

Blackboard QM/QOLT Sample Course Template Guide

Quality Matters (QM) and Quality Online Learning and Teaching (QOLT) provides a systematic methodology for faculty to ensure that online, hybrid, and technology-enhanced face-to-face courses are well designed to support student success. The QM rubric and QOLT rubric provides a consistent framework for in-depth, collegial, formative (non-evaluative) review of courses.

As part of Cal State San Bernardino's efforts to promote quality online learning, a Blackboard course template was developed. The course template features pre-populated content to meet Cal State San Bernardino's specific policies, such as academic integrity, as well as placeholder content to be filled in by the instructor. All course content may be changed as needed to fit the teaching style of the instructor.

Designed to meet quality standards, the template provides the foundation for faculty to build a quality online course. To apply the Blackboard QM/QOLT sample course template to your own course, please fill out a service request form.
