Rug Art - Rescued From Oblivion Suzanne Conrod, Suzanne And Hugh Conrod, 2010-06 Rug Art RESCUED FROM OBLIVION is a delightful tale of discovery but a sad reflection on the lack of preservation of North America's most endangered art form that has literally and figuratively been tramped on for much too long. Abandoned for more than half a century in the basement of a damp and mould-filled former New Glasgow Nova Scotia rug pattern factory, a determined research team found amazing pen and ink rug art created by an artist who is said to have studied in the same New York art class with noted folk artist Norman Rockwell. Under a leaking sewage pipe in that same factory, they unearthed amazing hand-cut Mystery stencils that are now rewriting the arts heritage. Their discovery heralds the oldest known commercial designs recovered in Canada and possibly in North America and a unique pattern printing system hitherto unknown. The searchers found and rescued from imminent oblivion some 550 pieces of original pen and ink art created by the 1892 factory founder John Garrett and his son Frank. In acquiring remnants of the oldest known rug pattern factory in the world, 1892, they also unearthed three unique hand-carved full-size rug pattern blocks and a mass of records of early pattern designs from across North America. An intriguing bonus was the salvaging of some 300 hand-cut stencils created by a talented unknown artist. Measuring only 3x5 in size, each contained two rug pattern designs. Designated the MYSTERY PATTERNS, preliminary research indicates they are the oldest Canadian rug designs ever discovered and possibly the oldest in the world. Hooked Rugs Cynthia Fowler, 2017-07-05 Through a close look at the history of the modernist hooked rug, this book raises important questions about the broader history of American modernism in the first half of the twentieth century. Although hooked rugs are not generally associated with the avant-garde, this study demonstrates that they were a significant part of the artistic production of many artists engaged in modernist experimentation. Cynthia Fowler discusses the efforts of Ralph Pearson and of Zoltan and Rosa Hecht to establish modernist hooked rug industries in the 1920s, uncovering a previously undocumented history. The book includes a consideration of the rural workers used to create the modernist narrative of the hooked rug as cottage industries were established throughout the rural Northeast and South to serve the ever-increasing demand for hooked rugs by urban consumers. Fowler closely examines institutional enterprises that highlighted and engaged the modernist hooked rugs, such as key exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the 1930s and 40s. This study reveals the fluidity of boundaries among art, craft, and design and the profound efforts of a devoted group of modernists to introduce the general public to the value of modern art. Hooked Rug Landscapes Anne-Marie Littenberg, 2009 Take the intimidation out of hooking realistic or impressionistic landscapes with this full-colour book that leads the reader step by step through the process of designing and hooking a rug landscape.
