Racial Conflict and Healing Andrew Sung Park, 2009-12-01 A Korean theologian approaches the issue of racial conflict including discrimination between minority communities and constructs a theology of seeing that aims to heal the ruptures of racism As ethnic tensions continue to simmer and occasionally erupt immigration and affirmative action laws are hotly debated in every ethnic minority African Americans Hispanic Americans Native Americans even Asian Americans the so called model minority struggle in the racially charged atmosphere of contemporary America In the aftermath of the Los Angeles riots of 1992 and the ensuing violence against Korean Americans Andrew Sung Park seeks a theological model that will help transform a society of oppression injustice and violence into a community of equity fairness and mutual consideration Park emphasizes that such a transformation does not and cannot begin only with good intentions but must be grounded in an understanding of all the socio economic and cultural issues that lead to oppression and tension Using the Korean term han to describe the deep seated suffering of racial oppression he then suggests resources for understanding and healing in both Christian and Asian traditions Part I of Racial Conflict and Healing describes the status quo from a Korean American perspective including discrimination against ethnic minorities and the discrimination they inflict on one another In Parts II and III Park suggests that American society as a whole needs a superordinate vision to form a unified community Park argues that our profoundly individualistic society must learn to understand an idea of self that is formed through relationship with others Finally in Part IV he presents a theological model a theology of seeing as a way to genuinely understand the other and to promote healing within our society

The Square and the Circle of the Indian Arts Kapila Vatsyayan, 1997 The Square and the Circle of the Indian Arts is a major contribution in Indian art history More than a book on the theories of arts it has far reaching implications for the way one thinks about the future of indology and art history It provides a model to be emulated for interdisciplinary research not only between the arts but also the sciences and the arts The book begins by re-examining the imagery of the Vedas and the Upanisads highlighting some aspects of early speculative thought which influenced the enunciation of aesthetic theories particularly of Bharata in the Natyasastra The next chapter introduces a new methodology of analyzing the rituals yajna as laid down in the Yajurveda and the Satapatha Brahmana the best way to focus the relationship between the text and the practice Four chapters follow one each on drama natya architecture vastu sculpture silpa and music sangita Each presents some fundamental concepts of speculative thought concerned with each of the arts and purposefully correlates these with actual examples both of the past and the present The afterward to this second edition remains an event not only because the book benefits from the works published since the first edition but also because it presents the author's integral vision and her unique adventure into the boundaries of several disciplines It demonstrates the efficacy of her earlier approach of investigating the imagery and the metaphors as basic to the discourse of the Indian tradition She proposes a multi layered cluster of concepts and metaphors which enable one to uncode the complex multi dimensional character of the Indian Arts Also significantly she suggests a deeper comprehension of the relevance of the developments in the field of traditional mathematics and biology for the study of the language of form of the Indian Arts

