look at how the increasing multipolarity of our world affects art It is a diagnosis of the socio political contexts that surround art and questions what the upheavals in geopolitics economic and social policy mean for the field of art today The text is divided into four sections First the phenomenon is conceptualized and theorized This is followed by an in depth examination of the interrelationships using documenta fifteen as a case study an exhibition that can be seen as a crystallization point for current political shifts This is followed by an in depth reading of Chinese art policy which oscillates between particularist and universalist claims in order to arrive at the concluding section which opens up a horizon of thought and experimentation that helps us to come to terms with the era of multipolarity Children's Books in Print R R Bowker Publishing,Bowker,1999-12
