Stuccowork And Painting In Roman Italy:

Stuccowork and Painting in Roman Italy Roger Ling, 1999 This volume brings together Professor Ling's main papers on stuccowork and painting in Roman Italy work which over the last thirty years has made a major contribution to our understanding of Roman interior decoration It includes his studies on the origins of stucco decoration and of landscape painting and primary publications of stuccowork from Pozzuoli ancient Puteoli and Baia Also included are articles on iconographical themes such as the rape of Hylas and the mysterious cylinders which feature on athletics scenes The volume concludes with two recent papers one focusing on tomb chambers the other on dining rooms which probe the relation of paintings to their architectural and functional context

Materiality in Roman Art and Architecture Annette Haug, Adrian Hielscher, M. Taylor Lauritsen, 2021-12-31 The focus of this volume is on the aesthetics semantics and function of materials in Roman antiquity between the 2nd century B C and the 2nd century A D It includes contributions on both architectural spaces and their material design and objects types of artefacts that differ greatly in the way they were used perceived and loaded with cultural significance With respect to architecture the analysis of material aesthetics leads to a new understanding of the performance imitation and transformation of surfaces including the social meaning of such strategies In the case of objects surface treatments are equally important However object form a specific design category which can enter into tension with materiality comes into particular focus Only when materials are shaped do their various qualities emerge and these qualities are to a greater or lesser extent transferred to objects With a focus primarily on Roman Italy the papers in this volume underscore the importance of material design and highlight the awareness of this matter in the ancient world

Living Theatre in the Ancient Roman House Richard C. Beacham, Hugh Denard, 2023-01-12 For the Romans much of life was seen expressed and experienced as a form of theatre In their homes patrons performed the lead with a supporting cast of residents and visitors This sumptuously illustrated book the result of extensive interdisciplinary research is the first to investigate describe and show how ancient Roman houses and villas in their interior spaces activities and function could constitute highly theatricalised environments indeed a sort of living theatre Their layout purpose and use reflected and informed a culture in which theatre was both a major medium of entertainment and communication and an art form drawing upon myths exploring the core values and beliefs of society For elite Romans their homes as veritable stage sets served as visible and tangible expressions of their owners prestige importance and achievements The Roman home was a carefully crafted realm in which patrons displayed themselves while stage managing the behaviour and responses of visitor spectators

A Companion to Roman Art Barbara E. Borg, 2019-11-04 A Companion to Roman Art encompasses various artistic genres ancient contexts and modern approaches for a comprehensive guide to Roman art Offers comprehensive and original essays on the study of Roman art Contributions from distinguished scholars with unrivalled expertise covering a broad range of international approaches Focuses on the socio historical aspects of Roman art covering several topics that have not been presented in any detail in English Includes both close readings of individual art works and general discussions Provides an overview of main aspects of the subject and an introduction to current debates in the field Image Making in Byzantium, Sasanian Persia and the Early Muslim World Anthony Cutler, 2023-05-31 Relations between Byzantium and its neighbours are the focus of this volume The papers address questions of cultural exchange with special attention to art historical relations as shown by technical iconographic and diplomatic exchanges While addressed to specialists both their approach and the language make these papers accessible to students at all levels Courts and Courtiers in Renaissance Northern Italy Stephen Kolsky, 2023-05-31 The extraordinary cultural Renaissance in the northern Italian courts of the late 15th and early 16th centuries is the subject of this volume It starts with Baldessar Castiglione's Book of the Courtier 1528 which encapsulates this sense of renewal his experiences at court and their subsequent rewriting form the backbone of the work The author then addresses questions of biography gender genre and the varied roles of the courtier expanding the perspective of Castiglione's text to include the lives and writings of other courtiers and patrons What was it like to be a courtier What were the problems associated with such a lifestyle The importance of women in court circles is also highlighted in studies of one of the most notable of female patrons Isabella d'Este 1474-1539 and of the theoretical developments in writing about gender stimulated by such women Stephen Kolsky's analysis of both well known and comparatively obscure texts brings out the diversity of practices that constituted court society and their centrality to our understanding of the Renaissance Form, Style and Meaning in Byzantine Church Architecture Hans Buchwald, 2024-10-28 Using detailed analyses of individual buildings as a point of departure Professor Buchwald here examines various approaches to Byzantine architectural forms and raises questions concerning the use of stylistic and other forms of analysis One group of articles focuses on stylistic currents in Asia Minor including that of the 13th century Lascarid dynasty previously unknown Others explore methods which appear to have been used in the design of Byzantine churches such as dimensional rules of thumb modular and geometric systems of proportion and the quadratura hitherto recognised only in Western architecture The final essays pose further questions what were the goals and achievements of Byzantine architects when they transformed older existing buildings How and why did they use stereometric Euclidean geometry And was there any ultimately Platonic connection Later Byzantine Painting Robert S. Nelson, 2024-10-28 Written over nearly three decades the fifteen essays involve the three a's of the title art agency and appreciation The first refers to the general subject matter of the book Byzantine art chiefly painting of the twelfth through the fourteenth centuries the second to its often human like agency and the last to its historical reception Responding to different issues and perspectives that have animated art history and Byzantine studies in recent decades the essays have wide theoretical range from art historical formalism iconography archaeology and its manuscript equivalent codicology to statistics patronage narratology and the histories of science and collecting The series begins with art works themselves and with the imagery and iconography of church decoration and manuscript illumination shifts to the ways that objects act in the world and affect their beholders and concludes with more general appreciations of Byzantine art in case studies from the thirteenth century to the present Painting Music in the Sixteenth Century H. Colin Slim, 2024-10-28 Professor Slim deals here with the several roles that music can play in the artworks of the Renaissance looking in particular at Italian painting of the 16th century For understandable reasons art historians sometimes neglect the role of music and especially that of musical notation when studying works of art These studies not only identify musical compositions wholly or partially inscribed in paintings and tapestries ceramics prints as well but also seek reasons why these particular musical compositions were included and analyse their relevance to the scene depicted Furthermore as many of these studies show identifying a musical composition especially if it has a text leads to the formation of ideas about iconographical functions and thus augments interpretations of the visual art Edinburgh Companion to Ancient Greece and Rome Edward Bispham, 2006-07-24 The Edinburgh Companion newly available in paperback is a gateway to the fascinating worlds of ancient Greece and Rome Wide ranging in its approach it demonstrates the multifaceted nature of classical civilisation and enables readers to gain guidance in drawing together the perspectives and methods of different disciplines from philosophy to history from poetry to archaeology from art history to numismatics and many more Image and Imagination in Byzantine Art Henry Maguire, 2023-05-31 The twelve studies contained in this second collection by Henry Maguire are linked together by a common theme namely the relationship of Byzantine art to the imaginary They show how art enabled the Byzantines not only to imagine the sacred events of the past but also to visualize the invisible present by manifesting the spiritual world that they could not see The articles are grouped around the following five topics the depiction of nature by the Byzantines before and after iconoclasm especially in portrayals of the earthly and the spiritual Paradise the social functions and theological significance of classical artistic forms in Byzantine art after iconoclasm the association between rhetoric and the visual arts in Byzantium especially in contrast to the role played by liturgical drama in western medieval art the relationship of the visual arts to Byzantine concepts of justice and the law both human and divine and portrayals of the two Byzantine courts the imperial court on earth and the imagined court in heaven The papers cover a wide range of media including floor and wall mosaics paintings in manuscripts and churches ivory carvings coins and enamel work The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture Elise A Friedland, Melanie Grunow Sobocinski, Elaine Gazda, 2015-01-02 The study of Roman sculpture has been an essential part of the disciplines of Art History and Classics since the eighteenth century Famous works like the Laocoön the Arch of Titus and the colossal portrait of Constantine are familiar to millions Again and again scholars have returned to sculpture to answer questions about Roman art society and history Indeed the field of Roman sculptural studies encompasses not only the full chronological range of the Roman world but also its expansive geography and a variety of artistic media formats sizes and functions Exciting new theories methods and approaches have transformed the specialized literature on the subject in recent decades Rather than creating another chronological catalogue of representative examples from various periods genres and settings The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture synthesizes current best practices for studying this central medium of Roman art situating it within the larger fields of Art History Classical Archaeology and Roman Studies This comprehensive volume fills the gap between introductory textbooks and highly focused professional literature The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture conveniently presents new technical scientific literary and theoretical approaches to the study of Roman sculpture in one reference volume while simultaneously complementing textbooks and other publications that present well known works in the corpus The contributors to this volume address metropolitan and provincial material from the early republican period through late antiquity in an engaging and fresh style Authoritative innovative and up to date The Oxford Handbook of Roman Sculpture will remain an invaluable resource for years to come

