The Elegant Criminal:

The Elegant Criminal, Crime and Media in Contemporary France Deborah Streifford Reisinger, 2007 Reisinger examines contemporary French society's relationship with violence in an era of increased media dominance. The study's innovative and interdisciplinary approach integrates media, cinema, and literary studies to analyze how crime news functions as a site of discursive struggle. By situating these crime stories in a larger historical and political context, she analyzes how media and politicians use the crime story as a tool for upholding the dominant ideology. Crime Fiction John Scaggs, 2005 Provides a lively introduction to what is both a wide-ranging and hugely popular literary genre. Accessible and clear, this comprehensive overview is the essential guide for all those studying crime fiction. Swedish Crime Fiction Kerstin Bergman, 2014-05-26T00:00:00+02:00 Why have authors from the safe social welfare state of Sweden captivated the minds of the crime fiction readers across the globe? Kerstin Bergman suggests that killer marketing and a widespread curiosity about the exotic Nordic welfare states, their waste landscapes, and alleged gender equality has propelled these authors and novels into the international spotlight. Bergman uses this innovative angle to retell the recent history of crime fiction in Sweden, exploring central themes and selecting key authors that have garnered national and international acclaim for their lethal plots. Swedish Crime Fiction: The Making of Nordic Noir contextualizes the explosive recent history of the genre, offering newcomers and aficionados insights into the minds of protagonists and their literary creators. This is the first research-based and exhaustive presentation of Swedish crime fiction and its Nordic neighbours to an international audience. Memoirs of Vidocq Francois Eugene Vidocq, Eugene Francois Vidocq, 2003 A criminal mastermind turns detective in this notorious autobiography filled with outrageous adventures, disguises, and escapes. Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Select Committee on Crime United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Crime, 1973 Space, Time, and Organized Crime Alan A. Block, 2024-11-01 Most research on organized crime reveals only a limited sense of its history. Our understanding suffers as a result. Space, Time, and Organized Crime shows how arguments about the sources, consequences, and extent of crime are distorted as a consequence of crude empiricism. Originally published in Europe in 1991 as Perspectives on Organizing Crime, this book is a timely blend of history, criticism, and research. Fully one-fourth of this new edition contains hitherto unpublished materials especially relevant to the American experience. Space, Time, and Organized Crime describes the background of Progressive Era New York. It then broadens its scope by exploring the changes in drug production and distribution in Europe from about 1925 to the mid-1930s. Block addresses such little-explored issues as the ethnicity of traders, the structure of drug syndicates, and the impact of legislation that attempted to criminalize increasing aspects of the world's narcotic industry prior to the Second World War. He then goes on to present organized crime's involvement with transnational political movements, intelligence services, and political murders. Space, Time, and Organized Crime concentrates on ambiguities evident in organized crime control, such as the U.S. Internal Revenue Service's protection of criminal off shore financial interests and the contradictions found in America s war on drugs Space Time and Organized Crime demonstrates that the essential nature of crime in the twentieth century regardless of where it takes place cannot be understood without sound historical studies and a more sophisticated criminological approach Block s unique blend of stratification in a historical context will be of special interest to historians sociologists criminologists and penologist The Romance of Crime. A Collection of Celebrated Criminal Trials, Etc ROMANCE.,1860
