The Arabian Epic: Volume 2, Analysis Malcolm Cameron Lyons, 1995-07-20 The hero cycles of Arabic belong to the literary tradition of The Arabian Nights and can be seen as the popular epics of their civilisation The second volume analyses their contents and literary formulae Hebrew Manuscripts at Cambridge University Library Cambridge University Library, Stefan C. Reif, Shulamit Reif, 1997-01-09 For some five hundred years Hebrew books have been counted among the treasures of the University of Cambridge and Cambridge University Library's current holdings of Hebrew manuscripts excluding most of the 140 000 fragments in its Genizah collections are in excess of a thousand items A wide range of Hebrew literature is represented with substantial numbers in Bible Bible Versions and Commentaries Talmud Halakhah Liturgy Science Poetry Philosophy and Kabbalah The bulk of the material is late mediaeval but there are also earlier items among them the famous Nash Papyrus from the second pre Christian century Although this collection is among the world's most important attempts beginning in the mid Victorian period to describe it in detail and to publish the results have never met with success In this volume Stefan Reif assisted by Shulamit Reif has attempted to set the situation right by providing careful descriptions that will guide researchers in codicological matters and will alert them to data of special scholarly significance without overwhelming them with the kind of prolix treatment that characterised manuscript study in the nineteenth century The volume has benefited not only from local Cambridge expertise but also from world wide scholarly co operation and includes many references to recent publications as well as a representative selection of photographed folios There are essays on the history of Hebraists and Hebraic at Cambridge that will interest historians as well as extensive indexes that will provide easy access to the rich and varied contents of the descriptions The Transformation of Nomadic Society in the Arab East Martha Mundy, Basim Musallam, 2000-11-09 In this 2000 book Martha Mundy and Basim Musallam bring together an international team of contributors consisting of archaeologists geographers historians anthropologists and agronomists in a penetrating interdisciplinary account of the transformation of nomadic society The chapters provide an integrated analysis of the changing relations of ecology economy and socio political organisation in the steppes of the central Middle East documenting the longue dur e of history alongside the more rapid transformations of the twentieth century A series of maps and figures illustrate the narrative while a bibliographic essay analyses the existing literature This is an accessible and interactive book which provides a comprehensive overview of a fascinating and complex society It will attract readers from a variety of disciplines including those interested in contemporary environmental and development issues Selected Letters of Rabindranath Tagore Rabindranath Tagore, 1997-06-26 A selection of some 350 letters spanning Nobel prize winning writer Rabindranath Tagore's entire life the first to be available to English readers Indian Semantic Analysis Eivind Kahrs, 1998 The Indian tradition of semantic elucidation known as nirvacana analysis represented a powerful hermeneutic tool in the exegesis and transmission of authoritative scripture Nevertheless it has all too frequently been dismissed by modern scholars as anything from folk etymology to a primitive forerunner of historical linguistics Eivind Kahrs argues that such views fall short of explaining both its acceptance within the sophisticated grammatical tradition of vyakarana and its effective usage in the processing of Sanskrit texts He establishes his argument by investigating the learned Sanskrit literature of Saiva Kashmir and explains the nirvacana tradition in the light of a model substitution used at least since the time of the Upanisads and later refined in the technical literatures of grammar and ritual According to this model a substitute adesa takes the place sthana of the original placeholder sthanin On the basis of a searching analysis of Sanskrit texts the author argues that this sthana place can be interpreted as meaning the model thereby providing favourable circumstances for reinterpretation and change Kingship and Political Practice in Colonial India Pamela G. Price,1996-03-14 In a cultural history which considers the transformation of south Indian institutions under British colonial rule in the nineteenth century Pamela Price focuses on the two former little kingdoms of Ramnad and Sivagangai which came under colonial governance as revenue estates She demonstrates how rivalries among the royal families and major zamindari temples and the disintegration of indigenous institutions of rule contributed to the development of nationalist ideologies and new political identities among the people of southern Tamil country The author also shows how religious symbols and practices going back to the seventeenth century were reformulated and acquired a new significance in the colonial context Arguing for a reappraisal of the relationship of Hinduism to politics Price finds that these symbols and practices continue to inform popular expectation of political leadership today International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,1997 The Arabic Literary Heritage Roger Allen,2005-10-17 Roger Allen here offers an account of the cultural tradition of literary texts in Arabic from their unknown beginnings in the fifth century AD to the present day Allen s organising principle is not that of traditional literary histories but is rather based on an account of the major genres of Arabic literature After introductory chapters on principles and contexts there are chapters devoted to the Qur an as literature poetry belletristic prose drama and criticism Within each chapter the emphasis is on the texts themselves and those who created and commented on them but Allen also demonstrates his awareness of recent Western theoretical and critical approaches The volume as a whole which contains extensive quotations in English translation a chronology and a guide to further reading makes a major non Western literary tradition newly accessible to students and scholars of the West An Introduction to Arabic Literature Roger Allen,2000-07-13 An accessible introduction to Arabic literature from the fifth century to the present Books in Print Supplement ,1994 Forthcoming Books Rose Army,1996-06 Index Islamicus ,1995 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 American Book Publishing Record ,1995 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1995 The Thirsty Sword Peter Heath,1996 Explores the popular epic of Arabic storytelling by focusing on a particular example The Life Story of Antar purporting to recount the life of the famous pre Islamic Arab poet and warrior Considers the poem in the context of Arabic oral tradition and the storytelling of other Islamic peoples in The Arabian Epic: Volume 3, Texts M. C. Lyons, 1995-07-20 The hero cycles of Arabic belong to the literary tradition of The Arabian Nights and can be seen as the popular epics of their civilisation The Arabian epic covers ten of the main representatives of this genre Each of these has been developed through the processes of accretive oral story telling by means of an accumulation of narrative and folklore motifs many of which belong to what can be seen as a universal tradition The work is published in three volumes The first volume introduces the background and the dimensions in which the cycles are set while the second volume analyses their contents and the literary formulae used in their construction as well as listing analogues found in other literatures The epitomes surveyed in the final volume provide non Arabists with a more immediate insight into the contents of the cycles drawing attention to their narrative colouring and texture
