No Matter What Catherine Keller, 2024-12-03 A collection of essays that outline the recent work on ecology political theology religion and philosophy by one of the leading theologians of our age As we face relentless ecological destruction spiraling around a planet of unconstrained capitalism and democratic failure what matters most How do we get our bearings and direct our priorities in such a terrestrial scenario Species race sex politics and economics will increasingly come tangled in the catastrophic trajectory of climate change With a sense of urgency and of possibility Catherine Keller's No Matter What reflects multiple trajectories of planetary crisis They converge from a point of view formed of the political ecologies of a transdisciplinary theological pluralism In its work an ancient symbolism of apocalypse deconstructs end of the world narratives Christian and secular even as any notion of an all controlling and good God collapses under the force of internal contradiction In the place of a once for all incarnation the materiality of unbounded intercarnation of fragile yet animating relations of mattering earth bodies comes into focus The essays of No Matter What share the preoccupation with matter characteristic of the so called new materialism They also root in an older ecotheological tradition one that has long struggled against the undead legacy of an earth betraying theology that with the aid of its white Christian right wing invests the denigration of matter its spirit of no matter in limitless commodification The fragile alternative Keller outlines here embraces no matter what the mattering of the life of the Earth and of all its spirited bodies These essays struggling against Christian and secular betrayals of the spirited matter of Earth work to materialize the still possible planetary healing

Theorizing World Orders Piki Ish-Shalom, Markus Kornprobst, Vincent Pouliot, 2021-11-25 We need new analytical tools to understand the turbulent times in which we live and identify the directions in which international politics will evolve This volume discusses how engaging with Emanuel Adler's social theory of cognitive evolution could potentially achieve these objectives Eminent scholars of International Relations explore various aspects of Adler's theory evaluating its potential contributions to the study of world orders and IR theory more generally Each chapter focuses on a different aspect of the social theory of cognitive evolution such as power morality materiality narratives and practices and identifies new theoretical vistas that help break new ground in International Relations In the concluding chapter Adler responds engaging in a rich dialogue with the contributors This volume will appeal to scholars and advanced students of International Relations theory especially evolutionary and constructivist approaches

The Rise Of The Antichrist
Kamran Faqir,2019-04-02 The Rise of The Antichrist carefully investigates the measurable effects of politics religion science and technology on the human psyche All mainstream religions traditionally share similar perspectives regarding the Antichrist and his developing systems which have been foretold by all prophets or messengers dutifully sent to every nation over time This book carefully explores the much debated topic of the Antichrist regarding his future emergence Will he lead humanity to eternal darkness or enlightenment Although modern science and human history popularly refer to the last 5 000 15 000 years of development in reality there are signs and evidence that human development is considerably older with possibilities of supernatural or otherworldly intervention This book explores stories such as the Nimrod who meticulously researched into longevity and occult magic with a possibility of alien or supernatural influence which was captured on stone glyphs Throughout history there have been developed mighty empires whose chosen kings proclaimed to be Gods But were they actually inter dimensional beings This book will ideally suit readers with an active interest in religion historical events and those interested in a thought provoking read

Holy Living Matthew Everhard,2021-10-05 In Holy Living author Matthew Everhard explores the resolutions Jonathan Edwards wrote when he was just nineteen years old revealing how they are still beneficial to Christians today Though not yet ordained Edwards 1703 1758 wrote these short but powerful aphorisms to guide his life and now they offer spiritual guidance to a modern audience as well Following a brief biography of Edwards the book then looks at each resolution under three main categories 1 existential considering the purpose of life 2 ethical considering the duty and character of the Christian and 3 eschatological preparing for the brevity of life followed by death and eternity Lay readers pastors students church elders and study group members will find troves of timeless wisdom and guidance for how to live the Christian life The book is divided into five sections An Introduction to the Life of Jonathan Edwards The Meaning and Purpose of Life How Should We Then Live The Brevity of Life and Eternal World to Come Why Did Jonathan Edwards Stop Using the Resolutions It includes the following topics Edwards s Youth and Conversion to Christ The Early Pastoral Years The Writing of the Resolutions Faith and Assurance Peace Relationships and Self Control The Brevity of Life Heaven and Hell Between Antinomianism and Legalism Reflections of a More Mature Saint Resolutions and the Gospel of Grace

The Vegan Studies Project Laura Wright,2015-10 This inescapably controversial study envisions defines and theorizes an area that Laura Wright calls vegan studies We have an abundance of texts on vegans and veganism including works of advocacy literary and popular fiction film and television and cookbooks yet until now there has been no study that examines the social and cultural discourses shaping our perceptions of veganism as an identity category and social practice Ranging widely across contemporary American society and culture Wright unpacks the loaded category of vegan identity She examines the mainstream discourse surrounding and connecting animal rights to or omitting animal rights from veganism Her specific focus is on the construction and depiction of the vegan body both male and female as a contested site manifest in contemporary works of literature popular cultural representations advertising and new media At the same time Wright looks at critical animal studies human animal studies posthumanism and ecofeminism as theoretical frameworks that inform vegan studies even as they differ from it The vegan body says Wright threatens the status quo in terms of what we eat wear and purchase and also in how vegans choose not to participate in many aspects of the mechanisms undergirding mainstream culture These threats are acutely felt in light of post 9 11 anxieties over American strength and virility A discourse has emerged that seeks among other things to bully veganism out of existence as it is poised to alter the dominant cultural mindset or conversely to constitute the vegan body as an idealized paragon of health beauty and strength What better serves veganism is exemplified by Wright s study openness debate inquiry and analysis