The Primacy of the Image in Northern European Art, 1400-1700 Debra Cashion, Henry Luttikhuis, Ashley West, 2017-08-21 The Primacy of the Image in Northern Art 1400 1700 Essays in Honor of Larry Silver is an anthology of 42 essays written by distinguished scholars on current research and methodology in the art history of Northern Europe of the late medieval and early modern periods Written in tribute to Larry Silver Farquhar Professor of the History of Art at the University of Pennsylvania the topics are inspired by Professor Silver's renowned scholarship in these areas Early Netherlandish Painting and Prints Sixteenth Century Netherlandish Painting Manuscripts Patrons and Printed Books Dider and the Power of Pictures Prints and Printmaking and Seventeenth Century Painting Studies of specific artists include Hans Memling Albrecht Dürer Hans Baldung Grien Hieronymus Bosch Pieter Bruegel Hendrick Goltzius and Rembrandt hThe Poetry of Thought in Late Antiquity Patricia Cox Miller, 2019-06-04 This title was first published in 2001 These collected essays by Patricia Cox Miller identify new possibilities of meaning in the study of religion in late antiquity The book addresses the topic of the imaginative mindset of late ancient authors from a variety of Greco Roman religious traditions Attending to the play of language as well as to the late ancient sensitivity to image metaphor and paradox Cox Miller's work highlights the poetizing sensibility that marked many of the texts of this period and draws on methods of interpretation from a variety of contemporary literary critical theories This book will appeal to scholars of late antiquity religious literature and literary critical theory more widely illustrating how fruitful dialogue across the centuries can be not only in eliciting aspects of late ancient texts that have gone unnoticed but also in showing that many modern ideas such as Roland Barthes were actually already alive and well in ancient texts Globe Encyclopaedia of Universal Information, 1879 The Globe Encyclopaedia of Universal Information John M. Ross, 1879 The Understanding of Ornament in the Italian Renaissance Clare Lapraik Guest, 2015-11-16 In this paradigm shifting study developed through close textual readings and sensitive analysis of artworks Clare Lapraik Guest re evaluates the central role of ornament in pre modern art and literature Moving from art and thought in antiquity to the Italian Renaissance she examines the understandings of ornament arising from the Platonic Aristotelian and Sophistic traditions and the tensions which emerged from these varied meanings The book views the Renaissance as a decisive point in the story of ornament when its subsequent identification with style and historicism are established It asserts ornament as a fundamental not an accessory element in art and presents its restoration to theoretical dignity as essential to historical scholarship and aesthetic reflection The Search for a New Alphabet Harald Hendrix, Joost J. Kloek, Sophie Levie, Willie van Peer, 1996-06-13 Literary Studies is currently going through a deep transformation preparing itself for the launch into the twenty first century The present volume which is dedicated to Douwe Fokkema on the occasion of his retirement from Utrecht University captures this transformation in a number of squibs by a select international group of scholars Topics dealt with are canon formation conventions cultural relativism hermeneutics vs empirical studies and the problem of values all themes very much central to current discussions in comparative literature and literary theory Taken together they form a variegated picture of a discipline in a changing world continually involved so to speak in The Search for a New Alphabet

Mantra Yoga and Primal Sound David Frawley, 2010-09-16 Modern science and ancient wisdom traditions agree that the universe is a symphony of vibrational frequencies In this beautiful comprehensive and unique work Dr Frawley elaborates the essential truths about cosmic sound and how we can employ important mantras for healing transformation and inner awakening

A New Science Of Representation Harry Redner, 2019-04-03 This book deals with representation in science politics and art both in its historical dimensions and in its contemporary expression It aims to reveal the current trends of culture and guide these towards the goal of a future culture for the coming global technological civilization

The Unanimous Tradition Ranjit Fernando, 1991 A collection of essays by Joseph Epes Brown Titus Burckhardt Rama P Coomaraswamy Gai Eaton Isaline B Horner Toshiko Izutsu Martin Lings Seyyed Hossein Nasr Lord Northbourne Marco Pallis Whitall N Perry Leo Schaya Frithjof Schuon Philip Sherrard William Stoddart Elemire Zolla Their subjects range over the religious doctrines of East and West and the societies which derived from them including especially their sacred art and their sciences In addition and no less importantly they demonstrate that the whole of that view of the world and of the nature of things common to all religions is for mankind the normal view properly referred to as the traditional point of view and that this view is absolutely opposed to and cannot be reconciled with the fundamentally profane beliefs and ideals which have dominated European thought since the Renaissance resulting in the destruction of Western Christianity

Sense and Finitude Alejandro A. Vallega, 2009-03-18 Sense and Finitude interrogates one of continental philosophy's central insights the temporality or finitude of philosophical thought Juxtaposing the views of such philosophers as Plato Heidegger Walter Benjamin Gadamer and Derrida on art poetry and non Western cultures with the insights of those very artists poets and cultures interpreted by them Alejandro A Vallega elucidates a certain sensibility fundamental to philosophical thought once it has come face to face with its concrete finitude in the sense that philosophical ideas are always exposed to interpretation transformation and loss By addressing philosophy's exposure to experience beyond its own delimitations Vallega shows how such investigations can enrich the philosophical enterprise
