Nystrom,2015-06-13 Excerpt from The Economics of Retailing This book aims to present fact material and to suggest constructive thought on the subject of retail distribution It does not tell how to get rich quick at retailing It presents but little theory and advocates no particular or special method of doing the work of the retail store Its purpose is to describe the retail business as it is and to point out the broad lines along which retailing progress is being made In this work the attempt has been made to reduce the knowledge about retailing to teachable form and to make it usable alike to the ambitious thinking man already in business and to the student who desires to gain an intimate insight into this interesting as well as important field of human work Except in fragmentary form there has been but little written upon which the writer could build The effort has been made with what success the reader must judge to bring together in one volume a summary of the best thought so far expressed but much of the material presented is the result of the writer s own observation and experience in the retail business and of what he has gathered in conference with over a thousand retail store managers and salespeople who were students in his classes in retail methods during the years 1909 to 1915 Every part of the work has been tested by presentation to groups of people engaged in the retail business Every point has been held up to the standard of practicability About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Retailing in Europe Valia Aranitou,Pantelis C.
