Student Companion To Mark Twain:

Student Companion to Mark Twain David E. Sloane, 2001-06-30 Mark Twain's legacy is an extensive canon of writings that includes some of the most widely read, staged, debated, reinterpreted, and filmed works ever. This introductory critical study helps students and general readers appreciate the myriad perspectives of the man, his life, and his contributions to American literature. A fresh biographical account traces Twain's colorful life through his varied careers and adventures to his rise to national prominence as a writer of short stories to the creation of masterpieces like Adventures of Huckleberry Finn. Also examined are the thematic concerns, plot structure, character development, and historical background in the travel narratives, a selection of short stories, and Twain's novels. A lively biographical chapter is followed by a section on Mark Twain's career and contributions to American literature, which situates Twain within the traditions of American humor writings. A selection of Twain's early short stories and sketches are examined, followed by the personal travel narratives. A full chapter on each of the five novels examines their important literary components and also offers alternative critical perspectives. The final chapter surveys short writings from Twain's later years. A select bibliography cites sources for all of Twain's works, with numerous contemporary reviews and general criticism of individual and collected works. As a scholar of Twain's writings and of American humor, David Sloane's insightful analysis illuminates how Mark Twain managed to fuse his irreverent humor with his deep-seated concerns about humanity. Student Companion to Mark Twain Saileja Tripathi, 2017 Critical

This introductory study examines Hurston's contributions to that literary movement as well as her role as mediator between the black and white worlds in which she lived. Readers will appreciate the clear presentation of the biographical facts of her life as well as an overview of the issues and varying perceptions surrounding her literary achievements. A full chapter is devoted to analysing each of Hurston's major works of fiction: Jonah's Gourd Vine 1934, Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937, Moses, Man of the Mountain 1939, Seraph on the Suwanee 1948, as well as her short fiction and her fictionalized autobiography Dust Tracks on a Road 1942. For each of the works, plot, character development, themes, setting, and symbols are identified and discussed in clear, accessible language. An alternate critical perspective enhances the understanding of each of Hurston's full-length works. Contemporary reviews are cited in a bibliography which also helps students find further biographical and critical information on Zora Neale Hurston. Bloom's How to Write about Mark Twain R. redemption philosophical paradox and comparative studies of the Mysterious Stranger manuscripts All of these essays attest to the importance of this late work in Twain's canon whether considering how Twain's efforts at truth telling are premeditated and shaped by his own experiences tracing the biblical and religious influences that resonate in No 44 or exploring the text's psychological dimensions Several address its importance as a culminating work in which Twain's seemingly disjointed story lines coalesce in meaningful albeit not always satisfactory ways An afterword by Alan Gribben traces the critical history of the Mysterious Stranger manuscripts and the contributions of previous critics A wide ranging critical introduction and a comprehensive bibliography on the last century of scholarship bracket the contributions Close inspection of this multidimensional novel shows how Twain evolved as a self-conscious thinker and humorist and that he was a more conscious artist throughout his career than has been previously thought Centenary Reflections deepens our understanding of one of Twain's most misunderstood texts confirming that the author of No 44 was a pursuer of an elusive truth that was often as mysterious a stranger as Twain himself
