The Ancient City Its Concept And Expression:

The Ancient City Karelisa Hartigan,1983   From Doxiadis' Theory to Pikionis' Work Kostas Tsiambaos,2017-09-22 In this book Tsiambaos redefines the ground breaking theory of Greek architect and town planner Constantinos A Doxiadis The Form of Space in Ancient Greece and moves his thesis away from antiquity and ancient architecture instead arguing that it can only be understood as a theory founded in modernity In light of this the author explores Doxiadis theory in relation to the work of the controversial Greek architect Dimitris Pikionis This parallel investigation of the philosophical content of Doxiadis theory and the design principles of Pikionis work establishes a new frame of reference and creates a valuable and original interpretation of their work Using innovative cross disciplinary tools and methods which expand the historical boundaries of interwar modernism the book restructures the ground of an alternative modernity that looks towards the future through a mirror that reflects the ancient past From Doxiadis Theory to Pikionis Work Reflections of Antiquity in Modern Architecture is fascinating reading for all scholars and students with an interest in modernism and antiquity the history and theory of architecture the history of ideas and aesthetics or town planning theory and design   The New Jerusalem in the Revelation of John Bruce J. Malina,2000 There are two major entities at the close of the book of Revelation that explain the author s understanding of forthcoming life with God the Celestial City the heavenly Jerusalem and the cosmic Lamb The marriage of these two marks the concluding highpoint of John the Seer s work What are the entities in question How do they marry and what is the significance of that event for those who believe in Jesus as cosmic Lord In The New Jerusalem in the Revelation of John Bruce Malina offers insights into the concluding Vision of the book of Revelation to assist Bible readers to understand what the Visionary of Revelation said and meant to say to his first century Mediterranean audience The New Jerusalem and the Revelation of John sets out comparative models of what sorts of cities existed during the time of the New Testament and what it meant to live in an ancient Mediterranean city It further explains the significance of the celestial marriage of the City and the Lamb The result is a set of reading scenarios that describe and explain Revelation s closing Visions which mediate the theology of John the Seer The definition and comparative model of the city in The New Jerusalem and the Revelation of John is also useful for persons interested in understanding those first urban members of Jesus groups addressed by other New Testament documents Chapters are Presuppositions about Language and Reading The Genre of the Book of Revelation The Holy City in the Sky and The Cosmic Lamb Marries Includes relevant charts Bruce J Malina STD is professor of biblical studies at Creighton University He is former president of the Catholic Biblical Association and author of articles on biblical interpretation   Ancient City Planning Everett Sinclair,AI,2025-03-04 Ancient City Planning explores the foundational urban designs of ancient civilizations particularly focusing on the Roman Empire and Babylonian societies to uncover how their innovations shaped modern urban landscapes The book reveals how ancient city planning wasn t rudimentary but a sophisticated system designed to facilitate social economic and political life For example the Roman grid system initially developed for military purposes was ingeniously adapted for civilian use enhancing spatial organization and movement Similarly Babylon s layout influenced by the Euphrates River highlights the importance of natural resources in urban development history The book begins by introducing core urban design concepts like spatial organization and infrastructure development It then delves into specific examples from Rome and Babylon examining their unique approaches By analyzing archaeological findings historical texts and architectural plans Ancient City Planning offers a comparative analysis highlighting both the similarities and differences in urban development history The book progresses by investigating Roman infrastructure such as aqueducts and public spaces like forums linking them to public health and social life It also explores the significance of Babylonian ziggurats palaces and the Code of Hammurabi Ultimately the book emphasizes the enduring relevance of ancient urbanism to contemporary urban challenges such as sustainability and social equity HCI International 2024 Posters Constantine Stephanidis,Margherita Antona,Stavroula Ntoa,Gavriel Salvendy,2024-06-07 The seven volume set CCIS 2114 2120 contains the extended abstracts of the posters presented during the 26th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2024 held in Washington DC USA during June 29 July 4 2024 The total of 1271 papers and 309 posters included in the HCII 2024 proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from 5108 submissions The posters presented in these seven volumes are organized in the following topical sections Part I HCI Design Theories Methods Tools and Case Studies User Experience Evaluation Methods and Case Studies Emotions in HCI Human Robot Interaction Part II Inclusive Designs and Applications Aging and Technology Part III eXtended Reality and the Metaverse Interacting with Cultural Heritage Art and Creativity Part IV HCI in Learning and Education HCI in Games Part V HCI in Business and Marketing HCI in Mobility and Automated Driving HCI in Psychotherapy and Mental Health Part VI Interacting with the Web Social Media and Digital Services Interaction in the Museum HCI in Healthcare Part VII AI Algorithms and Tools in HCI Interacting with Large Language Models and Generative AI Interacting in Intelligent Environments HCI in Complex Industrial Environments 5000 Years of Popular Culture Fred E. H. Schroeder,1980 This collection of insightful essays by outstanding artists anthropologists historians classicists and humanists was developed to broaden the study of popular culture and to provide instances of original and innovative interdisciplinary approaches Its first purpose is to broaden the study of popular culture which is too often regarded in the academic world as the entertainment and leisure time activities of the 20th century Second the collection gives recognition to the fact that a number of disciplines have been investigating popular phenomena on different fronts and it is designed to bring examples of these disciplines together under the common rubric of popular culture Related to this is a third purpose of providing instances of original and innovative interdisciplinary approaches Last the collection should be a worthwhile contribution to the component disciplines as well as to the study of popular culture An Inventory of Archaic and Classical Poleis Mogens Herman Hansen,Thomas Heine Nielsen,Københavns universitet. Polis centret,2004-11-11 This is the first ever documented study of the 1 035 identifiable Greek city states poleis of the Archaic and Classical periods c 650 325 BC Previous studies of the Greek polis have focused on Athens and Sparta and the result has been a view of Greek society dominated by Sophokles Plato s and Demosthenes view of what the polis was This study includes descriptions of Athens and Sparta but its main purpose is to explore the history andorganization of the thousand other city states The main part of the book is a regionally organized inventory of all identifiable poleis covering the Greek world from Spain to the Caucasus and from the Crimea to Libya This inventory is the work of 47 specialists and is divided into 46 chapters each covering a region Each chapter contains an account of the region a list of second order settlements and an alphabetically ordered description of the poleis This description covers such topics as polis status territory settlement pattern urban centre city walls and monumental architecture population military strength constitution alliance membership colonization coinage and Panhellenic victors The first part of the book is a description of the method and principles applied in the construction of the inventory and an analysis of some of the results to be obtained by a comparative study of the 1 035 poleis included in it The ancient Greek concept of polis is distinguished from the modern term city state which historians use to cover many other historic civilizations from ancient Sumeria to the West African cultures absorbed by the nineteenth century colonializingpowers The focus of this project is what the Greeks themselves considered a polis to be HCI International 2023 Posters Constantine Stephanidis,Margherita Antona,Stavroula Ntoa,Gavriel Salvendy,2023-07-08 The five volume set CCIS 1832 1836 contains the extended abstracts of the posters presented during the 25th International Conference on Human Computer Interaction HCII 2023 which was held as a hybrid event in Copenhagen Denmark in July 2023 The total of 1578 papers and 396 posters included in the 47 HCII 2023 proceedings volumes were carefully reviewed and selected from the 7472 contributions The posters presented in these five volumes are organized in topical sections as follows Part I HCI Design Theoretical Approaches Methods and Case Studies Multimodality and Novel Interaction Techniques and Devices Perception and Cognition in Interaction Ethics Transparency and Trust in HCI User Experience and Technology Acceptance Studies Part II Supporting Health Psychological Wellbeing and Fitness Design for All Accessibility and Rehabilitation Technologies Interactive Technologies for the Aging Population Part III Interacting with Data Information and Knowledge Learning and Training Technologies Interacting with Cultural Heritage and Art Part IV Social Media Design User Experiences and Content Analysis Advances in eGovernment Services eCommerce Mobile Commerce and Digital Marketing Design and Customer Behavior Designing and Developing Intelligent Green Environments Smart Product Design Part V Driving Support and Experiences in Automated Vehicles eXtended Reality Design Interaction Techniques User Experience and Novel Applications Applications of AI Technologies in HCI Small Places, Operatic Issues Lia Lola V. Kotnik,2019-03-29 This book details original case studies that represent five different social positions or characterisations of opera namely opera as social showcase from Bayreuth 1748 social distinction from Ljubljana 1887 social conflict from Brno

