And the Meadow Lark Sang Margaretha Willms,2011 Stories are blessings and with this volume of memoirs Margaretha Willms leaves a legacy of gifts for future generations This collection of stories radiates the simplicity of a carefree childhood of growing up and changing with the seasons of life a reminder of the repetition and rhythm of nature on the prairies and the assurance of a coming spring when the meadowlark sings once again Deep in every family background are the ethnic and religious values of their ancestors and it is important to preserve them by passing on stories connected to the places where those values found fullness in everyday living Margaretha writes A person is bound to their place of birth to the home of their childhood to the graves of their parents and to customs and traditions even if only in memory and history is a journey into that memory In recording moments of time about living through the hardships of the Great Depression she often finds humour in describing what seem in their proper perspective to lend themselves to rather amusing explorations Her story is told with candid unflinching honesty giving a glimpse of Mennonite social and religious traditions that made life unique Margaretha s sensitive portrayal of country schools in which her husband taught in the 1950s revives the spirit of rural schools as the heart and soul and pulse of every community in their time Something of the prairies survives in the melody of the meadowlark and the stories in Margaretha Willms book are also sustained for the future memories of the past too full of life to be forgotten Children with a Star Deborah Dwork,1991-01-01 The book is based on hundreds of oral histories conducted in Europe and North America with survivors who were children in the Holocaust primary documentation uncovered by the author including diaries letters photographs and family albums and archival records Drawing on these sources Dwork reveals the feeling daily activities and perceptions of Jewish children who lived and died in the shadow of Holocaust She reconstructs and analyzes the many different experiences the children faced In the early years of Nazi domination they lived at home increasingly oppressed by rising anti Semitism Later some went into hiding while others attempted to live openly on gentile papers As time passed more and more were forced into transit camps ghettos and death and slave labour camps Although nearly 90 percent of the Jewish children in Nazi Europe were murdered we learn in this history not of their deaths but of the circumstances of their lives Crossing Over Harold M.
