Swedish-American Borderlands Dag Blanck, Adam Hjorthén, 2021-08-24 Reframing Swedish American relations by focusing on contacts crossings and convergences beyond migration Studies of Swedish American history and identity have largely been confined to separate disciplines such as history literature or politics In Swedish American Borderlands this collection edited by Dag Blanck and Adam Hjorthén seeks to reconceptualize and redefine the field of Swedish American relations by reviewing more complex cultural social and economic exchanges and interactions that take a broader approach to the international relationship ultimately offering an alternative way of studying the history of transatlantic relations Swedish American Borderlands studies connections and contacts between Sweden and the United States from the seventeenth century to today exploring how movements of people have informed the circulation of knowledge and ideas between the two countries The volume brings together scholars from a wide range of disciplines within the humanities and social sciences to investigate multiple transcultural exchanges between Sweden and the United States Rather than concentrating on one way processes or specific national contexts Swedish American Borderlands adopts the concept of borderlands to examine contacts crossings and convergences between the nations featuring specific case studies of topics like jazz architecture design genealogy and more By placing interactions entanglements and cross border relations at the center of the analysis Swedish American Borderlands seeks to bridge disciplinary divides joining a diverse set of scholars and scholarship in writing an innovative history of Swedish American relations to produce new understandings of what we perceive as Swedish American and Swedish American Contributors Philip J Anderson North Park U Jennifer Eastman Attebery Idaho State U Marie Bennedahl Linnaeus U Ulf Jonas Björk Indiana U Indianapolis Thomas J Brown U of South Carolina Margaret E Farrar John Carroll U Charlotta Forss Stockholm U Gunlög Fur Linnaeus U Karen V Hansen Brandeis U Angela Hoffman Uppsala U Adam Kaul Augustana College Maaret Koskinen Stockholm U Merja Kyt Uppsala U Svea Larson U of Wisconsin Madison Franco Minganti U of Bologna Frida Rosenberg KTH Royal Institute of Technology Stockholm Magnus Ullén Stockholm U

Rethinking Professionalism Kristina Huneault, Janice Anderson, 2012-04-11 The history of women and art in Canada has often been celebrated as a story of progress from amateur to professional practice Rethinking Professionalism challenges this narrative by questioning the assumptions that underlie the category of artistic professionalism a construct as influential for artistic practice as it has been for art historical understanding Through a series of in depth studies contributors examine changes to the infrastructure of the art world that resulted from a powerful discourse of professionalization that emerged in the late nineteenth century While many women embraced this new model others fell by the wayside barred from professional status by virtue of their class their ethnicity or the very nature of the artworks they produced The richly illustrated essays in this collection depict the changing nature of the professional paradigm as it was experienced by women painters photographers craftspeople architects curators gallery directors and art teachers In so doing they demonstrate the ongoing power of feminist art history to disrupt patterns of thought that have become naturalized and accordingly invisible Going beyond the narratives of recovery or exclusion that the category of professionalism has traditionally encouraged Rethinking Professionalism explores the very consequences of telling the history of women's art in Canada through that lens Contributors include Annmarie Adams McGill University Alena Buis Queen's University Sherry Farrell Racette University of Manitoba Cynthia Hammond Concordia University Kristina Huneault Concordia University Loren Lerner Concordia University Lianne McTavish University of Alberta Kirk Niergarth Mount Royal University Mary O'Connor McMaster University Sandra Paikowsky Concordia University Ruth B Phillips Carleton University Jennifer Salahub Alberta College of Art Design and Anne Whitelaw Concordia University

Pop Art and Design Anne Massey, Alex Seago, 2017-11-30 This book offers the first in depth analysis of the relationship between art and design which led to the creation of pop Challenging accepted boundaries and definitions the authors seek out various commonalities and points of connection between these two exciting areas Confronting the all pervasive high art low culture divide Pop Art and Design brings a fresh understanding of visual culture during the vibrant 1950s and 60s This was an era when commercial art became graphic design illustration was superseded by photography and high fashion became street fashion all against the backdrop of a rapidly evolving economic and political landscape a glamorous youth scene and an effervescent popular culture The book's central argument is that pop art relied on and drew inspiration from pop design and vice versa Massey and Seago assert that this relationship was articulated through the artwork design publications and exhibitions of a network of key practitioners Pop Art and Design provides a case study in the broader inter relationship between art and design and constitutes the first interdisciplinary publication on the subject

The Art of Systems Architecting Mark W. Maier, Eberhardt Rechtin, 2025-06-05 The Art of Systems Architecting Fourth Edition provides structured heuristics to improve the least structured most art like elements of systems design It offers unique techniques to bridge the difference between scientific engineering and qualitative design along with comprehensive methods for combining architectural design with digital engineering This book illustrates how to go from model based systems architecture to model based systems engineering and includes case studies of good and bad architectural decision making in major systems Changes to this edition include materials on architecture processes architecture description frameworks and integration with model based systems engineering MBSE and digital engineering The publication of the ANSI IEEE 1471 and ISO IEC 42010 standards on architecture description has provided common vocabulary and organizing methods for documenting architectures This edition provides a practical application of these standards in architecting and integrating their concepts with a simple process framework The rise of MBSE and digital engineering tools is in the process of revolutionizing the development of complex systems The emphasis has been on detailed design descriptions and powerful analysis methods for example digital twins Architects can make effective use of these methods and tools as well and this new edition provides an integrated set of heuristics and modeling methods to do so There are many other improvements and additions included to bring this textbook up to date This book can be used as a reference book for engineers and managers involved in creating new systems people responsible for developing mandated architecture descriptions software architects system architects and systems engineers or as a textbook in graduate engineering courses Exercises are interspersed throughout the text with some designed for self testing and understanding and others intended to provide opportunities for long term study and further exploration of the subject

The Kitchen Klaus Spechtenhauser, 2005-12-09 The kitchen is regaining its role as the central living space in home life Since the 1990s the kitchen has moved into the fashion and design spotlight and this publication now examines and reviews its significance in an architectural cultural social and economical context The authors and contributors look at important developments and revolutionary kitchen concepts of the last decades including standardised kitchens and open kitchenliving spaces they also review design basics current trends the changing demands posed by patch work families or single person households Even culinary aspects are included This is a book which should certainly have its place in every 21st century kitchen Our new book series Living concepts presents clearly and concisely selected topics relating to aspects of the home It is aimed at general readers as well as specialists and edited by the ETH Wohnforum Zurich
