God's Property Nada Moumtaz, 2021-08-10 A free open access ebook is available upon publication Learn more at www.luminosoa.org Up to the twentieth century Islamic charitable endowments provided the material foundation of the Muslim world In Lebanon with the fall of the Ottoman Empire and the imposition of French colonial rule many of these endowments reverted to private property circulating in the marketplace In contemporary Beirut however charitable endowments have resurfaced as mosques Islamic centers and nonprofit organizations A historical anthropology in dialogue with Islamic law God's Property demonstrates how these endowments have been drawn into secular logics no longer the property of God but of the Muslim community and shaped by the modern state and modern understandings of charity and property Although these transformations have produced new kinds of loyalties and new ways of being in society Moumtaz's ethnography reveals the furtive persistence of endowment practices that perpetuate older ways of thinking of one's self and one's responsibilities toward family and state

God's Schools Melinda Bollar Wagner, 1990 Melinda Wagner goes beyond this stereotype to portray the way these schools foster American popular culture and professional education culture as well as Christian culture In her participant observation study of a variety of Christian schools sponsored by fundamentalist evangelical new charismatic Holiness and Pentecostal Christians Wagner describes and interprets how such compromises are made

Genesis 1-11 God Makes a Start Kevin Perrotta, Gerald Darring, 2010-06 Genesis 1-11 God Makes a Start is an excellent Bible study resource for teens wanting a better understanding of how and why God created the world and why the earliest events of the Bible should matter to us today The stories of Adam and Eve of their sons Cain and Abel of the people who provoked the flood and those who built the tower of Babel all of these stories display our human tendency to overstep our limits as creatures to take control of our lives apart from God to treat one another unjustly The Genesis accounts tell us that our unhappiness stems from our failure to trust and obey our creator Against this background Jesus life and death emerge as a deliberate reversal of the deep rooted human tendency to distrust and disobey God Designed as a guided discovery Six Weeks with the Bible for Catholic Teens introduces high school students to books of the Bible by integrating the biblical text with insightful questions to help youth discern what Scripture means for their lives today The series provides students with a clear explanation of Biblical text opportunities for prayer and a means to enter into conversation with God

Living in God's Providence: History of the Congregation of Divine Providence of San Antonio, Texas, 1943-2000 Mary Christine Morkovsky, CDP, 2009-06-29 In 1943 the bell attached to a rope on both floors of a plain box like convent in Houston Texas rang at 5 a m The nine Sisters of Divine Providence stationed at the grade school arose reciting aloud the traditional prayer that began Live Jesus in my heart My God I give you my heart Mercifully deign to receive it and grant that no creature shall possess it but Thou alone Continuing to pray aloud for five more minutes the Sisters who shared small bedrooms began to dress All had developed in their novitiate a rhythm for this process which launched each day in a uniform way Over 20 items of dress had to be donned in a certain order Before Morning Prayer at 5 25 in the small chapel on the first floor the Sisters also stripped their single beds flipped the thin mattresses and replaced the bed linens trying not to invade a companion's limited space Usually it was still dark outside when they started to recite morning prayers unique to the Congregation This was followed by chanting in Latin on one tone Matins Lauds Prime Tierce Sext and None from the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Then the superior read aloud some points for reflection and the Sisters meditated in silence for half an hour This was the first time of the day they had some relatively unstructured time and they sometimes experienced distractions Perhaps they planned how to teach something better or recalled problematic students At 6 30 one of the parish priests offered Mass which was followed by breakfast The Sisters ate in silence while one of them read passages from the Imitation of Christ By 8 a m they were leading their pupils across the playground to the children's daily Mass in the parish church In sharp contrast in 1990 Sister Mary Walter Gutowski CDP one of two Sisters living in a small apartment was the administrator of Our Lady of Guadalupe clinic for low income Latinos and African Americans in Rosenberg Texas Sister Walter who was credited with having delivered more than 3 000 babies under difficult rural circumstances once remarked When someone knocks at my door in the middle of the night I get dressed in two minutes flat because I never know what will be waiting for me outside 1 What explains this dramatic change of style and ritual in the routines of Catholic Sisters living in mission houses How did the Sisters move from cloisters to apartments How did the rigid routines of the nine Sisters of 1943 transmute into the singular and unstructured life of Sister Mary Walter What are the connections between the bell that rang at five in the morning and the one that sounded at any hour This history examines the period of 1943 to 2000 an era during which the Sisters of Divine Providence redefined their perspective and practices within the context of a changing American Catholic church It demonstrates that the Sisters were well situated to embrace the shifting demands of religious mission because their very heritage was grounded in ongoing transformations Those transformations were played out on a highly charged stage of oppression concerning multi racial relationships one that further prepared the Sisters for the intense dynamics of modern church life When the Sisters celebrated in 1966 the centennial of their arrival in Texas they were staffing their own college high schools and numerous grammar schools in several states as well as hospitals clinics and neighborhood centers They had incorporated a group of women from Mexico and encouraged the independence of a new Providence congregation in the U S Responding to Vatican encouragement after the second Vatican Council they began experiments to update structures and customs so as minister more effectively The most visible were in the areas of community living and governance and were accompanied by greater collegiality subsidiarity variety in prayer

Oberlin James Harris Fairchild,1883 The Islamic Law on Land Tax and Rent Baber Johansen,2016-11-10 This book first published in 1988 argues that a close inspection of the development of Hanafite law in the Mamluk and Ottoman periods reveals changes in legal doctrine which were not restricted to civil transactions but also concerned the public law It focuses in particular on the interrelated areas of property rent and taxation of arable lands arguing that changes in the relationship between tax and rent led to a redefinition of the concept of landed property a concept at the very heart of the Islamic legal system This title will be of particular interest to students of Islamic history
