

The Egyptian Reliefs and Stelae

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of an ancient Egyptian relief carving. It depicts a seated male figure, likely a deity or a high-ranking official, wearing a long kilt and a broad collar (wesekh). He has a long, pleated wig and is shown in profile, facing left. His right arm is raised, holding a long staff or scepter. To his left, a large bird, possibly a falcon or a hawk, is perched on a pedestal. The entire scene is carved into a light-colored, textured stone surface.
