The Art Of Christian Caring:

The Art of Christian Caring Marcus David Bryant,1979      Companions in Hope Robert J. Wicks,Thomas E. Rodgeron,1998 Written as a partial antidote to the isolation and potential alienation of people living in a world that is moving too fast this book adapts insights gleaned from the pastoral counseling profession to help everyday people hone and heighten gifts that can help them reach out to others in a more Christian and transformational form of caring The authors offer concrete means to help readers enhance their talents in the areas of listening being supportive problem solving dealing with crises and knowing when and how to refer in order to equip them as they seek to offer care to others in daily encounters

Christians and the Art of Caring William V. Arnold,Margaret Anne Fohl,1988-01-01 William V Arnold and Margaret Anne Fohl describe Christian caring as a unique form of helping that finds special expression in the church Daily Christians have opportunities to extend care whether it is to a bereaved colleague or a sick friend In simple clear language the authors describe how important it is that everyday women and men share in the ministry of caring and illustrate that this ministry involves skills that can be learned      The Caring Church Howard W. Stone, Howard Stone has given a very useful gift to parish ministers and their congregations in this very concise clearly written practical lucidly illustrated book His contribution grows out of the accumulation of practical experience as well as scholarship David K Switzer Journal of Pastoral Care

Ferngren, 2016-08 Drawing on New Testament studies and recent scholarship on the expansion of the Christian church Gary B Ferngren presents a comprehensive historical account of medicine and medical philanthropy in the first five centuries of the Christian era Ferngren first describes how early Christians understood disease He examines the relationship of early Christian medicine to the natural and supernatural modes of healing found in the Bible Despite biblical accounts of demonic possession and miraculous healing Ferngren argues that early Christians generally accepted naturalistic assumptions about disease and cared for the sick with medical knowledge gleaned from the Greeks and Romans Ferngren also explores the origins of medical philanthropy in the early Christian church Rather than viewing illness as punishment for sins early Christians believed that the sick deserved both medical assistance and compassion Even as they were being persecuted Christians cared for the sick within and outside of their community Their long experience in medical charity led to the creation of the first hospitals a singular Christian contribution to health care A succinct thoughtful well written and carefully argued assessment of Christian involvement with medical matters in the first five centuries of the common era It is to Ferngren s credit that he has opened questions and explored them so astutely This fine work looks forward as well as backward it invites fuller reflection of the many senses in which medicine and religion intersect and merits wide readership Journal of the American Medical Association In this superb work of historical and conceptual scholarship Ferngren unfolds for the reader a cultural milieu of healing practices during the early centuries of Christianity Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith Readable and widely researched an important book for mission studies and American Catholic movements the book posits the question of what can take its place in today s challenging religious culture Missiology An International Review Gary B Ferngren is a professor of history at Oregon State University and a professor of the history of medicine at First Moscow State Medical University He is the author of Medicine and Religion A Historical Introduction and the editor of Science and Religion A Historical Introduction

The Art of New Creation Jeremy Begbie, Daniel Train, W. David O. Taylor, 2022-03-29 Creation and the new creation are inextricably bound for the God who created the world is the same God who promises a new heaven and a new earth Bringing together theologians biblical scholars and artists this volume based on the DITA10 conference at Duke Divinity School explores how the relation between creation and the new creation is informed by and reflected in the arts

The Problem with The Dot Bruce D. Long, 2021-03-02 The Problem with the Dot is rooted in the idea that culture is a garden to be tended Gen 2 15 rather than a war to be won and uses the analogy of an ecosystem to expand the details of the individual components of the theatrical ecosystem to 1 Help those with minimal exposure to theater understand the indivisible construct of the theatrical ecosystem 2 Identify areas of Christian neglect within each component and 3 Emphasize strategic corrections that will result in the holistic restoration of a healthy global culture Each chapter strengthens the case for a long term holistic approach to the care and cultivation of global culture through the theatrical ecosystem culminating in a call to action that is magnified by the unique opportunity presented by the 2020 global pandemic that forced a hiatus on all theatrical productions The market will reset and artists will revive theaters It is my prayer that when this grand reopening occurs around the globe Christians are an integral part of the new beginning

