

THE ANIMAL CONNECTION
JEAN-YVES DOMALAIN

A photograph of a tiger in a wooden enclosure, likely a zoo or sanctuary, set in a lush, green jungle environment. The tiger is the central focus, looking towards the left. The enclosure is made of vertical wooden posts and horizontal beams. The background is filled with dense tropical foliage and trees.

The Animal Connection Jean Yves Domalain,1978-01-01 The Animal Connection Jean-Yves Domalain,1978 The Boundless Circle Michael W. Fox,1996 Veterinarian Dr Michael Fox examines religion s attitude especially Christianity toward the treatment of animals and nature Fox argues that the world s ecological salvation lies in embracing panentheism the seed idea within the mystical tradition of all major religions a philosophy which unlike pantheism states that it is not God that inhabits the world but the world that inhabits God Wildlife Trafficking Tanya Wyatt,2021-10-20 This book provides a comprehensive global exploration of the scale scope threats and drivers of wildlife trafficking from a criminological perspective Building on the first edition it takes into account the significant changes in the international context surrounding these issues since 2013 It provides new examples updated statistics and discusses the potential changes arising as a result of COVID 19 and the IPBES 2019 report It also discusses the shift in trafficking hotspots and the recent projects that have challenged responses to wildlife trafficking It undertakes a distinctive exploration of who the victims and offenders of wildlife trafficking are as well as analysing the stakeholders who are involved in collaborative efforts to end this devastating green crime It unpacks the security implications of wildlife trade and trafficking and possible responses and ways to combat it It provides useful and timely information for social and environmental life scientists law enforcement NGOs and policy makers

The Illegal Wildlife Trade Daan P. van Uhm,2016-11-15 In this book the author examines the illegal wildlife trade from multiple perspectives the historical context the impact on the environment the scope of the problem internationally the sociocultural demand for illegal products the legal efforts to combat it and several case studies from inside the trade The illegal wildlife trade has become a global criminal enterprise following in the footsteps of drugs and weapons Beyond the environmental impact financial profits from the illegal wildlife trade often fund organized crime groups and violent gangs that threaten public safety and security in myriad ways This innovative volume covers several key questions surrounding the wildlife trade why is there a demand for illegal wildlife products which actors are involved in the trade how is the business organized and what are the harmful consequences The author performed ethnographic fieldwork in three key markets Russia Morocco and China and has constructed a detailed picture of how the wildlife trade operates in these areas Conversations with informants directly involved in the illegal business ensure unique insights into this lively black market In the course of his journey the author follows the route of the illegal wildlife trade from poor poaching areas to rich business districts where corrupt officials legally registered companies wildlife farms and sophisticated criminal organizations all have a share A fascinating look inside the world of poachers smugglers and traders Ethics and Animals Harlan B. Miller,William H. Williams,2012-12-06 This volume is a collection of essays concerned with the morality of human treatment of nonhuman animals The contributors take very different approaches to their topics and come to widely divergent conclusions The goal of the volume as a whole is to shed a brighter light upon an aspect of human life our relations with the other animals that has recently seen a great increase in interest and in the generation of heat The discussions and debates contained herein are addressed by the contributors to each other to the general public and to the academic world especially the biological philosophical and political parts of that world The essays are organized into eight sections by topics each section beginning with a brief introduction linking the papers and the sections to one another There is also a general introduction and an Epilog that suggests alternate possible ways of organizing the material The first two sections are concerned with the place of animals in the human world Section I with the ways humans view animals in literature philosophy and other parts of human culture and Section II with the place of animals in human legal and moral community The next three sections concern comparisons between human and nonhuman animals Section III on the rights and wrongs of killing Section IV on the humanity of animals and the animality of humans and Section V on questions of the conflict of human and animal interests

Visions of Caliban Dale Peterson, Jane Goodall, 2000 The authors use Shakespeare's Tempest as a metaphor for the relationship between people and chimps exploring the very human aspects of this remarkable species Original The Case for Animal Experimentation Michael Allen Fox, 1986-01-01 Discusses animal rights and the morality of animal experiments suggests ethical guidelines for the use of animals as test subjects and identifies irrational attitudes towards animals
