Preaching Christ To All Nations

"For we preach not ourselves,
but Christ Jesus the Lord;
and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake."

Student Power In World Missions:

Student Power in World Missions David M. Howard, 1979

Student Power in World Evangelism David M.

Howard, 1970 When students decide to act things happen That s the history of missions For the missionary movement has had a tremendous vitality often sparked by students with worldwide vision David Howard shatters the image of a missionary as a wizened old man well over 30 that is wearing a pith helmet carrying a huge Bible and spouting ancient theology to a semi clad native rotting away with some dread tropical disease Such a caricature is well lost This book presents the biblical basis of missions a history of student power in world evangelism and an assessment of the task that faces today s student generation

World Mission (Combined Edition): Jonathan Lewis, 1994-06-01 Back by popular demand this work was originally three volumes in length but is now reprinted as a single volume This manual integrates essential and relevant articles from Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Reader and the Perspectives Study Guide leading the student into deeper broader mission understanding and vision by covering the Biblical historical foundations the strategic dimensions and cross cultural considerations

Student Mission Power Witner Ralph, 1979 A historical review of an 1891 missionary conference which became the model for succeeding conferences

The Changing Face of World Missions

(Encountering Mission) Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheenen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10-01 The dramatic changes that have taken place both in global society and in the church have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century These trends include the rise of postmodernism the spiritual decline in the West and the advance of the gospel in the rest of the world and the impact of technology on society and missions The Changing Face of World Missions is for the mission minded church leader or lay person who wants to understand these trends Each chapter identifies and evaluates a trend examines it in light of Scripture and proposes a practical response Important terms are defined and sidebars help readers think through the issues on their own

Missions Gailyn Van Rheenen, 2014-07-22 In a rapidly changing world the central missionary vision of the church must be constantly renewed lest its foundations become lost in the confusion of change or its practices trapped in missionary models of the past In this second edition of Missions long time missionary Gailyn Van Rheenen revises and updates his classic text on Christian missions laying sound theological and strategic foundations for the missionary of today and tomorrow Van Rheenen helps renew the missionary vision by discussing areas such as The history of Christian mission and how it affects where we are today Spiritual formation for God s mission The missionary cycle Cross cultural communication The character and calling of missionaries Types of missionaries Church maturation Selecting mission fields The role of money in missions Four levels of involvement in missions But Missions is more than blackboard theory Written by a long time missionary it carries the conviction and insights of one who has lived his subject Accessible to students practitioners and laypeople alike Missions provides a primary go to resource for understanding and becoming involved in the dynamic activity of world missions

Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest

Thomas P. Johnston, 2011-05-23 Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest addresses practical aspects of evangelism in the local church with the voices and views of nineteen current Southern Baptist professors of evangelism. They address important topics to local church evangelism such as Invitations with integrity and Preparing for Spiritual Warfare. Key leaders and professors write in their areas of expertise. For examples, Alvin Reid writes on Mobilizing Students, David Wheeler on Servant Evangelism, Josef Solc on Sports Evangelism, and Darrell Robinson on The Evangelist. In addition, the book begins and ends with two different applications of Matthew's Great Commission. Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest is a gold mine of information for both pastor and deacon as it is for students considering the importance of evangelism to local church ministry. It is fresh, new, and true as all of its authors teach at SBC affiliated schools and are grounded in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God.

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement (4th Edition) Ralph D. Winter, Steven C. Hawthorne, 2009-06-01 Perspectives on the World Christian Movement presents a multi-faceted collection of readings exploring the biblical, historical, cultural, and strategic dimensions of world evangelization. Writings from more than 150 mission scholars and practitioners, over 60 of them new to this edition, portray the history and anticipate the potential of the global Christian movement. Every one of the 170 articles and sidebars offers practical wisdom enabling Christians to labor together in bold biblical hope to finish the task of seeing that Christ is named and followed among all the peoples of the earth. The Fourth Edition contains over 60 articles and sidebars that are new to this edition. Many articles have been updated and revised.

40 Questions About the Great Commission Daniel L. Akin, George G. Robinson, Benjamin L. Merkle, 2020-01-28 Jesus' Great Commission is one of the key pillars of the church's evangelistic work and has been the guiding principle for missionaries throughout church history. In 40 Questions about the Great Commission, scholars Daniel Akin, Benjamin Merkle, and George Robinson unpack the meaning, history, theology, and practical applications of Jesus' command to go and make disciples. Ideal for personal or group study, this volume will reignite your passion for evangelism while answering key questions like: Where do we stand in relation to fulfilling the Great Commission? How do baptism and teaching relate to the Great Commission? What is the meaning of 'I am with you always' to the end of the age? How does the Old Testament relate to the Great Commission? What is the special contribution of each Gospel's version of the Great Commission? What is the responsibility of the local church to the Great Commission? What are some mobilization resources that can help churches and individuals to become Great Commission focused? Other highlights include an overview of some of the great evangelists and missionaries in church history and a collection of notable quotations on the Great Commission, ideal for teaching and preaching. 40 Questions About the Great Commission is an indispensable text for any pastor, professor, or student who cares about the Christian mission. In it, a biblical scholar, missiologist, and seminary president join forces to answer every question you've ever asked or never asked about our Lord's parting commission to his disciples. Substantive, lucid, and compelling.

