experience there embedded A good reader is an author's best fortune for the writer strives in vain unless he be understood The reader's own experience is the key to literature It may be direct experience events and passions personal to himself or it may be indirect events and passions observed in the career of others or at least learned by report but in any case the power to understand indirect experience that is experience not one's own depends on the existence of a common human nature and on the share of it which the reader has already realized in his own life and self consciousness About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