Risk Management Handbook for Health Care Organizations, 3 Volume Set, 2011-01-06 Continuing its superiority in the health care risk management field this sixth edition of The Risk Management Handbook for Health Care Organizations is written by the key practitioners and consultant in the field It contains more practical chapters and health care examples and additional material on methods and techniques of risk reduction and management It also revises the structure of the previous edition and focuses on operational and organizational structure rather than risk areas and functions The three volumes are written using a practical and user friendly approach

Spiritual Care in our Multifaith World Daniel S. Schipani, 2024-07-16 Across the helping professions and as a compassionate response to human suffering spiritual care is a special process of companioning Furthermore all forms of spiritual care always consist in connecting diverse wisdom traditions with care receivers spiritual resources longings and struggles in socio cultural and contextually pertinent ways This book thoroughly explicates such understanding with interdisciplinary lenses Its main purpose is to offer a comprehensive response to the new challenges and opportunities for excellent care presented by increasing cultural and religious spiritual pluralization Practical guidelines and case studies are connected with models of spirituality spiritual toxicity and injury communication strategies for engaging difference patterns of caregiving work and profiles of professional competence In addition to offering an overarching orientation to the field the contents of this book invite further reflection dialogue and collaboration among clinical pastoral education and psychospiritual therapy students and supervisors chaplains pastors and other religious caregivers counselors psychotherapists and others interested in spiritual care in our multifaith world It thus reflects the shared hope and indeed the expectation that spiritual care theory and practice across traditions and disciplines will continue to be enhanced in the days ahead

Spiritual Direction and the Care of Souls David G. Benner, Gary W. Moon, 2025-06-23

In recent years many Christian clergy laity and mental health professionals have rediscovered the ancient practices of spiritual direction Seen as a refreshing alternative to the techniques and limitations of modern psychology such practices offer new insights for pastoral care But many remain unclear on what spiritual direction is and whether its methods are applicable to their own clients and parishioners Spiritual direction is a practice of Christian soul care that is found most notably in the Catholic Orthodox and Episcopal traditions but is also present in Wesleyan Holiness Pentecostal charismatic social justice and Reformed communities Predating modern counseling and psychotherapy movements but sharing key principles and insights for spiritual formation spiritual direction offers significant resources for today's pastors counselors therapists chaplains and other caregivers attuned to the work of God in people's lives In this landmark volume editors Gary W Moon and David G Benner along with a team of expert contributors provide a comprehensive survey of spiritual direction in its myriad Christian forms Specific chapters offer careful historical perspective and contemporary analysis of how Christians from various backgrounds have practiced spiritual direction with particular attention to each tradition's definition of spiritual direction the process of authentic transformation the role of the spiritual director indicators of mature spirituality and other aspects of the spiritual direction process Chapters also provide psychological and clinical insight into how spiritual direction is similar to different from and can be integrated with psychotherapy and pastoral counseling to help others experience spiritual transformation and union with God ministry and to clarify their living faith which undergirds spiritual care Spiritual Care Basics and Beyond also addresses important questions such as What is spiritual care and who needs it How does a minister assess what the other person needs What do you do when you get in over your head or mess up What about sensitive subjects such as confrontation and boundaries And the most important question How do you grow in trusting the guidance of the Holy Spirit Critical Care Peter Sedgwick, Andrew Todd, Jonathan Pye, 2015-07-21 Focusing on spiritual care within the delivery and provision of healthcare today the contributors combine academic and professional expertise to discuss themes including spirituality pluralism and multi faith practice healthcare ethics legal and policy issues mental health and beginning and end of life issues