Ancient Building Technology, Vol. 2: Materials G.R.H. Wright, 2023-03-20 This r sum study deals with building material which together with construction and structures forms one of the three aspects of building or equally one of the three factors which constitute the nature of a building Unlike existing manuals on ancient building this offers an analytic presentation and the subject matter extends across all ages and regions The treatment of materials is set out according to a paradigm of nature manufacture and use so as to facilitate direct comparison between different modes of the one material as also between different materials and between different building traditions This second part is published in two volumes the first containing texts the second more than 300 illustrations The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004140073

Structure in Architecture Rowland J. Mainstone, 2024-10-28 All buildings must stand An adequate structure was as necessary for the simplest primitive hut as it is for the tallest or widest spanning modern building However this requirement became more difficult to satisfy as designers became more adventurous and the experience already gained became less directly applicable The present papers look at the consequent evolution of design methods and the types of understanding that have been essential guides A particular focus is the question of how earlier innovations made without the benefits of modern theory were possible Other papers look in detail at the most outstanding of these achievements such as the church of Hagia Sophia in Istanbul and the dome of Florence Cathedral      Drawings of Roman Mosaics in the Topham Collection, Eton College Library Patricia Witts,2021 This book brings together over 70 prints and drawings from the collection of nearly 3 000 items formed by Richard Topham 1671 1730 Some are the only records of mosaics that no longer survive many are published here for the first time      Rome Stephen L. Dyson,2010-06-14 Stephen L Dyson has spent a lifetime studying and teaching the history of ancient Rome That unparalleled knowledge is reflected in his magisterial overview of the Eternal City Rather than look only at the physical development of the city its buildings monuments and urban spaces Dyson also explores its social economic and cultural histories This unique approach situates Rome against a background of comparative urban history and theory allowing Dyson to examine the dynamic society that once thrived there In his personal effort to reconstruct the city Dyson populates its streets with the hurried politicians hawking vendors and animated students that once lived worked and studied there bringing the ancient city to life for a new generation of students and tourists Dyson follows Rome as it developed between the third century BC and the fourth century AD dividing the great megalopolis into distinct neighborhoods and locales He shows how these communities each with its own unique customs and colorful inhabitants eventually grew into the great imperial capital of the Italian Empire Dyson integrates the full range of sources available literary artistic epigraphic and archaeological to create a comprehensive history of the monumental city In doing so he offers a dramatic picture of a complex and changing urban center that despite its flaws flourished for centuries      Hasmonean and Herodian Palaces at Jericho Ehud Netzer,2001      Roman Painting Roger Ling,1991-03-07 A general survey of Roman wall painting from the second century B C through the fourth century A D traces the origins chronological development subjects techniques and social context of the influential art form
