Using paintbrushes that have black paint on them. Could be trying to paint the "Niqab," which is a loose gown that covers all your body and a lot Muslim women wear it.

Men are shaping society and women

The posture of the several hands show how women are restricted by men and the lack of power she has over her self.

Did she intentionally make the piece realistic in hopes of depicting how evident this issue is in Kuwait?

Blue mask on the girls face- no freedom of expression for women. Just meant to look beautiful.

Similar colours on the hanging dolls to the girl, could be a representation on what is expected from women; to be elegant, colourful and emotionless.

No sense of ambiguity - intended to talk about how real this issue is within her society.

Black and white lines create this illusion of a prison like world

Colour palette is warm on the subject but cold in the background to emphasize on the subject

"Pretty Polly" - repetitive dolls could represent mass production; Industrialization of Kuwait

The dolls are also hanging from the men's hands, men control the women, shape the way they look, act etc.. Unachievable image of women

Balanced composition
Geometric shapes vs the rigid structures of the background