The Residues, Part Two Stephen Barber, 2021-02-01 Beginning in 1993 with Artaud Blows and Bombs Stephen Barber has quietly independently forged one of the most singular and enriching bodies of work in contemporary writing David Peace Over the three decades since 1990 Stephen Barber has written many essays and experimental writings around film and digital arts For the first time this collection in two parts assembles all of those writings many otherwise unavailable over seventy in all Many of those writings explore unknown elements of vital bodies of work that remain inspirational for contemporary art writing and film Others interrogate the transmutations of cities especially those of Europe and of Japan across those three decades anatomizing their urban futures These writings are often residues from or accompaniments to Stephen Barber s thirty books short writings which possess their own distinctive and accumulating presence and can display the interrogative resilience to explore preoccupations with greater intensity and pointedness than an entire book THE RESIDUES PART TWO collects 30 writings on subjects including JG Ballard Pier Paolo Pasolini Donald Richie and much more

Fiction Sławomir Kuźnicki, 2017-05-11 This volume details Margaret Atwood's dystopian novels through the themes of the ambivalent ethics of science and technology the position of women in the male dominated world and the ambiguous role played by religion and spirituality The book's unique and original approach places Atwood's fiction within the contemporary world with all the problems of our fast changing reality Furthermore it provides an excellent reading of her dystopias in a broader humanist context with an emphasis on the social cultural and political issues that have been important for both her the writer and us the readers The Last Plague Glen E. Page, 2008 Glen Page is currently working on the next book in the Apocalypse series P 4 of cover The Organizer's Guide to Architecture Education Kirsten Day, Peggy Deamer, Andrea Dietz, Tessa Forde, Jessica Garcia Fritz, Palmyra Geraki, Valérie Lechêne, 2024-07-24 The Organizer's Guide to Architecture Education serves as a timely call to action for transforming architecture education to meet the monumental environmental and social challenges of our time Written by a collective of eight educators practitioners and organizers and structured in three parts the book considers organizing across four scales of architecture education and reorients architecture toward stewarding the planetary commons It speaks to students faculty and administrators in architecture schools as well as professional architects and built environment practitioners who recognize the need to expand and decenter the discipline Readers will gain critical understandings and skills for reimagining architectural pedagogy practice and relations to power structures Empowered by this knowledge readers will be motivated to contribute actively to and drive systemic change within the field Illuminated with how to methods from power mapping to conversation tactics and case study precedents the book catalyzes a collective redefinition of architecture as a vital player in building a socially just and ecologically regenerative future Architectures of Refusal Jill Stoner, Ozayr Saloojee, 2023-01-17 Guest edited by Jill Stoner and Ozayr Saloojee Over the past decade and in a more concentrated form over the past two years there has been increasing recognition of architecture's systemic complicity in constructing and upholding hierarchies of race and class and privileging colonial paradigms that perpetuate spatial and economic inequity This AD issue reveals how designers practitioners scholars and architects are participating in dismantling the major canons of Western architecture The work is both literal and figural taking buildings apart and reconstituting them and challenging mythologies that include drawing as analogue building as object architect as hero and nature as other Architecture has both potential and responsibility for political agency in the public realm The contributions to this issue foreground emancipatory spatial ideas and practices from around the world demonstrating that refusal is no longer just absence and denial but a constructive mode of resistance and action that needs to be approached through subversive urban works design pedagogy and alliances across multiple disciplines Contributors Piper Bernbaum Carwil Bjork James Thiresh Govender Lucia Jal n Oyarzun Jennifer Newsom and Tom Carruthers Cong Chi Nguyen Quilian Riano Hannah Le Roux Alberto de Salvatierra Cathy Smith Chat Travieso and Ilze Wolff The Moving Text Garrick V. Allen , Christopher R. Brewer, Dennis F. Kinlaw III , 2018-06-30 Drawing upon the pioneering work of the British theologian David Brown who argues for a non static moving text that reaches beyond the biblical canon this volume brings together twelve interdisciplinary essays as well as a response from Brown With essays ranging from New Testament textual criticism to the fiction of David Foster Wallace The Moving Text provides an introduction to Brown and the Bible that will be of interest to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as specialists in a wide range of fields Contributions include Ian Boxall The Catholic University of America From the Magi to Pilate s Wife David Brown Tradition and the Reception of Matthew s Text Robert MacSwain The University of the South David Brown and Eleonore Stump on Biblical Interpretation Aaron Rosen Rocky Mountain College Revisions of Sacrifice Abraham in Art and Interfaith Dialogue Dennis F Kinlaw III Houston Baptist University The Forms of Faith in Contemporary American Fiction Australia in the US Empire Erik Paul,2018-04-27 This book argues that Australia is vital to the US imperial project for global hegemony in the struggle among great powers and why Australia s deep dependency on the US is incompatible with democracy and the security of the country The Australian continent is increasingly a contestable geopolitical asset for the US grand strategy and for China s economic and political expansionism The election of Donald Trump to the US presidency is symptomatic of the US hegemonic crisis The US is Australia s dangerous ally and the US crisis is a call for Australia to regain sovereignty and sever its military alliance with the US Political realism provides a critical paradigm to analyse the interactions between capitalism imperialism and militarism as they undermine Australian democracy and shift governmentality towards new forms of authoritarianism
