The Appearances Of Medieval Ritual The Play Of Construction And Modification Disputatio:

The Appearances of Medieval Rituals Nils Holger Petersen, 2004 Appearances can be deceptive and medieval ritual practices are in this respect no exception They perform stability through the codification of repetitive modes of behaviour and simultaneously admit flexibility in their integration of newer forms of representation They mask the historical contingencies of their own creation and construct alternative narratives of authority and continuity They do not simply appear their appearance reflects the mutual interplay of construction and modification This collection of eleven essays which chronologically spans the period from the Carolingians to the Catholic Reform movement of the later sixteenth century explores this double edged potential in the appearance of medieval ritual practices and in this case chiefly church rituals It comprises a series of individual studies by scholars of literature theology music and the visual arts Each study examines a particular moment of change or transformation in ritual practices illuminating thereby processes of ritualization In this way the book both provides an impulse to the recent renewal of methodological interest in ritual studies and presents individual contributions to specific scholarly discourses within this broad area Manuscripts and Performances in Religions, Arts, and Sciences Antonella Brita, Janina Karolewski, Matthieu Husson, Laure Miolo, Hanna Wimmer, 2023-12-04 Throughout history manuscripts have been made and used for religious artistic and scientific performances and this practice continues in most cultures today By focusing on the role manuscripts have in different kinds of performances this volume contributes to the evolving field of investigating written artefacts and their functions The collected essays regard manuscripts as points of intersection where textual material and performative aspects converge The contributors analyse manuscripts in their forms and functions as well as their positioning in the performances for which they were made These aspects unfold across the volume s three sections examining how manuscripts are 1 used backstage for preparing and giving instructions for performances 2 taken onstage contributing to the enactment of performances and 3 performers in their own right producing an effect on the audience The diversified interdisciplinary and innovative methodologies of the included papers carry great potential to expand the traditional approaches of manuscript studies and find application outside the contributors respective fields Trafficking with Demons Martha Rampton, 2022-01-15 Trafficking with Demons explores how magic was perceived practiced and prohibited in western Europe during the first millennium CE Through the overlapping frameworks of religion ritual and gender Martha Rampton connects early Christian reckonings with pagan magic to later doctrines and dogmas Challenging established views on the role of women in ritual magic during this period Rampton provides a new narrative of the ways in which magic was embedded within the foundational assumptions of western European society informing how people understood the cosmos divinity and their own Christian faith As Rampton shows throughout the first Christian millennium magic was thought to play a natural role within the functioning of the universe and existed within a rational cosmos hierarchically arranged according to a great chain of being Trafficking with the demons of the lower air was the essence of magic Interactions with those demons occurred both in highly formalistic ritual settings and on a routine and casual basis Rampton tracks the competition between pagan magic and Christian belief from the first century CE when it was fiercest through the early Middle Ages as atavistic forms of magic mutated and found sanctuary in the daily habits of the converted peoples and new paganisms entered Europe with their own forms of magic By the year 1000 she concludes many forms of magic had been tamed and were by the reckoning of the elite essentially ineffective as were the women who practiced it and the rituals that attended it

Law and Theology in

Twelfth-century England Jason Taliadoros, 2006 This book explores the legal and theological thought of Master Vacarius c 1115-20 c 1200 the renowned twelfth century jurist It focuses on this Italian master's four works composed in the second half of the twelfth century which deal with the resolution of conflict in law and theology Vacarius is a paradox for scholars They have found it difficult to reconcile his role as a legal teacher notably through his textbook the Liber pauperum Book of the Poor which established a school of Roman law at Oxford with his extra legal works on marriage Christology and heretical theology This study accounts for this paradox by exploring these three extra legal treatises composed in the 1160s and 1170s in light of Vacarius legal textbook The author argues that Vacarius applies the legal method of the ius commune European common law to theological and sacramental debates In this way Vacarius represents a trend in medieval intellectual history particular to the twelfth century renaissance which has been little appreciated to date the hermeneutic of the lawyer theologian

The World of Marsilius of Padua Gerson Moreno-Riaño, 2006 Perhaps no author of the Latin Middle Ages has been the subject of so much controversy and even vitriol than Marsilius of Padua ca 1275-1342/43 As author of the notorious heretical tract the Defensor Pacis Marsilius became an infamous figure throughout the intellectual and political centres of Europe during his own lifetime His magnum opus a sharply pointed dissection of the damage done to earthly political life by the incursions of the papacy and a plea for conciliar ecclesiology was repeatedly condemned during the fourteenth century and in later years Yet the treatise continued to be disseminated and received translation into several vernacular languages During the Reformation Marsilius and his Defensor Pacis enjoyed another round of acclamation and denunciation depending upon one's confession In July 2003 a group comprising many of the world's most renowned scholars of medieval political thought gathered for a Marsilius of Padua World Congress held in conjunction with the tenth International Medieval Congress held in July 2003 in Leeds The present volume contains selected papers originally prepared for that meeting The contents represent a compendium of innovative scholarly contributions to the understanding of Marsilius his life and times and his lasting impact on Western thought Included are chapters that reflect a range of recent ground breaking research by both senior scholars and the future leaders in the field After a general survey of the current state of scholarship on Marsilius the volume divides into three thematically organized sections covering a variety of historical textual methodological theological and theoretical questions In all of the essays readers will discover the wealth and complexity of Marsilius's thought as well as the startling range of approaches and methods of interpretation taken in the study of his work The volume's selection of authors is international in scope and represents the first interdisciplinary scholarly collaboration in the field of Marsilian studies to occur in the twenty first century