Bruce Ashford, Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. The church has one job. It is called the Great Commission Every Christian soldier should know the who the what the why and the where of the marching orders left by our Lord and Commander in Chief and this book does just that in an engaging and encouraging way Read it and then get on with it James Merritt The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary This book is a succinct and at the same time wide ranging exposition of the commission of Jesus given to the disciples and thus to the church to proclaim the gospel far and wide The authors elucidate the meaning of key passages in Scripture and thus present the geographical scope the theological content and important historical parameters of the mission of the church This book deserves to be read by every Christian believer committed to the glory of God in all the world and to the proclamation of the gospel of Jesus Christ Eckhard J Schnabel Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary

TransforMission Michael S. Wilder, Shane W. Parker, 2010-05-01 Remarkably thirty percent of North American teenagers millions of people between the ages of 13 and 17 have engaged in religious missions or service projects Building on this statistic the authors of TransforMission believe that short term mission is one way God is taking the gospel to the nations and concurrently transforming the lives of these student participants Writing to youth ministers missiologists church leaders adult volunteers and post high school students they assess strategies for further promoting this kind of involvement by exploring several questions What mechanisms is God employing to achieve this advance in mission What is taking place in the lives of believers who are obediently participating in the fulfillment of the Great Commission What are the theological and theoretical foundations for the life transformation that is occurring What is the most effective means of conducting short term mission experiences Raising the Bar Alvin L. Reid, 2002 Two thirds of today s teens are interested in having a meaningful relationship with God yet less than one third of them are active in a local church These statistics indicate that it is time to change how the church does youth ministry and this compelling book provides an impassioned plea for the church to set higher standards for ministry to teens and their families

Mission Frontiers Volume 1 Ralph D. Winter, 2004

On Being a Missionary (Abridged) Thomas Hale, Gene Daniels, 2023-07-11 Adjusting to a New World Missionaries must adjust to new cultures learn languages work as a team maintain healthy relationships and discern best ministry practices Nothing can fully prepare a person for life as a missionary However for almost thirty years Thomas Hale s On Being a Missionary has helped to equip cross cultural workers to not only survive but thrive in their calling This abridged version of On Being a Missionary remains practical and accessible It addresses the new realities of the changing missionary force It also looks at the challenges of bonding with a new culture in an increasingly globalized and technologically connected world The book is written for everyone with an interest in missions whether the missionary on the field or the supporter at home It is written by learners for learners Drawing from years of experience the authors provide down to earth advice and perspective concerning the problems struggles and failures that missionaries often face At the same time this book exposes various myths related to missionary life Find out why a generation of mission workers has benefited from On Being a Missionary

Faith Seeking Action Gregory P. Leffel, 2007-06-01 In Faith Seeking

Action author Gregory Leffel links a description of the church as a global movement with a description of contemporary social movements that are actively challenging today's societies such as the environmental global justice and identity movements. Not surprisingly, Christian communities and communities of social activists share much in common as they each work to enrich their societies. It is natural then to ask what missionally concerned Christians may learn from social movements about the public role of their churches, the connection of their beliefs to social change and the mobilization of their people. It can also be asked how these often divided communities may find ways to collaborate around common actions rooted in such shared values as peace, justice, life and the integrity of the environment. Building on growing interest in the field of missiology and its missional church concept, Leffel has created a dialog between the church as a social actor and social movements. Along with introducing movement theory to mission studies, Leffel introduces a new way of addressing the issues involved in the church's engagement with society, a concept he calls missio ecclesiology. Of interest to those seeking vital ways to live out their faith in the world, missiologists, missional church leaders and street level workers alike, this work fuels fresh thinking about the church's role in cultural and social change.

Boundless Faith Robert Wuthnow, 2010-10-12 Robert Wuthnow shows that American Christianity is increasingly influenced by globalization and is in turn playing a larger role in other countries and in US policies and programmes abroad.

Historical Models of Christian Missions Robert Reese, 2023-09-28 Given that we are in a new era in the World Christian Movement when Christianity is practically no longer associated with any powerful nation, we can benefit from a survey of all major methods of Christian missions used in the past twenty centuries to see what works best in our time. The best template for current missions is the first three centuries of the spread of our faith.

On Being a Missionary Thomas Hale, 1995 Written for everyone with an interest in mission, this book will lead you to reconsider your role in the missionary enterprise. On Being a Missionary is not designed to be a theoretical textbook. It does not put forward new theses, new approaches to mission, nor does it attempt to break new ground. In a very readable way, the author presents the ideas, experiences and insights of over one hundred missionary writers. Publisher: Missionary Care Kelly S. O'Donnell, 1992 Topics include: Missionary care overview, Counseling and clinical care, Team development, Mission agencies, Future directions.

Biographical Dictionary of Christian Missions Gerald H. Anderson, 1999 The book also features cross references throughout, a bibliography accompanying each entry, an elaborate appendix listing biographies according to particular categories of interest and a comprehensive index.