1920 social status from Mantua 1999 and social manifest from Belgrade 2005 These positions which indicate opera s social diversity in local regional provincial and peripheral terms as well as its social mutuality in international transnational global or metropolitan terms generally promote the idea of opera as a social venue cultural practice theatrical scene lyrical site musical place artistic experience or transgenerational phenomenon through which people not only produce and consume the art of music theatre and spectacle but also show off their lifestyle as well as economic social cultural and symbolic determination identification and structuration The selected case studies of peripheral opera worlds are different in terms of the chosen places times and problems they tackle but they all have something meaningful in common They convincingly address the idea that opera peripheries produce compellingly powerful meanings and messages of their different social worlds Through its analysis this book creates a fruitful interpretative encounter of the academic domains of opera studies historical sociology cultural sociology and social and cultural anthropology Law, Labour and the Humanities Tiziano Toracca,Angela Condello,2019-10-28 The ontology of work and the economics of value underpin the legal institution with the existence of modern law predicated upon the subject as labourer In contemporary Europe labour is more than a mere economic relationship Indeed labour occupies a central position in human existence since the industrial revolution it has been the principal criterion of reciprocal recognition and of universal mobilization This multi disciplinary volume analyses labour and its depictions in their interaction with the latest legal socio economic political and artistic tendencies Addressing such issues as deregulation flexibility de industrialization the pervasive enlargement of markets digitization and virtual relationships social polarisation and migratory fluxes this volume engages with the existential role played by labour in our lives at the conjunction of law and the humanities This book will be of interest to law students legal philosophers theoretical philosophers political philosophers social and political theorists labour studies scholars and literature and film scholars

Reclaiming the first century as common ground rather than the origin of deeply entrenched differences liberating the past to speak to us in another way Conventional readings of antiquity cast Athens against Jerusalem with Athens standing in for reason and Jerusalem for faith And yet Susan Buck Morss reminds us recent scholarship has overturned this separation Naming the first century as a zero point year one that divides time into before and after is equally arbirtrary nothing more than a convenience that is empirically meaningless In YEAR 1 Buck Morss liberates the first century so it can speak to us in another way reclaiming it as common ground rather than the origin of deeply entrenched differences Buck Morss aims to topple various conceptual givens that have shaped modernity as an episteme and led us into some unhelpful postmodern impasses She approaches the first century through the writings of three thinkers often marginalized in current discourse Flavius Josephus historian of the Judaean War the neo Platonic philosopher Philo of Alexandria and John of Patmos author of Revelation the last book of the Christian Bible Also making appearances are Antigone and John Coltrane Plato and Bulwer Lytton al Farabi and Jean Anouilh Nicholas of Cusa and Zora Neale Hurston not to mention Descartes Kant Hegel Kristeva and Derrida Buck Morss shows that we need no longer partition history as if it were a homeless child in need of the protective wisdom of Solomon Those inhabiting the first century belong together in time and therefore not to us