Care, Healing, and, Human Well-Being within Interreligious Discourses Helmut Weiss, Karl H. Federschmidt, Daniël Louw, Linda Sauer Bredvik, 2021-12-08 Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an edited peer reviewed volume of global perspectives on interreligious approaches to healing and well being by 23 academics and practitioners from five different faith practices and 13 different cultures With chapters by counsellors chaplains religious thinkers and linguists the multifaceted nature of the volume provides an expansive approach to spiritual care and counselling In order to understand the ways in which interreligious encounters can have an enriching effect on our humanity the volume is divided into four sections that address methodological questions surrounding spiritual caregiving perspectives of different faith traditions on care and healing the challenges to the praxis of care in diverse cultural and political settings and finally how spiritual care and healing can be carried out in public places such as the police the military and hospitals The book is an outgrowth of 25 years of experience within the Society for Interreligious Care and Counselling SIPCC to promote better understanding and practices of intercultural and interreligious spiritual caregiving Care Healing and Human Well Being within Interreligious Discourses is an extraordinary assemblage of writings from diverse cultural religious and geopolitical contexts By addressing methodological questions challenges faced in the care of individuals and care in public settings from Islamic Jewish Christian Buddhist and Hindu perspectives this anthology moves the discourse on care and healing into a more adequate theological anthropology than has often undergirded pastoral care and counselling in most Western texts This much needed work will doubtless be crucial for chaplains and other spiritual care providers seeking to offer genuinely interreligious and intercultural care in today's globalized world Emmanuel Y Lartey PhD Charles Howard Candler Professor of Pastoral Theology Spiritual Care Candler School of Theology Emory University GA USA Given the variety of religious expressions in the contemporary world providing interreligious care is a great challenge for caregivers This book contributes to reflection on care and healing from an interreligious perspective by helping us to think about the theme not only from a theoretical approach but also from methodological practical and culturally contextualized points of view that overflow with compassion It is not to be simply read but studied and used as a bedside book by those engaged in the practice of human care Dr Mary Rute Gomes Esperandio Professor and researcher on Spirituality Health in the Post Graduate Program in

Bioethics and Post Graduate Program in Theology at the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Paraná Brazil      Care for the Soul Mark R. McMinn, Timothy R. Phillips, 2001-04-10 Edited by Mark R McMinn and Timothy R Phillips this collection of essays is a multidisciplinary dialogue on the interface between psychology and theology that takes seriously the long rich tradition of soul care in the church

The Professionalization of Pastoral Care T. Dale Johnson Jr., 2020-07-21 When the organization and structure of the church in America was altered in the early 1900s to meet modern demands the role of the pastorate became more specialized to adapt to the burdens of the new efficient structure In 1920 Gaines Dobbins utilized the business efficiency model at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary to formulate a distinct ecclesiology Discontent with traditional methods of instruction in theological education Dobbins sought to implement theories and methodologies from modern educationalists He adopted a psychologized educational methodology and utilized the psychology of religion as an empirical measure of the soul human nature and human behavior Use of the social sciences seemed to grant Dobbins as a practitioner academic respectability within the realm of theological education Both the professionalization that resulted from Dobbins's efficiency standards and a working theory of human nature derived from psychological models were synthesized into a specialized system of pastoral care Dobbins followed the new shape of pastoral theology in America adopting Clinical Pastoral Education CPE as the model for pastoral training As a result CPE became an integral part of the curriculum at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary for over sixty years and spread to influence many other SBC entities

What Is Spiritual Care? Pamela Cooper-White, Claudia Kohli Reichenbach, Emmanuel Y. Lartey, 2025-05-15 What is spiritual care Much has been assumed as an answer to this question within particular professional and religious silos The contributors to this volume offer fresh answers from perspectives of different caregiving professions medicine nursing public health psychology pastoral care and pastoral theology different religious traditions Islam Judaism Christianity and Buddhism and different cultural contexts Certain red threads become apparent the importance of deep listening openness to difference willingness to recognize the importance of spiritual care as practiced in different professions and religions respect for the inherent dignity of every person and support for each individual's unique spiritual journey At the same time the diversity of voices makes clear both by juxtaposition and argumentation that the hegemony of a mid twentieth century white American Protestant tradition of pastoral care is being reevaluated contested expanded and even decolonized as voices formerly from the margins are being brought to the center and the spiritual needs of persons from many different traditions and locations are increasingly being met on their own terms The cumulative impact of this work emphasizes that spiritual care is finally inseparable from larger efforts toward justice and peacemaking This is an invaluable resource for healthcare providers chaplains and pastoral professionals
