English in Context , Motherhood Across Borders Gabrielle Oliveira,2018-07-24 While we have an incredible amount of statistical information about immigrants coming in and out of the United States we know very little about how migrant families stay together and raise their children Beyond the numbers what are the everyday experiences of families with members on both sides of the border Focusing on Mexican women who migrate to New York City and leave children behind this book examines parenting from afar as well as the ways in which separated siblings cope with different experiences across borders Drawing on more than three years of ethnographic research Gabrielle Oliveira offers a unique look at the many consequences of maternal migration Oliveira illuminates the life trajectories of separated siblings including their divergent paths and the everyday struggles that the undocumented mother may go through in order to be a good parent to all of her children no matter where they live Despite these efforts the book uncovers the far reaching effects of maternal migration that influence both the children who accompany their mothers to New York City and those who remain in Mexico

Learning Chinese in a Multilingual Space Peiru Tong,Linda Tsung,2022-05-25 This book examines the benefits of an Australian in country study ICS in China programme and explores ways to maximise the short term ICS experience in a multilingual space The book employs an ecological perspective which has seldom been used to examine the study abroad context It emphasises the importance of the space itself as an arena of interaction belonging and power where conduct and modes of communication are often regulated by political authorities and societal expectations Specifically the book focuses on the following the extent to which the ICS facilitated interaction in different settings the way in which interaction during ICS contributed to language learning the degree in which the interaction during ICS contributed to culture learning and the role of identity in the learning process in the ICS The main argument of the book is that while the ICS promoted multilingual learning space for in class and out of class interactions which further facilitated language and culture learning to a great extent Australian students identities and self concepts also played a core mediating role throughout individual learning
