender sexuality and medicine historians have considered the movements of travellers migrants military bodies and medical personnel and transnational lives This book examines an empire wide discourse of madness as part of this
