The Anatomy Of A Hybrid A Study In Church State Relationships:

The Anatomy of a Hybrid Leonard Verduin, The Anatomy of a Hybrid Leonard Verduin, 1976 In the World, But Not of the World Andrew L. Fitz-Gibbon, 2000-01-01 In the World But Not of the World explores the threefold tension among Alasdair MacIntyre's prognosis for Western society, the desires of some for a social transformation with a Christian moral vision at the sacred centre and a baptist understanding of Christianity as essentially voluntary non-sacralist discipleship. Andrew Fitz-Gibbon uses five contemporary Christian social thinkers from different traditions as conversation partners. Through his examination of these thinkers, Fitz-Gibbon explores how the church may continue to truthfully narrate the Christian story in the midst of the moral tensions of late capitalist Western society. His creative conclusion is that the church at the beginning of the twenty-first century can move toward a resolution of the central tension of being in the world but not of the world through a synthesis of the believers' church tradition and an affirmation of communitarian liberal democracy.

Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and the Comparative Political Theology Dragos Stoica, 2025-02-15 Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and The Comparative Political Theology argues that Sayyid Qutb's radical critique of secular modernity, seen as a product of a great theft of sovereignty that usurps the monopoly of God over the entire world of creation, is not idiosyncratic or incoherent but a quintessential expression and an extreme type of a specific tradition of political theology that until now has been exclusively the province of the Western thought. Dragos Stoica claims that Sayyid Qutb's political theology of Hakimiyyah (God's Sovereignty) is better understood by integrating it in a wider context of the antimodern political theology. Thus throughout this book, he compares Qutb's critique of modernity with the Pakistani Islamist thinker Abu al-A'la Mawdudi (1903-1979), the Spanish Catholic counter-revolutionary political theologian Juan Donoso Cortés (1809-1853), as well as the Protestant political theologians Abraham Kuyper (1837-1920) and Rousas J. Rushdoony (1916-2001). This book employs a family resemblance cross-cultural comparative method and applies a cross-disciplinary analytical model that combines comparative political theology with critical discourse analysis. Employing these analytical instruments, this book compares Qutb and his counterparts via the category of anti-modern political theology more precisely through a set of shared antitheses organized around the master concept of God's Sovereignty. The ultimate objective is to augment the understanding of the Qutbian critique of secular modernity as an essential dimension of anti-modern political theology. Thus by recasting Sayyid Qutb as an essential Muslim political theologian of God's Sovereignty placed within a larger cross-cultural paradigm, this book contributes as well to the necessary process of decolonization of political theology.

Answers to Objections Source Book Heidi Heiks, 2015-12-14 This fourth volume, written by Heidi Heiks, is dedicated to the prophetic periods of Daniel and Revelation. A Jolly Folly? Allan J. Macdonald, 2017-08-02 Stop the war on Christmas This is a common Christian complaint directed toward those perceived to be secularizing the festive season However many Christians forget that the modern festive season was a secular invention and that the war on Christmas was initiated by their spiritual forefathers upon whose shoulders today's biblically sound churches stand Should then the Christian endorse Christmas with joy or reject it as folly If you hold to a Reformed theology is liberty of conscience a credible principle to employ in the endorsement of Christmas in public worship This book addresses these and other questions objectively acknowledging the arguments on both sides This thoughtfully illustrated book uses a historical framework to trace the evolution of Christmas from its ancient genesis into the modern era identifying the contexts and motives that shaped opinion and practice in the Protestant Church while also exposing as pure myth much that is often accepted as biblical fact Abounding with intriguing detail this book compels the reader to consider the negative effect Christmas has upon biblical doctrine and to contemplate the difficulties associated with the conclusion many arrive at namely that Christmas meets with the approval of the Lord Jesus Disavowing Constantine Nigel G.

Wright, 2007-01-01 Disavowing Constantine draws upon the work of two highly influential modern theologians Jürgen Moltmann and John Howard Yoder to develop an independent and constructive understanding of the relation of the church to the state Its aim is to restate for modern understanding the insights of the Believers Church tradition and to work out their implications for Christian participation in the civil order In this complex realm positive insights are located in traditions usually regarded as incompatible but the thesis of the book concerns disavowing Constantine renouncing the reliance of the church upon coercive power to further its mission in order to rediscover how a faithful church might nonetheless participate as a witness within the power structures of human society Faith and Politics After Christendom Jonathan

Bartley, 2013-08-01 This groundbreaking book examines the anarchic aspects of Jesus message and suggests that the demise of the church as pillar of social order gives it a fresh opportunity to exercise its prophetic role challenging injustice shaking institutions and undermining some of the central values and norms on which post Christian society is built The Political
