The Ape Man:

The Ape Man William Richard Harris, 1916 Eugène Dubois and the Ape-Man from Java L.T.

Theunissen, 1988-12-31 Although the name Pithecanthropus is now seldom used there are few who study the origin of our species who will fail to recognise the historical place of the usage and its association with Eugene Dubois During the last thirty or forty years Australopithecus and its African context has tended to draw attention from the early work on our origins in Java It is now increasingly common to hear the term pithecanthropine used only to indicate the Asian or Far Eastern examples of Homo erectus which although probably derived from African ancestry have some features that in the opinion of some experts may justify their being considered distinctive This discussion is not within the pages that follow which deal extensively with the work of Eugene Dubois He was an extraordinary man who did as much as any person since to put the great antiquity of our ancestors firmly in the public domain Dubois became involved with the study of human origins from a medical and anatomical background as have many since The jealousies and professional pressures that we think of as a phenomenon of the post war years were clearly a major factor in deciding the future of his career The Archetype of the Ape-Man

Dawn Prince-Hughes, 2001 This interdisciplinary dissertation explores the archetype of the ape man from a phenomenological perspective with its genesis and present continuation dependent on extant and accreted human behavior and morphology In order to ascertain the embedded components of the ape man archetype an identikit ape man as a discrete phenomenon is derived after the examination of cross cultural examples world wide Next this discrete phenomenon and its constituent parts are compared both to extant ape species behavior and morphology and the paleoanthropological evidence to determine in what ways if any components of each are reflected accurately in the phenomenon Utilizing concepts in the fields of cultural and physical anthropology ethology psychology and philosophy this dissertation asserts as its conclusion that the archetype of the ape man is a result of accreted and enacted collective memories and reflects an important phenomenon integral to human thought and form The Ape Man Henry T. Johnson, 19?? Hardy Boys 62: The Apeman's Secret

Franklin W. Dixon, 2005-04-21 The Hardy Boys investigate the disappearance of an eighteen year old girl suspected of joining a sinister religious cult A few days later the boys get an offbeat assignment from a comic book publisher The real life double of his character Apeman is turning up everywhere and causing considerable damage Frank and Joe tackle both cases and uncover an intricate scheme by a clever gang of crooks X-VENTURE DINOSAUR KINGDOM II J02: RISE OF THE APEMAN Air Team, Forward No matter what we face So near and yet so far Tailing the time hopping Professor Da Vinci into the Quarternary Period our band of battling boys barrel on collecting clues tracking tracks and seeking solutions to their temporal tourist troubles Haunted by the heroic demise of their Bushman buddy Jake Louis and Tazens trauma leads to our terrific trio enlisting the aid of the elite X Guard cadre as they venture forward back in time to the beginning of mankind The Ape Man (Cryptofiction Classics - Weird Tales of Strange Creatures) Arthur James filmographic data on the 31 horror chillers made by the three studios from 1940 through 1946 and are arranged by year of release Each entry includes the date of release length production credits cast credits interview quotes and a plot synopsis with critical commentary Filmographies for prominent horror actors and actresses from John Abbott to George Zucco are provided in the appendices

Is the Ape-man a Myth? Henry Fairfield Osborn, The Politics of Display Sharon Macdonald, 2010-10-05 The assumption that museum exhibitions particularly those concerned with science and technology are somehow neutral and impartial is today being challenged both in the public arena and in the academy The Politics of Display brings together studies of contemporary and historical exhibitions and contends that exhibitions are never and never have been above politics Rather technologies of display and ideas about science and objectivity are mobilized to tell stories of progress citizenship racial and national difference The display of the Enola Gay the aircraft which dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima is a well known case in point The Politics of Display charts the changing relationship between displays and their audience and analyzes the consequent shift in styles of representation towards interactive multimedia and reflexive modes of display The Politics of Display brings together an array of international scholars in the disciplines of sociology anthropology and history Examples are taken from exhibitions of science technology and industry anthropology geology natural history and medicine and locations include the United States of America Australia the United Kingdom France the Netherlands and Spain This book is an excellent contribution to debates about the politics of public culture It will be of interest to students of sociology anthropology cultural studies museum studies and science studies
